

Friends fete six teachers leaving Percy Merry school

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
A large number of parents, teachers and former students attended a farewell party in Percy W. Merry School on Tuesday evening, June 28 to say goodbye to W. S. Robinson, principal of the school since its opening eight years ago.

Other teachers who are leaving the staff are Mrs. Bentley (kindergarten), Mrs. G. Reeves, Mrs. J. Bradley, Robert Stankie and Tom Hunter. These teachers have made many friends at Percy Merry and will be much missed next year.

Euchre was enjoyed and later a delicious lunch was served. All lady teachers present received corsages, courtesy of the Home and School Association. Dick Course, president, was M.C. for the evening, expressing on behalf of all, regrets that Mr. Robinson was leaving the school and extending best wishes for the future. He presented, as a token of esteem, the gift of a carving set and case. Mrs. Robinson was presented with a beautiful arm bouquet of red roses, by Mrs. Jean Hill, a former Home and School president. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson expressed sincere appreciation for the gifts, saying they had enjoyed the co-operation and friendship of all concerned at Percy Merry. They invited those present to visit them at their new home near Campbellville.

Miss Audrey Fredericks, a bride of July 2 was honored on Wednesday evening by friends of Omagh Presbyterian church by a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Robert Brownridge was chairman for the evening and conducted several contests, which were interesting and enjoyable.

Audrey, assisted by the groom-to-be, Charles Parchem, opened their many useful gifts. Also helping were Jackie Hill and Marg Cragg. The ladies served a lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed. We join their many friends in wishing this fine young couple much happiness in the years ahead.

Boyne Community neighbors tendered Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCready with a miscellaneous shower following their recent marriage. The event, held at Boyne Centre was chaired by Ross Lawrence. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received by the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Reeves of Ashgrove were hosts at a barbecue supper on June 24 for the teachers and friends of Percy Merry to honor Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robinson with a gift and also teachers Miss P. Cummings and Tom Hunter, on their approaching marriages were given gifts for their new home.

Following the close of school on Wednesday, June 29 the teachers of Percy Merry School had a social half hour in the teachers' room, with light refreshments. Each teacher leaving the staff was presented with a sterling silver coffee spoon with Percy Merry crest engraved on it. Miss Fisher in a few chosen words expressed the feelings concerning so many leaving the staff. Presentations were by Mrs. Bradley.

Mrs. Bentley received from her class a handsome gold colored tea service in china. Mrs. Reeves received a beautiful sterling silver locket; Mr. Stankie, a Cuff link and tie pin. Mr. Hunter a gift; Mr. Robinson a carved tray. Mrs. Bradley a cut glass flower vase. The students from each class presented their gifts.

Congratulations to the grade 8 class of Percy Merry school. They are Kenneth Alderson, Kenneth Peacock, Richard Colbeck, Richard Low, David Neelands, Brian Rusk, Robert Hillson, Stephen Cookson, Randy Nielson, Dean Hawke, Michael Hancock, Sin Wong, Steven Oravecz, Charles Oravecz, Terry Cole, Rosalyn Merry, Patricia Ford, Kathy Greston, Laurie Maxwell, Kathy Brown, Karen Bradley, Linda Bernardini, Gail Kiernan, Vicki Maxted, Carol Petch, Sharon Bates, Kay Eng, Mary Wilson, Vivian Royce and Tanya Deming.

Most or all of these students will be attending the new White Oaks High School. We wish them all success as they continue in their life's work.

About 50 descendants of the late Andrew and Mary (Featherstone) Ford gathered at Boyne Centre on Sunday, June 26 for their annual reunion and family get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riebot were hosts for the day and welcomed the guests. A buffet luncheon was served at 1 p.m. and enjoyed by all. The sports committee, Clarence Ford Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Joyce had a good program of races and contests. Guests were present from Shelburne, Scarborough, Oakville and locally. Reunion next year to be held at Boyne Centre on July 9, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Clare Ford and

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ford will make arrangements. Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robinson who celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary on June 29.

Miss Diana Dolby, a member of Hornby South 4-H Club was one of three young ladies representing Halton County at the annual Girls' Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club members. The conference, attended by girls from all parts of Ontario, was held at Guelph, from June 21 to June 24. Diana reports having a fine holiday. She appreciated meeting and making new friends. It was a most enjoyable four days.

Thomas Galbraith and Mrs. Florence Jeffcott attended the wedding of Mrs. Jeffcott's granddaughter Sandra Wilson to Paul Killingback. The wedding was held in St. Christopher's Anglican church, Burlington on June 30, at 7 p.m.

We join their many friends in wishing the young couple much happiness.

Mrs. Paul Cartwright of Burlington was a weekend visitor with her sister Mrs. R. J. Burnfield, 25 Highway.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parchem, a bride and groom of July 2. The young couple were married in Omagh Presbyterian church by Rev. S. E. Smith, pastor of the church.

Get well wishes to Miss Margaret Douglas and Allan Kier-nan, both of whom are patients in Milton hospital.

Mrs. Coia Vansickle of Toronto visited for a week with the Chapman family.

Mrs. Robert Brownridge attended the funeral service in Hamilton, Thursday, June 30 of Miss Amelia Worston, a teacher friend. Miss Worston passed away suddenly from a heart attack. She retired two years ago and had taught for many years at Merton school.

Happy birthday to our friends, Linda Kuenzig on July 4; Kenneth Alderson, 14 on July 3; Brian Taylor, 15 on July 3; Fern Lawrence, 12 July 6; Deborah Neelands, 10 July 1; Sharon Prestige, 15 July 1; Carol Ayres, 7 July 2; Lynn Stewart, 7 July 8; Rick Rowan and Bill Lockie on July 5; Helen Van De Boom, 9 July 8; and Mary Ann Vandevalk, 2 July 8.

Rev. Keith Hawkes and Mrs. Hawkes and children Timmy and Martha moved into the manse at Hornby on Saturday, July 2. Mr. Hawkes will minister to Ashgrove, Hornby and Bethel United Church congregations.

Milton O.P.P. reported traffic was heavy on district highways over the holiday weekend, but there were just three accidents. No persons were killed or injured and property damage in the three crashes totalled $1,170.

Laymen, women conduct area church services

For the second year in a row, laymen and women of Zimmerman and Lowville United Church charge are taking over the summer services — and are really enjoying their work.

For the five Sundays in July, two ladies and eight men will pair up to conduct the services and preach the sermon. Services of the two churches will alternate between the two churches, and be held at 10 a.m. each Sunday.

On Sunday, July 3, Jack Barton gave the sermon at the service in Lowville church with Norman Langton assisting. Next Sunday J. G. Warren will preach at Zimmerman and J. G. Corneli will assist.

Schedule for the remaining three services sees Mrs. Howard Coulson preaching and George Colling assisting at Lowville, July 17; Stan Portch taking the sermon and Edgar Campbell assisting at Zimmerman July 24; and Mrs. Burdge Gunby in the pulpit with the help of Elmer Foster on July 31 at Lowville.

Minister of the two churches, Rev. A. K. Griffiths praised the laymen for their interest in the project. He said each one has thoroughly researched and studied the subject matter for their sermons and "they are doing a very commendable job".

Two of the laymen, Mr. Barton and Mr. Warren, have also offered their services to other churches in the district.
