Forty Holy Rosary pupils enjoy annual grade eight class day

The children of Holy Rosary School were privileged to assist at the first Mass celebrated by Rev. Father Murphy in their new parish church on Monday morning June 27. At the same time honors were given to the 40 Grade 8 students who were celebrating their annual "Class Day" before leaving their Alma Mater. Following the Mass, breakfast was served in the school auditorium by the ladies of the Catholic Women's League.

After the breakfast awards were made and words of gratitude were expressed to those concerned.

Cheques for $50 each were presented by A Meechan on behalf of Holy Rosary Credit Union to the girl and the boy with highest standing for the year—Roseanna Rigo and Brian Wolkowski.

Cheques of $25 each were also presented by A Meechan on behalf of Holy Rosary Credit Union to the girl and the boy with second highest standing in the class—Lina Mazzorato and Danny Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Darby were the donors of a cheque for $10 to the pupil with highest standing in English; this was won by Philippe Boyer. Nancy Verrall won the Religion prize presented by Sister Antoinette. On behalf of the Milton Separate School Board Father Murphy presented each boy and girl with the latest Sunday Missal.

Very attractive and useful favours were at each student's place. These were gifts from the Catholic Women's League.

Father Murphy was presented with a substantial cheque from the pupils of the school to complete their offering of the gift of the Tabernacle in the new church. In his remarks of appreciation Father stressed to the graduates the necessity for them to always live up to the fine teaching and morals which had been instilled in them during their eight years at Holy Rosary. After words of encouragement and good advice by Father a short program followed. This brought much laughter when Danny Jones read the class Will; Sandra Wright saw each boy and girl of this year's class in the Crystal Ball of 1976. Grade 7 class gave a humorous rendition of "The Night Before Class Day" which was much enjoyed by all.

After words of appreciation and presentation of gifts to Sister Antoinette, Principal, Sister Madeleine, the class teacher, and Mr D. Boyer the teacher of Oral French, the program was brought to a close with the singing of O Canada.

Don't worry about finding your station in life; there's always someone who'll tell you where to get off.

IT'S INSPECTION TIME at the weekend cub camp enjoyed by 31 boys from the 2nd Milton Cub Pack recently at the Highway 25 camp. Leader Hilda Hill snapped this picture as the boys lined up outside their tents for inspection Saturday morning. The boys enjoyed sports and handicrafts and participated in a three mile hike.
