Red Sox, White Sox battle to deadlock

White Sox and Red Sox battled to an 11-11 stalemate in minor baseball "B" league action at Rotary Park last Wednesday evening.

Gary Dance scored a first-inning run to give the Red Sox a 1-0 lead. In the bottom half of the inning the White Sox scored twice to go ahead as R. Twiss and Wilson singled to score G. Jubb and S. Powers.

B. Graham and B. Merritt scored in the top of the second to give the Red Sox a 3-2 lead and in the third inning the Sox got runs from J. Harkins, D. Thompson, G. Jubb, S. Powers and David Pearce to go ahead 8-2.

The lead, however, soon shrank as the White Sox scored eight times to go in front 10-8.

The lead continued to change hands in the fourth inning as the Red Sox scored three times to go in front 11-8 with B. Merritt, J. Tonelli and G. Dance crossing the plate.

In the bottom half of the inning the White Sox tied it up again on a run by Larry Charlton.

The fifth inning was scoreless and the game was then called on account of darkness.

John Tonelli, J. Harkins and Gary Dance were stand-outs for the Red Sox and Larry Charlton, Wilson and Twiss were tops for the White Sox.

Alex Tonelli and Frank Kaszycki were the umpires.

Corn, wiener roast honors ball teams

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

Congratulations to Drumquin Pee Wee team on their success at Halton Rural League Minor Softball tournament at Hornby Park on Saturday, August 27. They played Hornby and won 24-19, and won the second game with Lowville by a score of 27-8.

The boys played hard and were a credit to their coaches, Ray Fuller and Len Buckley. Team members were Lee Fuller, Roger Deming, John Alderson, Harold Merry, Don McMurter, Jim Hilson, Rick Tallyn, Keith Chamberlain, Randy Nielson, Rick Low, Mervin Ball, Kevin Rusk, Greg Hill, Raymond McCarron, Ken Rutledge, Michael Hancock, Rick Low and Randy Nielson were pitchers and Harold Merry the catcher. The boys were good sports.

Close to 200 persons attended a corn and wiener roast at Drumquin Park on August 28 to honor their six teams and their coaches.

The girls' coach was Vern Gooding. Midgets coach was Jack Hilson. Bantam coach Norman Flemington, Pee Wee coaches Ray Fuller and Len Buckley, Squirts A coaches, Mr. and Mrs. Gooding. (This team won the championship trophy for Halton) and Squirt B team coached by Ted Graves and Bruce Pickering.

All had a good time and enjoyed a ball game. The coaches were presented with gifts from their teams and they in turn presented crests to the team members, with Drumquin name and year.

The Drumquin Squirt teams are waiting for the winners of the semi-finals for the Ontario Rural League. Their next game will be played after September 7. Good luck, boys.

This community was saddened to learn of the sudden passing of Fred Tuck, No. 5 Sideroad, on Wednesday morning. Mr. Tuck, one of our older residents, had been in good health.

He and his wife farmed for many years on the Sixth Line and retired only a few years ago. He is survived by his wife the former Eva McHugh, one son Mervin of Oshawa and two granddaughters, also one sister Mrs. Sprowle of Brampton.

Mr. Tuck was highly respected and will be much missed in the district. Sincere sympathy is extended to those who mourn his passing. Interment was in Bethel Church cemetery.

We are pleased to report that Michael Lister, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Lister is doing well.

Honor Stan Fullers on 25th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fuller were pleasantly surprised recently when they were ushered into the multi-purpose room of Ospringe public school by their son Brian, to be greeted by about 80 neighbors and relatives. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary.

The large room was tastefully decorated with bells and streamers in white, pink, silver and blue. A three-tiered wedding cake made and decorated by Mrs. George Izatt of Pickering centred a large table with pink tapers in silver candlesticks on each side of the cake.

As the bride and groom of 25 years ago entered the room Mrs. Byron Bruce at the piano and "The Larks" orchestra played the wedding march. Cliff McClure of Port Credit was toastmaster.

Mrs. G. Izatt of Pickering, sister of the bride and Arthur Fuller of Dundas, the groom's brother, attendants at the wedding, presented the couple with a silver tea service from the relatives and friends. Rob, Bill and John Fuller, young sons of the couple presented their parents with a silver gravy boat and tray and an anniversary cup and saucer from the family of two daughters and four sons. Stan thanked everyone for the gifts and everyone danced to the music of "The Larks". Marlene, Gail and Brian Fuller, ably assisted by Neil Baldwin, Stan McHugh, George Izatt and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macpherson served the lunch of sandwiches, cookies and wedding cake. Guests were present from Oshawa, Pickering, Dundas, Hornby, Oakville, Drumquin and Port Credit.
