Champion

CAMPBELLVILLE

Village, district residents are enjoying summer holidays

Harris of R.R. 3 Campbellville who successfully completed grade 13 at Nelson High School in Burlington and will attend Guelph University in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jennings of R.R. 1 Campbellville spent last week in Nashville, Tennessee, at the Grand Old Opera.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Turner and family of Timmins spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mahon on their way to holiday in Prince Edward County.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace King and Brenda and Robert Colling spent last week with Mrs. Allan Hadley at Gooderham.

Miss Rita Hubbert spent last week holidaying in Montreal and reported a fascinating holi-

Friends of Mrs. Sarah Coulson of Burlington will be pleased to send her a card on her 102nd birthday, August 30. What a wonderful age to survive a broken hip and be able to enjoy another birthday!

Mrs. Lennard Andrews and daughters Jenifer and Mary are holidaying in the mountains near Ottawa.

Mrs. Charles Roberts of Hamilton and Mrs. Harry Hood of Carlisle had dinner with Mrs. William Roberts on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford and Dr. and Mrs. H. McDonald spent last week holidaying at Sudbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wetheralt of Kilbride and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace King were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Colling on Sunday.

her home with Mr. and Mrs. Bob

Gregg, R.R. 1, Campbellville, enjoyed a three-week visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr.

er is still teaching French in a

London College. Mrs. Bone had not seen her brother since she

of Watson's Music Store, Acton, with their son Scott, recently enjoyed a holiday with their son

Delmar, and his family, in Sault

oes of our day. Don't miss it!

Rev. W. Leeman's sermon on get 11.40 is the hour now — 10 extra minutes to sleep) was an interesting introduction to the writings of St. Luke, the Physician. The Acts of the Apostles

- (it might be more appropriately called the Acts of the Holy Spirit) and the Gospel of Luke constitute about one-quarter of the New Testament. There is a tradition that Luke was born in Antioch, the birthplace of Saul

- later Paul. Luke and Paul could have gone to the same schools. Luke shows his practical knowledge of medicine; he notices suffering. He is the only one who tells of the Good Sam-language of sailors.

Luke 8.43.

aritan. He has fluency in the

The disciples became apostles after the resurrection. Luke may have been one of the 70 disciples sent out (Luke 10:1). He may have been the one who walked with Cleopas, on the Emmaeus

Road, on the first Easter morning. Other scholars say Luke never saw Jesus. Luke, the Physician, softens up Mark's criticism of the medical profession,

"The most Excellent Theophilus" to whom Luke dedicates the two manuscripts, could mean any "Lover of God". However, there is a strong probability that Theophilus was a high Roman office bearer, with great influence. The leather on which the letters were written would be very expensive. They would be sent to an important person for a special reason — to persuade him to use his influence to stop executing the Christians.

Sunday morning — (Don't for-

on Monday, Sept. 12.

take-home paper.

On Thursday evening at 6.30

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Watson, sailed for Canada in June, 1919.

Brother, sister meet again after 47 years

Mrs. Melina Bone, who makes Luke was concerned about the

and Mrs. A. G. Cooper, Arping-read the first chapter of Acts ton, Kent, England. Mr. Coop- several times this week.

EBENEZER

Ste. Marie.

By Mrs. George Inglis

Mr. and Mrs. David Beveridge

Congratulations to Donald of Bills Lake, Michigan, are ing a few days this week with holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. George Inglis and they spent last weekend together at Parker, Pennsylvania with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Farrington.

Marlene Inglis of Moffat is spending two weeks with Kathy Smillie in Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Inglis, Janice and Sandra journeyed to get her at Windsor last weekend.

Mrs. Mary Clark spent last week at Fenelon Falls.

Mrs. George Goldstraw and Murray McPhail spent weekend in Winnipeg visiting Mrs. Goldstraw Sr. who is hospitalized.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Agnew and Yvonne spent last week visiting at Belleville and Montreal visiting relatives.

Susan Robertson of Milton spent last week with Elizabeth and Kathy McLaren after they had spent two weeks with their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley at Midland.

Mrs. Terry Moore was hostess to a miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Black, R.R. 3 Campbellville last Wednesday evening in honor of the marriage of Miss Jill Cannon of Milton.

Mrs. Terry Moore and Miss Carol Forbes were joint hostesses on Wednesday evening to a Time Shower for Miss Jill Cannon of Milton, who is now married to James Kroph, at the home of Mrs. George Black, R.R. 3 Campbellville. Many gifts and good wishes were tendered the new bride.

bleeding, suffering Christians.

no one to blame but our own laziness. Study the Bible, re-

If our faith is weak, there is

Mrs. Sheldon Trousdale continues to make good progress in Guelph General Hospital, where she is confined with a broken

Mrs. Bill Diamond, on the ar-

Sunday morning — a playmate for Janet and Kevin.

Mrs. David Newbold was hos-

Mrs. Earl Anderson of Brussells tess and was assisted by Mrs. James Early and Mrs. Robert McCormick at a miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening for a bride-elect of September, Beverley Roberts, who will marry Robert Field on September 16.

Prize winners for the contests were Lillian Evans, Helen Kuglin, Olive Hood, Lois Wood and Beverley Roberts.

Many useful gifts and good wishes were tendered the bride, and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and her assist-

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Inglis and Mr. and Mrs. John Cockburn are enjoying a trip to the west coast and visited Mrs. Annie Inglis who is in Yorkton, Saskatchewan hospital with a broken hip. We all send our best wishes.

Lorne Wingrove of Badenock is spending five days with Karen Halstead at Moffat.

Miss Laura Black was hostess to the August meeting of St. David's Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Robert Elliott presided and opened with a call to worship. Psalm 134 was read and hvmn 531 was sung and Mrs. Lawrence Sharpe had charge of the devotional period and was assisted by Mrs. Wilfred Greenlees who took the

Mrs. Edgar Cairns gave the secretary's report which was read and approved, and Mrs. Wilfred Greenlees gave the financial report. Bale donations of money and good used clothing are requested to be handed in before the September meeting. Mrs. Robert Elliot received and dedicated the offering. Hymn 583 was sung and Mrs. Wilfred Greenlees had charge of the topic "Call to the Ministry of Reconciliation" which was very interesting.

Hymn 587 was sung, the hostess was thanked, Grace was sung and a social time enjoyed by seven members and two visi-

Rev. and Mrs. David Nicholson and sons from Melfort, Saskatchewan, arrived to live in the manse last week and Rev. Nicholson will begin his ministry at St. David's Presbyterian Congratulations to Mr. and Church, and Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church on Sunday, rival of a wee daughter early September 4 with induction services September 9 at St. David's church.

-Photo by Norman Langford

CAROL ANN REDEKOP and Andrew George Clark were married August 20 at Knox Presbyterian Church, Oakville, by Lt. Col. J. M. Anderson.

Photos by Gordon Campbell

SEPTEMBER WEDDING: Mr. and Mrs. John Kenneth Ford of 9 Gregory St., Brampton, announce the engagement of their daughter Shirley Anne, to James Herbert Lindsay Redpath, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson Redpath of 10 Sanford Cresc., Brampton. The wedding will take place on Saturday, September 17 at 4 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Brampton. Mr. Redpath is a Constable with the Milton O.P.P. detachment.

-Meet your friends at Steam-

Era this weekend in Milton Fair

L. W. EMMS

ELECTRIC

Contracting

and Servicing

Phone Milton 878-9731

Grounds.

42nd annual reunion staged by Storey family at Pinegrove

The 42nd annual Storey reun- given by Susan Kinton and Nanion was held this year at Pine- cy McAllister; violin solo by Angrove school near Norval. Mrs. Andy Frank and her lunch com- mer Storey girls, Mrs. McLean mittee had tables set up in the Sports committee members were Dr. Harold Mason, Kitchener and Andy Frank, Milton.

Nearly 100 of the Storey descendants had gathered to renew old acquaintances. This year, Richard Brown had passed away. The elder members there this year were Tish Brownlee, Toronto; Agnes Coxe and Mrs. Mary McGlaughlin, Michigan, a daughter of Dave Storey of Nassagaweya; also Dave Storey from Guelph.

Andy Frank acted as president for the business meeting and Mrs. George Brownlee announced each number for the program, when members of the younger generation helped to provide the entertainment.

James O'Rourke played a violin solo, grandson of Mrs. Annie Frank of Acton. A skit was dy Frank; vocal duet by two forand Mrs. Harold Royce; violin solo by Karen O'Rourke playing students' concerto.

Mrs. George Brownlee favored the crowd by her beautiful rendition of "Liebesfreud" by Fritz Kreisler. Mrs. Brownlee is a talented violin teacher and has given many concerts and at one time played here in Acton.

Violin music predominates in the Storey clan and Mrs. Brownlee takes great interest every time she hears someone play a

Norma and George Brownlee met some years ago at the Storey reunion when it was held at Neil Black's farm at Arkell and she was asked by William Frank to play "Souvenir".

> What is BAHA'1?

-For many, the coming holiday weekend will mean the last trip north to the cottage.

-School re-opens next Tuesday morning. Drive carefully, there will be more children on

CHICKEN SNACK 2 Pieces of Chicken

French Fries

CHICKEN IN A BOX

3 Pieces of Chicken French Fries, Cole Slaw, Buttered Bun, Honey.

SPECIAL PICNIC PACK 8 Pieces of Flavor Crisp Chicken

FAMILY BUCKET

14 Pieces of Chic-5 Buttered $3.99

BARRELS 21 Pieces of Chicken.

Ready to Serve.

Milton 878-6028

WELCOME -VISITORS TO STEAM-ERA AND OLD

FASHIONED DAYS Murray Hood Drive - In

Base Line Rd. West of Highway 25

NOTICE

Due to the recent death of Mrs. R. McEachern, the Service Station known as McEachern's Esso Station, Main and Bronte Sts., Milton, Ont., will be owned by her daughter, Mrs. Wilma Tyrer, and managed by her husband, Mr. Laurence Tyrer. We both wish to thank Mrs. McEachern's many friends and customers for their kind patronage throughout the years, and we both will strive to continue this service in the future. The business will still be known and operated under the name of

McEACHERN'S ESSO STATION

THANK YOU,

MR. AND MRS. L. TYRER

FREE-Street Dance JAMBUKEE

-Featuring

BOBY KNIGHT AND HIS COUNTRY GEMS Featuring APRIL DAWN

The Little Western Sweetheart MICHELLE, Plus Guest Stars

Street Dance for All ● SATURDAY, SEPT. 3 — 9 - 12 P.M. ●

* SQUARE DANCING

★ HOEDOWNS

* MODERN

★ GROUP SINGING

PLUS . . .

Bobby Knight and part of His Orchestra will be in the Milton Plaza playing your favorite Country Music on Friday, Sept. 2, 7 - 9 p.m. and Saturday from 2 - 6 p.m.

COME, SEE, HEAR AND MEET THEM IN PERSON

FREE COFFEE AND ICE CREAM SERVED AT THE SIDEWALK DURING HIS PLAZA PERFORMANCE

YOUR HOSTS . . .

MILTON PLAZA MERCHANTS

SPECIAL SALE ON DOMINION ROYAL UNIROYAL - LAREDO WHITE WALL

RAIN TIRES

REGULAR $83.20 PAIR

8:25 x 14 For Only

A PAIR WITH TRADE Offered for a Limited Time Only REGULAR $75.00 PAIR 7:75 x 14 For Only

A PAIR WITH TRADE Offered for a Limited Time Only

● BUY THE SAFE — SURE TIRE ON WET ROADS

FREE INSTALLATION O

Your Dominion Royal Distributor

878-3131

Milton'

Base Line