Real champions

When Campbellville defeated Corunna on Sunday, they won the village's 14th Ontario Championship in the last 14 years. This was a record sixth Intermediate

They have also won two Intermediate "B" titles, two Intermediate "A Major" championships, one Intermediate "A" championship, two Juvenile "D" titles and one Junior "D".

The team has also won the Halton Senior championship for the last 11 years.
