The afternoon Sewing Group of Hornby United Church met in the church basement on Wednesday, September 7, for a full day of quilting. A pot luck dinner was served at noon and the nine members enjoyed a social hour prior to the afternoon of quilting. They completed two quilts for a bale which will be packed in the near future.

The Hornby Ball Club Committee held a meeting on Sunday night, September 11, at the North Trafalgar Community Centre with the president, John Marchment in charge. Financial reports were given on the summer activities, which showed a very profitable year.
Congratulations to the ladies of the Hornby Softball Team and also the coach and manager Earl McDowell and David Leslie on winning their first three games at the Streetsville Softball Tournament on Saturday. Their first game was won by a score of 15-5 over Tansley, the second game by a score of 16-5 over Oakville and the third game by a score of 9-0 over Dixie. In the final game in the evening they played a Port Credit team which won by a score of 18-11. The Hornby team was pleased to have with them two local players from the Omagh team, Mrs. John Ives, who assisted in the pitching and Mrs. Charlie Withnell, who assisted in the infield.

The U.C.W. of Bethel United Church held their first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Carlyle Featherston on Wednesday afternoon, September 7. The president, Mrs. Viola Alderson, welcomed the 17 ladies to the meeting, which opened with a hymn and prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Edna Ball. Several thank you notes were read.

The annual bazaar which will be held on Saturday October 15, was discussed. The program hour consisted of two contests by Mrs. Percy Merry, which were "Women of the Bible", won by Mrs. Keith Hawkes and "Ordinary Kitchen Products", won by Mrs. Gordon Robinson and Mrs. Wilbert Ford.

W.A. lawn party another success

"Something for everyone", it was advertised.
And there was.
The annual lawn party of the Milton District Hospital Women's Auxiliary, laid out Saturday afternoon on the spacious lawns of the Martin St. home of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Martin, featuring everything from home baking to baby wear, from Barbie dolls to lemonade, from a fish pond to weighty volumes of good books, from a free turkey to tea.

It was a decidedly successful day, convener Mrs. R. A. Kanerwa summed up when it ended. Dozens of W.A. volunteers staffed 15 booths and sold tickets on five draws, and when the cash was tallied up they had taken in $2,100, most of which will be considered as profit because the majority of items they sold were donated by members and friends. Financially, it was the best lawn party to date.

Even the sun shone brightly to make the day a perfect one for the annual bazaar.
Candy and baking booths were sold out early, as hundreds of visitors scrambled to snatch up the mouth-watering bargains. Every item on the used toys table was sold, except two dolls which were donated to Sunshine School for Retarded Children. Tickets on the penny sale went quickly as buyers vied to place tickets for over 30 items ranging from jewellery to a used world globe.
The book table featured many hard-covered novels plus a big display of pocketbooks. The fish pond staff was kept busy digging up prizes for children who caught fish, and the holly shop featured an array of items ideal for Christmas decorations or gifts.

Mrs. E. Alton of Milton was the winner of a petit point chair in the main draw, while Miss Nancy Hood of Town won the transistor radio offered as second prize. Third prize, a polaroid camera, went to former Miltonian Mrs. K. Y. Dick, now of Woodstock.
In other draws, Mrs. G. Strain won a birthday cake, Mrs. C. Langridge a turkey, and Mrs. F. D. Thompson a Barbie doll. Mrs. E. Goodall, convener of the book table and the lucky draw on a $5 subscription to the magazine of your choice, was shocked when they drew her own ticket to win the prize. She refused to take it and gave the $5 back to the W.A.
A welcome to the guests was extended by Auxiliary president Mrs. J. Conway. Hospital Board Chairman J. W. Ostler drew the tickets for the draws. George Swann and John Beverley handled the public address system and advertised the event on the previous evening.

Conveners of the booths were, candy, Mrs. R. Edwards; white elephant, Mrs. T. Barr; penny sale, Mrs. W. Rowney; preserves, Mrs. W. H. Merry; draws, Mrs. J. Johnston; used toys, Mrs. J. Conway; books, Mrs. E. M. Goodall; tea, Mrs. C. A. Martin; fish pond, Mrs. J. Callan; home baking, Mrs. D. Ptolemy and Mrs. R. L. Martin; baby goods, Mrs. J. Beverley and Mrs. T. M. Duran; holly shop, Mrs. E. B. Clements; popcorn, lemonade and ice cream, Mrs. K. Elsley; aprons, Mrs. K. Burton. A new booth this year was one convened by Mrs. N. Pearce, where UNICEF Christmas cards were sold.
