Guests attend anniversary Omagh Presbyterian church

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson Anne Milligan celebrated her eighth birthday on Saturday, September 24, and entertained a number of school friends at a party. The guests enjoyed many games and contests and a hayride driven by Mr. Milligan. Heather Bailey, Christini Godt, Elaine Lamb, Julia Snow, Diane Lamb, Valarie Green, Laurie Stevenson and Heather McKee enjoyed a delicious supper with birthday cake.

Rev. W. A. Douglas, B.A., B.D., of Brampton, was guest minister at the 128th anniversary service of the Omagh Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Sept. 25. His message for the morning service was "The family of God' and the evening sermon was "The Divine Presence". A large congregation worshipped with many visitors. Mrs. Robert Brownridge, organist and choir leader, with the local choir, led the singing.

Rev. W. A. Douglas and sons were guests for the day, Sept. 25 with Mr. and Mrs. Will Mc-Fadden.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Turner, Mrs. . Galbraith of Oakville, Mrs. M. Stoutt of Orillia were guests on anniversary Sunday with the Snow family.

Karen Marshall and Barbara Le Riche spent the weekend with their friend Valarie Green and family.

Danny Green, Drew Milligan, Cecil Patterson and Timmy Green had an enjoyable afternoon on Saturday, Sept. 24, playing golf at the Lido Miniature Golf Club at Bronte and later at the Green home for supper.

A local lady required stitches and emergency treatment at Milton Hospital on Monday evening, Sept. 26 when the blade of a power mower she was using struck a piece of glass. Fragments cut her leg below the knee and tiny pieces lodged in the wound. It was just another accident that proves power mowers can be dangerous, no matter how careful the operator is. Williamson. Mr. Mc-Gregor wrote the happenings of the Club for many years for the Streetsville Review. Social evenings were held for the Club members and their families quite regularly in the homes during the winter months.

Mrs. McCracken called on Rev. Russ, who is the minister at the United Church in Troy where the dinner was held and who had been a previous Minister on the Hornby Charge, who spoke and performed a few magic tricks. Mrs. Douglas Dalgleish favored the guests with three solos. Mrs. Anderson May read a piece of poetry "Reminiscing", composed by Mrs. C. May about the Club in its early years, which was full of humor and down to facts, showing the changes of times down through the years. Mrs. T. A. Leslie gave the Courtesy which was followed by the singing of O Canada. They then moved across the lawn to the Institute Hall where 10 tables played progressive euchre and one table crokinole. The cards were in charge of Mrs. Morice Williamson and Mrs. William Leslie. Severa draws for prizes were held. After cards, the Troy ladies served a beautiful decorated anniversary cake and coffee, which ended a very delightful evening. Mrs. Fred Stephens, a former member of the Club, is now a member of the Troy Institute, who planned the arrangements for the dinner.

The members of St. Stephen's Anglican Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. Carl Saunders of Milton. Mrs. Frank Weller, the president, welcomed the lagiving and Prayers in unison. Verses 41-48 of Psalm 19 were read by Mrs. Ernest Price. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Alfred McCracken, the retiring president, thanked all the members for their co-operation during the past year. The new president, Mrs. Leslie, presented Mrs. McCracken with a gift on behalf of the Club members for her efforts during the past year. Mrs. McCracken presented gifts to Mrs. June Leslie, Mrs. Marjory Sparling and Mrs. Merle Leslie for their assistance during 1965-The annual report was read and showed that donations were made to the Unitarian Service, Halton T.B., Peel T.B., Sunshine School for Retarded Children, Scott Mission, White Cross Mental Health Society and $715.75 was collected for the Canadian Cancer Society by the Community Club Members. During the year many people were remembered with cards and gifts. Bandages were made for the lepers and euchre parties were held. The members were reminded of their annual dessert euchre which will be held on October 26 at the Trinity Anglican Church Hall, Streetsville. Lunch was served by the hostess. The general meeting of the Hornby United Church Women was held on Wednesday night, September 21, in the Church basement. The president, Mrs. Barbara Snow, welcomed the ladies to the meeting opened with a hymn and prayer. The roll call word "Harvest" was answered by the 18 members present. During the discussion period the annual bazaar which will be held in the church basement on Saturday, November 5, and the Turkey Supper to be held on Wednesday night, October 26, were discussed and plans made. Mrs. Gear Sinclair and Mrs. Stuart Winch were in charge of the program which included a Scripture reading and poem by Mrs. Sinclair and two short stories from the Guide Post Book. The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer. Lunch was served by Mrs. Ruth Bousfield and Mrs. Barbara
