

Congratulations

To the TOWN OF MILTON
 on the remodelling
 of the town hall

The modern interior effectively complements the dramatic exterior lighting of the impressive stone face completed by the commission to celebrate its 50th anniversary.

Installation of lighted street markers was the first on the continent to completely mark every street in the town. These projects with a current review of street lighting exemplify the partnership between the municipality and the commission in providing the best electricity can offer.

Milton Hydro Electric Commission