

Shower, euchers, presentations in news

By Mrs. James Hamilton
Miss Lynne Dunsmore was guest of honor recently, when Mrs. Alfred Ball and daughter Margaret were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower at their home. Pink and white streamers and wedding bells hovered over the chair of honor where the bride-to-be sat. Prior to the opening of the gifts, everyone enjoyed some games and contests.

Lynne was assisted on opening her gifts by Sharon Dunn while Linda Chamberlain made a pretty bride's hat of a variety of colored ribbons and bows. Lynne extended her sincere thanks to all for the lovely and useful gifts and invited everyone to visit with her and her husband-to-be, Keith Morley. A dainty lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. Lynne and Keith will be married on Saturday, November 1, at 4 p.m. in Bethel United Church. They will reside in Streetsville.

On Thursday night, November 3, the North Trafalgar Community Club held their first euchre of the fall season in the Percy Merry School. There were 12 tables of euchre in play with prizes going to the following winners, Mrs. Frank Peacock, Mrs. Morice Williamson, Lorne Fish and Gordon Leslie.

Six lucky draws were made with the winners being as follows, Henry Picket, Ethel Grice, Winnie Hamilton, Cliff Norton, Bessie Cantelon and Merle Leslie. Lunch was served by the Taylor 6 Group. The next party will be on Thursday night, December 8.

The Hornby Women's Institute held a very successful euchre party on Friday night, November 4, in the Orange Hall at Hornby. The president, Mrs. Margaret Wrigglesworth, welcomed everyone to the party. There were 17 tables of euchre in play with the prizes going to the following winners, Mrs. Laura Marchment, Mrs. Dorothy Featherston, Clifford Wrigglesworth and Terry Jackson (who was tied with his grandfather, Cliff May for second prize). The door prize which was a basket of apples was won by Eva Chisholm of R.R. 3 Milton.

On a draw for a quilt, lucky winner was Mrs. Grange of Larne, who had sent 10 shillings to Mrs. Lew Sampson to purchase some tickets for her. Mrs. Peer of R. R. 2, Milton, won a pair of pillow cases; Mrs. Harry King of Lowville, a pair of towels and Mrs. Rippon of Alberta, won a cushion. Mrs. Wrigglesworth extended a vote of thanks to everyone for making their euchre such a success. Lunch was served by the ladies in charge, Lucky draws were made by Valerie Ella.

The Eden Young People's Society met on Sunday evening, October 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul May. The meeting opened with hymn 502, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call, "Do you believe in telling tales on your neighbors?" was answered by 13 members. A Crokinole Party was discussed and will be held in the church basement on Friday night, November 25. An interesting discussion was held on "Rumors" by Donald Hamilton. The meeting closed with the benediction and lunch was served by the hostess.

The Eden Young People's Society held a dance on Friday night November 4 at the North Trafalgar Community Centre with a good crowd attending. Music was supplied by "The Larks" of Orangeville. Lunch was served by those in charge. The ladies of St. Stephen's Anglican Church Guild met on Tuesday night, November 1, in the church basement. Mrs. Jean Harrop, the president, welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened with the Guild prayer. A short discussion period was held with final plans made for the Masonic banquet on Wednesday night, November 9, and the annual rummage and bake sale which will be held on Friday, November 11, in the I.O. O.F. Hall in Milton. A Christmas box for a needy family was discussed with final arrangements to be decided at the next meeting.

Their annual Christmas Party will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Johnson on Tuesday night, December 13, with the husbands included. The roll call was answered by 13 members. The remainder of the evening was spent sorting articles for the rummage sale. Lunch was served by Mrs. Fran Miller and Mrs. Jean Bridgen. The closing prayer was by Mrs. Vera Cramp.

The ladies of the St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church held their first euchre of the season on Saturday night, November 5, at the North Trafalgar Community Centre. There were 10 tables in play with the euchre prizes going to the following winners; Mrs. Sidney Robin, Louise O'Connor, Albert Mercure and Mrs. Clare Wilson. Lucky draws were won by Mrs. Colin Beaty and Gerald Teneycke. Lunch was served by the ladies in charge, Mrs. Charles McCarron and Mrs. Hugh O'Connor.

Following lunch a double presentation was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John McCarron, who have moved to Milton and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mercure, who have moved to Streetsville. The farewell address was read by Dora McCarron and the presentation of a lovely table lamp and ash tray to Mr. and Mrs. McCarron and a table lamp and six tumblers to Mr. and Mrs. Mercure was presented by Mrs. Vida McCarron.

Mrs. Mercure and Mrs. McCarron on behalf of their husbands extended their sincere thanks for the lovely gifts and invited everyone to come and visit them in their new homes. Everyone joined in the singing of "They are jolly good fellows." The next euchre will be on Saturday night, December 3.

The Bethel Church Sunday School will be held at 1 p.m. and Church will be at 2 p.m. on Sunday, November 13, and for the remainder of the church year.

A Young People's meeting was held at Bethel United Church on Sunday night, October 30 at 7.30 p.m. Rev. Keith Hawkes opened the meeting with prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call "A suggestion for the Club Name" was answered by 34 members attending. During the discussion hour a skating party was discussed and an orphan to be adopted was left to be discussed in the new year. Velma Ball gave out the calendars which are to be sold to raise money for the club. A discussion on "School Restrictions" was in charge of Del Wood and his group. Lunch was served by Donna Leslie, Louise Picket, Glen Lister and Eric Gooding. The next meeting will be at Hornby United Church on Sunday, November 13.

A meeting of the Executive of the newly formed Young People's Club of Hornby, Ashgrove and Bethel Churches was held on Tuesday night, November 1, at the Manse. Social events and a name for the Club, were the topics of discussion. It was decided that they would call the club "The Young Folk".

The Hornby United Church ladies held their annual fall bazaar and tea on Saturday, November 5 with a good crowd attending. There were plenty of baked goodies, candy, aprons, knitted articles, fruit, vegetables, jewellery creations, Christmas decorations, quilts, tops and house plants. A big attraction for the children was the fish pond. Linda Wilson, Carrol and Darlene Leslie were in charge of the tea tables. The guests were welcomed to the bazaar by Mrs. Keith Hawkes and Mrs. Barbara Snow.
