I would like to thank all those who sent me cards and flowers these past weeks while I was a patient in Georgetown District Hospital. Hazel Chisholm. c31-2139

We would like to express our sincere thanks to Rev. P. Jeffares, Rev. D. A. Powell, Father J. P. Lardie, the Sisters of St. Joseph Convent, Milton, Rev. Dusan for visits, prayers and letters, Rev. Graham and the Canadian Legion for their special service, also his relatives, friends and neighbors for their cards, flowers and many acts of kindness and untiring help, and those who offered help at the time of my husband's death. Mrs. Annie McLaughlin and family. c31-2141

IN MEMORIAM
BROWN—In loving memory of our beloved son, Melville E. (Bud) Brown, who passed away suddenly December 6, 1961. We think of you today, dear Bud, As we have done so often, And feel once more the sudden blow, That does not seem to soften. You wished no one a last farewell, Nor even said "Good-bye", And you had gone before we knew. You only God knows why. It only takes a little space To write how much we miss you. But it will take the rest of our lives, To forget the day we last saw you. Sadly missed by Mom and Dad. c31-2130

McMURRAY (James)—In loving memory of a dear father, who passed away December 7, 1965. He is gone but not forgotten, And as dawn's another year, In our lonely hours of thinking, Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness will come o'er us, Many think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow, That lies in our hearts concealed. Sincerely missed, Karen and Fred Cross. c31-2144

McMURRAY—In memory of our loving father and grandfather, James McMurray, who passed away on December 7, 1965. His toilworn hands, once busy, Are folded now in sleep; And o'er his outworn body, But the earth lies cold and deep, But the soul that was his essence, Lives on, and we shall see Him when the Master calls us home. For all eternity. Lovingly remembered by sons Rodney and Robert, daughter Gwen, son-in-law Ernie, grandchildren Debbie, Tammy and Tyrone. c31-2158

McMURRAY—In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, who passed away one year ago today. Although I saw you suffer, I never felt your pain, but to me you were always cheerful, I never heard you complain. Though tears in my eyes do not glisten, and my face is not always sad, there is never a night or a morning, but I think of the husband I had. Not a day do I forget, in my heart you are always here, for I loved you and miss you, as ends the first year. In a home that is lonesome today, a generous heart with kindly ways, grows dearer still with passing days. His wishes were so very few, fortune or fame he never knew, to us you left much more than gold, memories to treasure that never grow old. Too dearly loved ever to be forgotten, wife Em. c31-2143
