

CAMPBELLVILLE

Carol singing, seasonal readings at Institute Christmas meeting

By Mrs. George Ingils
The Christmas meeting of the Campbellville Women's Institute was held at the Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening with the vice-president Mrs. Stewart Cramp in charge, who opened with a poem, The Light Before Christmas. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford was pianist for the singing of the Institute Ode, and the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect followed. Mrs. Omer VanSickle gave the secretary-treasurer's report, and Mrs. A. T. Moore the cheer report.

to attend the home interior decorating short course in Milton on April 4.

All were urged to vote on Monday, December 12.

Mrs. Lloyd Crawford and Mrs. Omer VanSickle presided for the Christmas program with the latter giving a paper on "Give As We Receive" after the former conducted carol singing. A negro spiritual trio, Mrs. Reginald Austen, Mrs. Murray Mahon, and the pianist entertained with "Go, Tell it on the Mountain".

Mrs. O. VanSickle then gave a reading on The Wondrous Tradition of Christmas Plants. A little elf then came in and sang "All I Want For Christmas is my Two Front Teeth."

Mrs. L. Crawford conducted a lucky number contest and winners were Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. V. Cockram, Mrs. A. Moore, Miss Rita Hubbert, and Mrs. S. Cramp.

A delicious lunch was served after the Queen and Grace, under the direction of the lunch convener, Mrs. T. Watson, and her committee.

Rev. D. C. Nicholson conducted a baptism service on Sunday at St. David's Presbyterian Church when Samuel Channing, Sabrina Louise Essery, and Heather Violet Coulter were baptized.

Happy birthday greetings to Dave Howard, Phyllis Freeman, Mrs. Douglas Freeman, Dorene Ingils, Ellen Hurren, Donald Currie, Edgar Cairns, Judith and Janet Ferrier, Marjorie King, Marion Ingils, Doris Lewis and Ross Carbert.

The C.O.C. Children of the Church, met for their Christmas meeting in the church on Saturday, when Brenda Colling presided and opened with a Bible verse and the singing of the hymn O Holy Night, O Peaceful Night. The roll call answered by 25 girls answering what they would like for Christmas.

The birthday song was sung for Janet Gardiner, Ellen Hurren and Christine Coulter, with the first two receiving the offering which was dedicated by prayer by the president.

Brenda Cramp read the secretary's report. Mrs. Roger Mahon gave the financial report, and illustrated the Christmas Story by pictures, also the origin of the Christmas tree which followed the devotional period by Mrs. W. Elliot. Carol singing was enjoyed and Mrs. K. Moore closed with prayer. An exchange of gifts and goodies was enjoyed. Anne Mahon was pianist.

Sympathy is extended to Thomas Hubbard and family of R.R. 1 Campbellville during their bereavement this week in the loss of a wife and mother.

Bus shelter

Milton Lions Club set up another school bus shelter on the Guelph Line north of Campbellville Wednesday of last week.

The club has distributed several of the wooden shelters at intersections where groups of children wait for school buses. Lion Chief Orv McDowell, shelter project chairman Dennis Rowley, and Lions Sam Naldin, Bruce Hood and Maurice Miljour were on hand to unload the newest shelter Wednesday.

NASSAGAWEYA RATEPAYERS had a chance to hear and meet the new candidates running for township council and school board positions Thursday, at a meeting in Ligny hall. Planning Board member Maurice Newton is shown as he tells the crowd of about 60 about planning progress over the past year. Only one present councillor and no present school board members were invited to the meeting.
