

MILTON DISTRICT HOSPITAL AUXILIARY opened its new modern gift shop at the hospital Wednesday of last week. Auxiliary president Mrs. John Conway, member Mrs. N. Andreko and gift convener Mrs. N. Pearce are shown as they tidy up the shelves and displays for the customers. The gift shop is open mornings, afternoons and evenings seven days a week to serve hospital patients, staff and visitors, and carries a large line of gifts, novelties and confectionery. The new quarters is the former board room of the hospital, located at the junction of the building's main corridors on the first floor.

Talk on flower, plant care given Nassagaweya Institute

The Christmas meeting of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. B. Young, Brookville, on Wednesday afternoon, December 7.

There was a large attendance of members and some visitors. Mrs. D. De Blauw, the vice-president, was in charge of the meeting and opened with a Christmas reading, the Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect.

The roll call was answered by a donation for the Christmas boxes, and the Salvation Army is to be remembered with the usual contribution.

Following the matters of business, the meeting was turned were presented and enjoyed by all.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem and Grace, after which the hostess served refreshments.

On the occasion of the November meeting, the members and their families had enjoyed a lovely dinner at Dad's Restaurant. There was a good attendance and a good meal. Later in the evening, Mrs. Hattie Price opened her home for euchre and a social time was enjoyed by everyone.

- O.S.D. students go home for Christmas holidays tomorrow (Thursday).
- Lock your car while Christmas shopping. Don't make this year's gift giving an easy chore for petty thieves who are attracted by the gaily wrapped parcels in an unlocked car.

Manor Auxiliary to wrap presents

Halton Centennial Manor W.A. met on December 7. Mrs. S. Allen opened the meeting, and had the Auxiliary prayer said in unison. The Auxiliary decided to meet, and wrap the Christmas presents for the residents on Monday, December 12.

Final arrangements were made for the Christmas party, which is to be held Thursday, December 15 at 2 p.m. After some discussion, the ladies are having a letter sent to each prospective birthday party sponsor about new suggestions for little favors for the residents.

December meet, family party enjoyed by Scotch Block W.I.

Mrs. Clifford Brown was hostess for the December meeting of the Scotch Block Women's Institute on Thursday, December 8. The roll call was "A Christmas Recipe". Members brought cookies for the shut-ins.

Christmas floral arrangements were capably demonstrated by Mrs. Robert Dredge and Mrs. Sam Harrop, who had many varied types and new ideas on display.

It was decided to cater to the noon luncheon of the Crop Improvement Association on January 11 in the Masonic Hall and also to a golden wedding in Ligny Hall January 14.

Gifts of an electric kitchen clock and a tea kettle have been received in memory of the former president, Mrs. Roy Currie.

The following evening, the annual Christmas Family Night was held in Ligny Hall with a good attendance. The children received Christmas gifts and the euchre winners were Mrs. R. Dredge, Mrs. W. Harris, Ed Davenport and Chester Service. A sumptuous buffet supper followed the games and Christmas carol singing ended a very enjoyable evening.

The November euchre was held Nov. 30 in Ligny Hall with 12 tables in play. The winners were Mrs. J. G. Gillies, Mrs. Edgar Ellenton, Veenie Bradley and Bob Pearson. Clare Robertson won the lucky draw.

Farm improvement contest winners

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alderson on being awarded sixth in the Farmstead Improvement Contest. The prize and certificate were awarded to all winners at the Federation of Agriculture banquet in Milton Dec. 6.

Sorry to learn that Norman Lawrence is a patient in Milton hospital.

Birthday greetings to Kathleen Course Dec. 16, Dwayne Wood Dec. 13, Gwen Bailey Dec. 15 and Raymond King Dec. 20.

Mrs. Allen informed the ladies that no resident had made any more points than first prize, so the money for special prizes in the fair will be offered for next year's special fair prizes. Next month's meeting will be a pot luck luncheon to be held at 1.15 p.m.

After the meeting adjourned, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Brownridge served coffee, tea and a delicious lunch.
