The Christmas congregational supper and Sunday School concert of St. Stephen's Anglican church was held on Thursday night, January 5, in the church basement, with people attending. Following supper, both the junior and senior classes took part in the program, which consisted of solos, duets and recitations. The nursery class illustrated the song, Frosty the Snowman. Minister: Pastor Clayton Coles The senior girls sang some songs which they had learned while attending Camp Artaban last summer. Following the program, gifts were given out to the members of the junior classes by Ken Whaley, Bob Gracey and Rick Rowan. In place of buying gifts for the senior classes, the teachers decided to use the money to help a needy child in some other country. Bob Gracev had on display a large Centennial sign which is erected on a stand with small steps up the sides which are decorated with small Canadian and Centennial flags. Inscribed on the sign is the Canadian Centennial Year 1867-1967 and the 130th anniversary of the
