Institute enjoys quilt display 4-H Actionettes make up haggis

By Mrs. James Hamilton
The March meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Milton Brown, on Wednesday afternoon, March 8. Mrs. Clifford Wrighthead, the president, welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened with the Institute Ode followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call — "A delight of Expo 67," was answered by the nine members and three visitors present.

The correspondence included an invitation to a Centennial Tea at Ligny School, a euchre party at the Percy Merry School, a short course in copper tooling and also an announcement of a forum on April 4 in St. Paul's United Church in Milton. The ladies were asked to assist in a farm safety campaign and Mrs. Hugh O'Connor and Mrs. William McPherson offered to act as the committee.

The committee on the Centennial project of a quilt and crafts display reported it would be held in the Agricultural Hall, Milton, in June. Mrs. Delbert Downs and Mrs. Cecil Patterson were appointed as a nominating committee. A donation will be made to the Milton District Hospital. Mrs. Milton Brown, the historical research convener introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. L. Graham, who chose as her topic, "This is our heritage". She gave the ladies some most interesting information and told some of the life story of Marilyn McLean in this new land. The speaker also displayed three quilts of different ages and told a story of each one.

Mrs. Brown thanked the speaker and she also gave a motto. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Stanley May.

The North Trafalgar Euchre Club held their weekly euchre party on Saturday night, March 11. There were nine tables of euchre in play with the prizes going to the following: Mrs. Jim Hamilton, Mrs. Jim Cunningham, Mrs. Frank Hadley, Clare Wilson, Frank Hall and Charlie Brown. Lunch was served by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Workman. The next euchre will be on March 18.

The annual meeting of the Halton Minor Softball Association will be held on Thursday night, March 16, in the Boyne Community Centre. Plans will be made for the coming season and election of officers will be held. Interested parents are asked to attend.

A euchre party was held at Boyne Community Centre on Thursday night, March 9, by the Omagh Minor Softball Association. There were 12 tables of euchre in play with prizes going to the following winners: Mrs. Veenie Bradley, Mrs. Clarence McCann, Pete Tasker and Fred Smith. The lucky draws were won by Mrs. Fred Smith and Howard Winch. Lunch was served by the committee.

The third meeting of the Hornby Actionettes was held on Saturday morning, March 11, at the home of Mrs. James McKay. The meeting opened with the 4-H Pledge followed by the secretary's report by Elizabeth Norrington. The roll call — Name a recipe or food with characteristics of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales", was answered by the 13 members present. A variety of local wild foods were discussed. Notes were given on British Settlers and their food.

Following the discussion the girls went to the kitchen. Laurel Lagerquist and Joyce Wilson made Welsh Rarebit; Karen Bradley and Carol Petch made Fennel Haggie with egg sauce; Irish soda Bred was demonstrated by Cathy Neelands and Elizabeth Dahner, and Mary Jean Maxwell and Darlene Leslie made Apple Dumplings. Mrs. Roy Wilson made an English Trifle at home and brought it to the meeting. Mrs. McKay made Haggis which was served with the above dishes for lunch. Varied comments followed the sampling of these cooking efforts.

Kitchen helpers for the day were Gwen Webb, Laurie Maxwell and Elizabeth Norrington. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Wilson on Saturday, March 18.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Hornby Ball Club will be held Tuesday night, March 21, at the Orange Hall, Hornby. Plans will be made for the coming season and a Centennial project discussed.

Sleigh ride at Rayner farm benefits school library fund

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
A sleigh ride held on the Rayner farm, Third Line, on March 11 drew a large attendance of children and adults. William Rayner with his handsome team of Belgians, bell ringing and a sleigh fitted out for the occasion, made many happy and for most of them it was their first real sleigh ride.

Helpers were Gordon Rayner, Dick Course and Hank Peacock. A refreshment booth was set up for the occasion. The proceeds of the day go to the Percy Merry Centennial Library fund. Appreciation is expressed to Rayner Bros. for their hospitality and everyone reports a wonderful time.

Timmy Green celebrated his seventh birthday on March 6 and had a party on March 11. Those attending were Kenny Clute, Robert McKinnon, Peter Le Riche, Kelly Stevenson, Jimmy Le Riche, Ronda, Peter and Jeff Ridgeway, Diane, Cynthia and Valerie Green, also his grandmother, Mrs. Harry Dvson of Oakville.

Timmy entertained his guests with a sleigh ride at the Rayner farm, and then later enjoyed games, fun and a birthday supper at his home.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Omagh Presbyterian church was held on Thursday, March 9, in the S.S. rooms. President Mrs. C. J. Marshall presided for the W.A. meeting. Mrs. Robert Marshall gave the opening prayer. The devotional was given by Mrs. C. K. Jarvis. Business consisted of an invitation to Knox W.A. bazaar in Milton, a church cleaning bee on March 22 and to ask all members to continue saving Canada Packer labels.

Mrs. C. Patterson chaired the W.M.S. meeting, welcoming the

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Buckler and son Roy spent the weekend in Lakewood, New York, where they attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Waff.

Get well wishes are extended to Arnold Switzer who is a patient in the South Peel Hospital, Cooksville.

Birthday greetings to Grant Lee and Bruce Bailey on March 16, Pat Flippance on March 17, David Bailey and Billy Porter on March 18, Mrs. Wilmer Mason and Mrs. Bill Hill on March 21.

Mrs. Gordon Miller and sons left on Monday, March 13, from the Toronto International Airport for Florida, where they will spend a vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller.

Mrs. Paul May accompanied her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall Jr. on a plane trip to Vancouver, where they attended the wedding of their sister, Marilyn Wrighthead, who was married on Friday, March 10, in St. John's United Church, Vancouver.

The evening group of the Hornby United Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Leslie King on Monday night, March 6, prior to going to Hoy's Restaurant in Streetsville for a ladies and especially three members who had not been present for some time. Mrs. Clarence Peacock read the Glad Tidings prayer. Mrs. Marshall, treasurer, reported that money had been sent to the Department. Futher plans were made for a pot luck luncheon on March 15 at Boyne Centre.

The Easter program in the Glad Tidings was followed, with Mrs. S. Smith as leader and all taking part. At the close a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. S. Finnie Sr. and Mrs. Henry Peacock. A sale was held for the supply fund. Roll call word was rejoice.

The third meeting of Hornby South 4H was held Saturday, March 11 at 9 a.m., with 17 members present. President Linda Kuenzig conducted the business with secretary Rosalyn Merry assisting. The 4H pledge was recited. Roll call was "Name a food characteristic of England, Ireland, Scotland".

The leaders Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Kiernan welcomed the girls and were in charge of the lesson on "British traditions in the new land, Canada".

A discussion was held on local wild foods as berries, nuts, fish and game and notes were given on the foods of England, Ireland and Scotland and how these soon became familiar on Canadian tables. The English are famous for roast beef, Yorkshire puddings and their tea. Irish are fond of potato dishes and soda bread, whilst the Scotch favor Haggis, scones and oatmeal foods.

The girls were divided into two groups, one preparing apple dumplings and the other group making potato pancakes.

80 attend Cub, Scout father, son banquet

By Mrs. William Watson
On Wednesday evening, March 1, about 80 fathers, leaders, guests, Cubs and Scouts were in attendance for their first Father and Son banquet, which was held at St. George's Anglican church. Rev. Jeffares said the Grace, followed by the toast to the Queen by Tim Denton.

Following a delicious turkey dinner, Rev. C. R. Wragg presented former Akela Mrs. John Nykoruk with a set of spoons with the Cub crest, on behalf of the Group Committee. Although most surprised, Mrs. Nykoruk made a fitting reply. John Coulson thanked the Ladies' Auxiliary for the dinner and the Rangers for helping serve, to which Mrs. Ray Turner, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, replied.

Chairman for the evening was group committee chairman Donald Coulson, who presented Mrs. Turner with the head table floral arrangement. Three films shown by Mr. J. Brush, including The Hell Drivers, Indianapolis 500 and Abbott and Costello, brought the evening to a close.

Winners at the euchre party sponsored by the Kilbride Centre Committee, Saturday, March 4, at the centre were: ladies' high, Mrs. Gordon Harris; second high, Mrs. James Wetherell; men's high, Harold Jackson; second high, William Jackson; most lone hands, Mrs. Gordon Harris; consolation prize, Mrs. Ray Turner.

The Good Neighbors' Club met Monday evening, March 6, at the Centre with 10 tables being set up. Prizes for euchre went to Mrs. Basil Potter, Darwin Peer, Basil Potter, Mrs. Vera Finamore, Horace McArthur and V. Bradley. A door prize was won by Mrs. Fred Smith.

Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robertson.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Kilbride Girl Guide Company met Thursday evening, March 2 at the home of Mrs. Ben Anderchek, Guelph Line. The group are planning a euchre party to be held at the Community Centre, April 8, and tickets for this event are on sale now and will be available at the door that evening.

Plans are underway for the annual pot luck supper to take place on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, at Kilbride United Church Sunday school room from 5:30 to 7:30, sponsored by the United Church Women.

The 14th Burlington Scout movement is sponsoring a paper drive on Friday evening, March 31, at 6 p.m. All papers are asked to be tied in neat bundles or boxed and placed on the street.

These were served for lunch and were liked by all. Next meeting is March 18 at 9 p.m. Achievement day plans were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Jarvis visited recently with their niece and family Mrs. Ross Forbes and son Douglas in Waterdown.

The Omagh Baseball Clubs held a very successful euchre in Boyne Centre on Friday evening, March 10. Prize winners were Mrs. V. Bradley, Mrs. C. McCann, Pete Tasker and Fred Smith and door prizes went to Mrs. Fred Smith and Howard Winch. The committee thank all who purchased tickets but were unable to attend the party.

Friends will be pleased to learn that George Dolby is doing nicely and expects to be out of Toronto hospital early this week. Mr. Dolby will be convalescing at his home at Boyne. We wish him well.

Birthdays greetings to Sharon James, 11 on March 17; Beth Marshall, 7 on March 12; Nelson Lawrence, March 17; Robert Sargent, March 17; Nancy Taylor, 9 on March 5; and Mrs. Joseph Willmott, March 15.

Palermo Juniors tops in festival

By Mrs. George Pelletterio
The Palermo Junior Farmer Club were successful in winning the W. I. Dick trophy for the best play in the Halton County Drama Festival held in the Christian Education Centre, St. Paul's United Church on Saturday night. Their play "The Patchwork Quilt", a fantasy by Rachel Field, was directed by Mrs. Evelyn Oates, and the cast included Verna Thompson, Bill Sinclair, Lois Hunter, Dave Norton, Margie Pelletterio and Gwen Kovachik who was awarded the Margaret Alice Elliott trophy for the best actress.

—Spring will officially arrive next Tuesday morning, March 21.

The Wary Month of March

March is a month of changeable weather conditions.

Roads are frequently icy — with snow melting during the day and freezing again at night. This hazard demands extra care from motorists.
