HORNBY

Community Club handling cancer canvass

By Mrs. James Hamilton
Members of St. Stephen's Anglican Church Guild met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth James on Tuesday night, March 14. Mrs. Raymond Dimock, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gordon Miller, welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened with the Guild Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Edgar Oliphant.

Mrs. Geoffrey Drew-Brook gave the treasurer's report and Mrs. Alan Harrop, reported on the Guernsey Breeders' Association banquet which was held recently in the church basement. The ladies were asked to look after the serving of the lunch for the annual euchre of the Jersey Breeder's Association which will be held on April 7, at the Stewarttown Hall. During the business discussion it was decided that they would replenish the dish supply.

The roll call "What does St. Patrick's mean to you" was answered by the 13 members attending. During the program hour Mrs. Arthur Plant showed a film on her recent trip to Florida. Lunch was served by Mrs. Robert Cookson. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edgar Oliphant on April 11. The roll call will be, "An exchange of bulbs and house plants."

The general meeting of the Hornby United Church Women was held in the church basement on Wednesday evening, March 15. Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth, in the absence of the president, Mrs. James Snow, welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened with the theme song followed by prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Orville Greston followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. Harold Robson.

Mrs. Wrigglesworth reported on the annual meeting of the Halton Presbyterian United Church Women which was held in St. Paul's United Church Oakville, in February. Mrs. Albert Marchment gave a report on the literature table and material bought for program planning. Mrs. Keith Hawkes reported on the two-day program held at Five Oaks in Paris recently. A report was given on the banquet held for the Halton Egg Producers. Mrs. Harold Robson and Mrs. Orville Greston were in charge of the Easter Thankoffering program. The ladies decided to send invitations to the members of Ashgrove, Bethel and Eden United Churches to attend their general meeting in April when Mrs. Earl Sovereign will be the guest speaker on "Leadership Development". Lunch was served by Mrs. Thomas Howden and Mrs. Lew Sampson.

The March Meeting of the North Trafalgar Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ball. Mrs. T. A. Leslie presided for the meeting which opened with the club "Ode". The roll call was answered by the 20 members present. Thank you notes were read from those who had been remembered while ill. Members were reminded of the euchre party which will be held by the Triangle Group on April 6, in the Percy Merry School.

A committee was formed to collect for the Cancer Society with the campaign to start on April 1. During the program hour Mrs. Gordon Leslie showed a film on the camping trip she and her family had enjoyed last summer out West and back home by the United States. Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dave Dowling on April 12.

Members of the Drumquin Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John Pickett on Tuesday afternoon, March 14. Mrs. Ralph Featherston, the president welcomed the ladies to the meeting. The roll call "Name a Canadian Artist", was answered by the nine members and one visitor present. The members were reminded of the free Copper Tooling Course which will be held at the North Trafalgar Community Centre on April 10-11 from 10.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. Anyone who cares to inquire about material required for the course may contact Mrs. Ralph Featherston.

The final plans were made for the annual euchre which will be held on Thursday evening, March 30, at the Percy Merry School. Everyone was reminded to bring their card tables. The election of officers was held with all the officers being returned for another year. During the program hour Mrs. Douglas Irving, who was introduced by Gladys Featherston, gave a very interesting talk on, "Confederation". A contest on sentences containing hidden names of Canadian cities, was conducted by Gladys and won Mrs. Featherston. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The fourth meeting of the Hornby Actionettes was held on Saturday, March 18, at the home of Mrs. Roy Wilson. Cathy Neelands welcomed the members to the meeting which was opened with the 4-H pledge. The roll call — "A food commonly purchased today which was formerly made at home," such as maple syrup, cheese and butter, was answered by the 13 members present. Mrs. James McKay read about European Discovery of the new world. The girls all took notes on this.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James McKay, on Saturday, April 1. During the Easter Holidays they will take bread making and Achievement Day planning. The girls retired to the kitchen where the following dishes were made: pea soup by Carol Petch and Laurie Maxwell; tomato bake by Elizabeth Norrington and Linda Andrews; potato pancakes by Gwen Webb and Barbara Leriche; German tea squares by Mary Jean Maxwell and Elizabeth Dahmert; Dutch chocolate by Cathy Neelands and Karen Bradley; and pickled eggs by Mrs. Roy Wilson. Kitchen helpers were Joyce Wilson and Laurel Lagerquist and the press reporter for the day was Elizabeth Norrington.

The North Trafalgar Euchre Club held their weekly euchre on Saturday night, March 18. There were six tables of euchre in play with the prizes going to the following winners, Mrs. Margaret Terpstra, Mrs. Colin Beatty, Mrs. Ralph Featherston, Fred Workman, Walter Barnard and Bill Thomson. Lunch was served by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Featherston. The next euchre will be on Saturday, March 25.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Lloyd May, who is a patient in the Milton District Hospital.

Friends of Arnold Switzer will be pleased to hear he was able to return home last week from the South Peel Hospital, Cooksville.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. William McPherson, who is a patient in the Milton District Hospital.

Velma Ball, Shirley Marshall, Carol and Darlene Leslie of the local Young Folk group, spent the weekend at the Five Oaks in Paris, where they attended the Hamilton Teens Conference for grades 11-12-13. The theme was, "Don't fence me in". An informal discussion was held and dancing followed. On Sunday morning they attended a short church service.

The Hornby United Church Women catered for the annual banquet and meeting of the Halton Egg Producers which was held at the church on Monday night, March 13. Music was supplied by Ruth and Wilma Mason. The guest speaker was Dr. William Gregg, specialist of poultry diseases at Connaught Labs of Toronto. Cal Loomis, secretary-manager of the Egg and Fowl Marketing Board of Toronto, also spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tallyn and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Hall spent the weekend at Wasaga

Beach where they enjoyed outdoor activity Ski-Dooing.

Mrs. Paul May returned home on Thursday evening from Vancouver, where she attended the wedding of her sister Marilyn.

Congratulations to James Snow, who is president of an Oakville construction firm, who was elected as the Progressive Conservative candidate for the new provincial riding of Halton East.
