

Town to host postal party

A reception for the official party attending the inauguration of postal carrier service in Milton will be hosted by Milton Council, members agreed Monday.

The postmaster general and other federal and provincial officials are expected for the brief ceremony scheduled in front of the post office on April 29 at 1.30 p.m.

Maskell tops music exams

Nine Milton and area residents successfully passed recent examinations conducted by the Canadian Music Teachers College.

Steel guitarist Bill Maskell topped the list of area students with 84 per cent in grade three. Peter Svilians earned 81 per cent in the grade three accordion class and Ken Connor, who also plays a steel guitar, had first class honors with 81 per cent in grade three.

Brent Tyrer, steel guitar, had 78 per cent in grade three. Ronald Twiss had 78 per cent in grade one accordion, and Peter Trischler and Ken Brown each had 71 per cent in grade three accordion.

Mary Presniak had 68 per cent in grade three accordion and Laurene Rennie had 60 per cent in grade three accordion.

Springer spaniel dogs derived their name from their ability to "spring" game for hunters.
