

Rev. Griffiths accepts call to Cape Breton Island church

By Mrs. A. R. Coulter
At the regular morning service of the United Church on Sunday, May 28, Rev. A. K. Griffiths officiated at the baptismal service when the following babies were christened: Edward Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Colling; Lynn Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. DeVeau and Tina Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brading. Holy Communion was observed on June 4 at Zimmerman and Lowville, when Mr. Griffiths was assisted by Rev. Arnold Matthews of Espanola.

It is with regret that we learned that Mr. Griffiths has accepted a call to the United Church at Louisbourg on Cape Breton Island in Nova Scotia. His new duties begin on July 1.

The general meeting of the Lowville United Church women was held in the Junior Church hall on Wednesday night with the ladies of St. George's Anglican church and Kilbride United church as guests. The president, Mrs. G. Malmstrom welcomed everyone to the meeting and conducted a short business session. It was reported that a piano had been bought for use in the church hall and it was decided that it be dedicated as a memorial to the late Mrs. Vernon McArthur.

The worship service with a Centennial theme was in the charge of the afternoon unit. Mrs. A. K. Griffiths read the scripture lesson from Deuteronomy, chapter 8, followed by the New Year's message as delivered by the late Georges P. Vanier, then Governor General of Canada.

It contained an impassioned plea for national unity and was read by Mrs. R. Coulter. Several members participated in the bidding prayers for the provinces.

A group of ladies from East Plains United Church Women was introduced and presented a skit entitled "New Beginnings" under the direction of Mrs. N. K. Campbell, who gave the commentary. They were assisted by four ladies of the local group, Mrs. J. M. Readhead, Mrs. George Colling, Mrs. E. R. Dukeshire and Mrs. Bruce Millar and all ladies were in the costume of the early 1800's. The skit demonstrated how the first women's groups were formed for the aid of foreign mission work and other religious purposes and provided a great deal of information, inspiration and humor.

Refreshments were served by the evening group and a social hour enjoyed by all.

Congratulations are extended to Louise Lepage, Grade 13 student at the M. M. Robinson High School who received a special award and pin for the highest standing on a special university mathematics test. Louise has been accepted at the Waterloo University in the arts degree course, majoring in mathematics. The term will begin in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rouse are enjoying a camping trip to the West coast. They report an overnight visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Atkinson, Lacombe, Alberta, where they also had a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lynne Coulter and family of Edmonton.

Mrs. Leonard Coulson, Mrs. Gordon McCay and Philip Coulson attended the graduation exercises at York University, Toronto, on Friday afternoon. Grant Coulson, B.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coulson received his Master of Arts degree at this ceremony, and sincere congratulations and good wishes are extended to him.

Special services will be held at the Lowville United Church on Sunday morning, June 11, at 11 a.m. when the Lowville United Church Women will hold the annual Thankoffering Service. Special speaker will be Miss Greta Gauld, retired United Church Missionary who served at Formosa. Please note change of time of service.

Those attending are invited to lunch to be served in the church hall. At 2 p.m. a Memorial and Decoration service will take place in the United Church Cemetery with Rev. A. K. Griffiths in charge. Flowers should be placed before the commencement of the service.

"SACRE BLEU!" gasps the expert chef "Charles" in amazement as his helper, little Pierre staggers into the centennial kitchen with six bags at a time. What's in the bags? Why, it's the ingredients for Nassagaweya Township's giant-sized centennial cake, which Charles and Pierre are busy baking these days in the kitchens of Mohawk Inn. The public will get a chance to see their creation at the township's celebrations in Mohawk Raceway June 23 and 24 — where the action is.

Story from Farmers' Almanac entertains Nassagaweya group

The Ladies' Aid and Women's Missionary Society of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church met on Thursday, June 1 at 2 p.m. at the home of Miss Jessie Dunkie, Metcalfe St., Guelph.

Mrs. Norris as president, opened the Ladies' Aid meeting with a quotation and thought for the day. The hymn "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes" was sung and a special message read from Miss Esther Lowe. A quilting was planned for the week of June 13 at the home of Mrs. Robinson. Catering for the dancers and chaperones on June 24 at the centennial celebration was discussed and a committee named. An invitation to a bazaar and tea at the Sunshine School on June 9 was read by Mrs. Roberts. Singing of the hymn "Guide me, O Thou Great Jehovah" completed the meeting.

Mrs. Mullen presided over the W.M.S. group which followed. Recordings were played at various times throughout the meeting, beginning with the beautiful voice of Bev. Shea singing, "How great Thou art". Mrs. Mullen regretfully tendered her resignation as president and Mrs. Dredge agreed to complete the year in that office.

The Affiliation Service at St. Andrew's Church, Brampton, June 28 at 7.30 p.m. was announced.

Mrs. Roberts, as convener, read an interesting story from the Farmers' Almanac of 1967. In this story an old man speaks to his son of the most important book, the Bible. Second to this is the seed catalogue. He says: You cannot thumb through the seed catalogue without believing. Never, my boy, be without these two great books — the Bible that tells of the miracles and the seed catalogue that proves them.

Mrs. Frank Hathaway, as guest speaker, gave a paper from "The Family Hour" presented by Mr. Dennis Tabernacle titled, Heaven — the Home of the Saved.

During lunch, served by Miss Dunkie and her sister Miss Minnie Dunkie, devotional recordings were played.

Jean McKim invites friends to opening of new building

Friends of Jean McKim of Milton will be pleased to learn the new Bellwood Park House, the residence for physically disabled young adults which is the first of its kind in Canada, is officially opening today.

"We at Bellwoods should like to share this proud time in the history of our residence with our friends," says Jean. The official opening is being held this afternoon (Wednesday) at 2.30 p.m. with the Hon. John Yar-emko, Q.C., Minister of Social and Family Services for Ontario officiating, and tours to follow.

Open houses will also be held this evening from 7 to 9 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m. Jean, who is in Apartment 314, would be glad to welcome any Milton friends to see the building.

The building, opened on March 1 of this year, is the result of a pilot residence the Adult Cerebral Palsy Institute of Metro Toronto, operated for the past eight years.

Local inspector at Banff school

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McNeil of Campbell Ave. returned home Saturday after spending the last two weeks at the School of Fine Arts, Banff, Alberta, where approximately 70 school superintendents and inspectors representing all provinces of Canada assembled to discuss educational affairs.

Mr. McNeil was one of the group chosen by the Department of Education to represent the Province of Ontario at this annual conference sponsored by the Canadian Educational Association.

Bumper banners to boost Burlington as separate town

Those citizens who believe that Burlington should remain an independent municipality if possible, will soon have a chance to express their opinions publicly.

Bumper stickers bearing the name "Burlington" in bold letters with "Ours Is A Nice Town" in script beneath, will go on sale across the town this week.

The Citizens Committee for An Independent Burlington which recently polled by telephone approximately 1,000 residents of the town on the question of amalgamation with Hamilton, is backing the campaign.

With poll results of 88 per cent against amalgamation with Hamilton, the Committee feels Burlingtonians will be eager to publicly proclaim their independence. Some of the bumper signs will be on sale in Milton for those north Burlington residents who shop in town.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I am wondering if a person knows the penalty for sending an anonymous letter through the mails to defraud and mislead the police. Such a letter was sent a few weeks ago to Burlington Police, involving me in this terrible tragedy which happened a few weeks ago in Kilbride.

I will say to this person, you are a malicious prevaricator, a scandalous excuse for a human being, full of hate and deceit, with not one iota of respect or principle. If the police had relinquished this piece of treachery to me as I requested, I would, I think, know where to send a detective and have the culprit punished.

Search your heart, you poor insignificant creature, and congratulate yourself on being a dyed-in-the-wool no good. You should be ashamed to sign your name. I am not ashamed of mine.
