

Variety of entertainment provided for all residents

By Mrs. M. Warbanks and Miss Lottie Moore

The residents once again enjoyed a community hymn sing on Sunday evening, May 14, when the choir of St. Paul's United Church, Oakville, visited the Manor. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. Powley. S. Cox directed the choir and E. Reading operated the screen. Between the numbers of the hymn sing Mr. and Mrs. Powley played a piano and trumpet duet, and a piano and accordion duet. E. Bodrug sang a solo, as did Bob Massey.

It is always a pleasure to welcome this group to the Manor, they are all so friendly and the social hour is enjoyed as much as the program. Rev. G. Watt and Rev. C. Burden were in attendance as well. Rev. Rudren gave the benediction.

The Manor Auxiliary served refreshments and Mrs. Hoare expressed the thanks of the residents for a delightful evening.

The May birthday party was sponsored by the Anglican Church Women of Grace Church, Milton, on Wednesday evening, May 17. Mrs. Rowney introduced the ladies and then turned the evening over to Mrs. M. Brown who made a charming M.C. The program which followed was most enjoyable.

Andy Bousall and Jim Cartwright sang a duet, Mildred, Joanne and Jane McKinnon performed as a piano trio, Marcia Wilson played the bagpipes, Ruth Walden played the piano accordion and eight rangers from Port Credit with their leader Mrs. Scott led in a community sing song.

The May birthday residents were escorted to the head table the cake was brought in, the candles lit and everyone sang happy birthday. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and each resident with a birthday received a favor as a gift. An evening to remember, we hope these gracious ladies will return again soon. Mrs. Blinn expressed thanks on behalf of the residents.

The auditorium was the scene of another lively evening on Friday, May 19 when a number of the kitchen staff headed by Mr. Norrington and Mrs. Hamilton sponsored a most enjoyable program. Their talented guests were Sloates Orchestra from Dundas. Orchestral numbers, accordion duet, square dances were the order of the evening and much enjoyed by all. The residents do appreciate the efforts of the staff.

Ice cream and delicious small cakes were served at the close. Mrs. Hoare thanked all who contributed to such a fine evening.

Church service on Sunday, May 21 was conducted by Rev. Dr. T. M. Dustan of Grace Anglican Church, Milton with Mrs. Winters at the organ. Dr. Dustan took his sermon from the sixth chapter of Isaiah.

Tuesday evening, May 23, St. Luke's Evening W.A. from Burlington visited the Manor and it turned out to be a very entertaining evening for all. Miss K. Donkin was master of ceremonies with Miss P. Denkin at the piano. Community singing started off the evening, followed by Reverend K. Blackwell with a short address. He also introduced the retired minister Rev. Canon Heathcote who also said a few words, promising not to neglect his parishioners at the Manor now that he has retired.

Four young ladies of the choir entertained in song, they were Lynda Parsons, Christine Parsons, Wendy Slack and Diane Hartley.

Twelve girls of Central Public School also performed, with Mrs. John Clark directing. Miss D. Hartley gave a demonstration of baton twirling. Last but by no means least was a clown band comprised of eight boys dressed in assorted clown costumes. These young lads produced much merriment.

At the close of the evening everyone received a small gift. Rev. Blackwell said the benediction and the ladies served a dainty lunch. Miss L. Moore expressed the thanks of the residents.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the Manor Wednesday evening, May 24, when the C.G.I.T. of Hopedale Presbyterian Church entertained the residents. Their leaders were Mrs. Joyce Redshaw and Mrs. Ruth Graham.

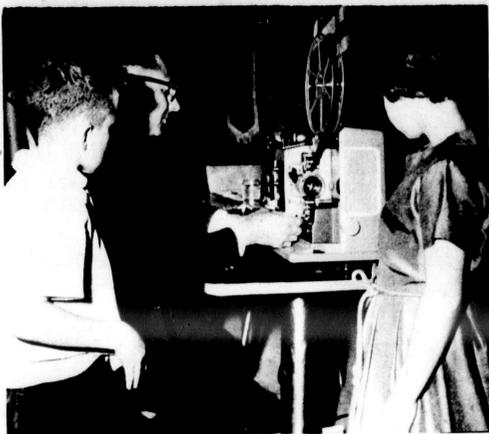

Community singing opened the program. This was followed by three short skits called "Child Philosophy", "O Good Impression" and "The Terrible Catastrophe". All the girls showed a talent for acting and produced many laughs from the residents.

The concert closed with prayer and vespers. Cookies and cold drinks were served by the Manor Auxiliary and girls. Miss Moore thanked them for coming.

On Friday evening, May 26, a delightful evening's entertainment was given the residents by Lakeview Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star of Burlington. They brought the ladies choir of Past Mistresses District 6 to entertain. They looked very charming in their long white dresses and some were in Centennial costume. The musical evening consisted of choir numbers, solos and guitar selections.

Director and M.C. was Mr. McKinley with Ethel Nichols at the piano. At the conclusion of the concert a lovely lunch was served by the ladies of the "Star", novelties and bags of candy were given to all the residents. Mrs. J. Hoare heartily thanked the visitors.

Before we went home, each boy was given a few mushrooms to take with him. Mr. Leaver was given a vote of thanks by David Fisher. (Contributed by Billy Watson.)

Sons, daughters visit Optimist Club meeting

A group of youngsters sat in on what was probably their first organized meeting on Thursday at the Milton Inn.

The meeting was an Optimist Club meeting and the greater part of the youngsters were sons or daughters of the members. Those who had no children invited neighbors. The children ranged from seven to 12 years in age.

Optimist Jim Eige said it was one of the club's objectives to teach children about police work and try to achieve recognition for the police at an early age. Movies were shown and the regular club business was dealt with. This provided the young guests with an idea of what goes on at business meetings.

The club is planning a wien-roast and a dance in July. They also plan to invite people in the 13-20 age group to a meeting in the fall.

Twenty-one Cubs and leaders from the 14th Burlington Cub Pack and two fathers, Jack Inglis and Murray Callaway, toured the Leaver mushroom plant on the Guelph Line on Wednesday evening, May 24.

Mr. Leaver guided us through the plant. First, we went to examine the manure and to see the machine that mixes the corn cobs, hay and horse manure together. After this is mixed together, brewers' grain is sprinkled over the top.

Next we went in a building and Mr. Leaver gave us a square box and a light to see the mushrooms. Then we went in a small room and saw the manure in boxes and little white seeds just planted. It takes 15 days for these mushrooms to grow. After this, we went into a big room and saw the boilers that are used for heating the buildings in the winter.
