The Canadian Champion Canada the Reformers are proud of the lister on Menday evening:

MILTON, JUEY, 4, 1867.

PARTY.

It is the custom of the Conservatives Government without party is absolute and weak kneed Reformers to decry im-rulers without opposition would Their whole cry is to do away our ancestors, we recognize the conflict with party strife, let us live at peace, of great principles and the triumph of and join together in the great work of freedom. We glory in the neble senti-Otmaderation. Party is evil and that mente and the eloquence which the continually, and the millennium would be reached if Reformers would only the country better than a ministry, and day: quietly submit, and allow all the power where its principles are right it will petronage and influence of government ultimately prevail. By argument and to be controlled by Conservatives. That opinion findsvent, and freedom is estabthey are not sincere in this cry, an is all lished. As every interest, opinion, their other cries, is evident from the fact | theory, principle and sentiment may that in the new government they have is essential to self-government. Who every advantage, they have the premier, can doubt that the good of party prewho will be all powerful, and even al- dominates over the evil, and that it is orders no acceptance of surrender. lowing that Howland, McDougall and the very life-blood of freedom. Blair are Reformers, and not deserters to the Tory Ranks, they have still one majority in the Cabinet, and their ap pointments show where the lion's share | nada will again be ruled by the Lower of o lice will go. Out of a batch of 13 Provinces, assisted by such weak kneed delivered his packages to Jaurez, the most harmony and unanimity prevailed, gently abroad for new and profitable Queen's Counsels appointed the other Reformers as McDougall and Howland, latter said he was disposed to spare Mux and the Convention separated thorough-Sormer. Men of no reputation are ap- currence of these evils is to return canpointed Queen's Counsel on account of didates opposed to Coalition. Mr. their Tory proclivities, while eminent Chisholm will support this Coslition lawyers are left off because they are without doubt, as it is but a Tory Gov Reformers; so that Q. C. is now no ernment in disguise, such as he supportbetter guarantee of legal ability than | ed from '54 to '57. Like that Governsome of the bogus American degrees. ment too, it is supported by Lower brings with it a new Government, as a But this is not the great question for Province influence, and hazing the fear the bulk of the people. Their great of the Oakville Harbor before his eyes, object should be to secure a firm and he will have to toe the mark to "John stable administration of public affairs, A." If the electors of Halton study accompanied with economy and sincere their interest he will be left at home to desire to work out reforms in the machinery of government, as soon as that can safely be done; at the same time pro- has 17 members more than Lower charged with the general interests of the viding that the great work of Confeder- Canada, and will have nearly 30 Confederation; local questions being ation be safely carried on. We contend more in 1871, and in 1877, will, left to the several local Governments of that this can best be done by the great in Beform party, who on the assembling of Parliament will be found to be able to In this ties our only hope, and the only following gentlemen : take the reins of power into their hands. The probability is that 60 Reformers will be returned for Outario, 25 for Lower Canada, and taking the Leader's own calculation for the Lower Provinces, which is no doubt within the mark. 3 in New Brunswick and 9 in Nova Scotia, making 97 in a House of 181, or 13 majority against the Coalition government. If Howland, Macdougall and Blair had but remained firm "John A." would have had to give up the task or Now this is far in excess of their rights upon for the new Cabinet as to offices have tried a pure Conservative government, only to have been defeated when natural rate of increase as the basis, the House met-this much for the situ- Ontario has now 1,840,000. Quebec, ation of parties at the present time. 1,304,000. New Brunswick, 299,000. We now proceed to the enquiry, is party Nova Scotia, 272.000, together 671,000 Militia. to be done away with, or is it necessary out of a population of 3,886,000, or a to a free government? We assert on little over one-sixth of the whole, and the highest authority of constitutional they demand and obtain one third of law that a form of government so com- the general offices. posite, and combining so many comflicting forces, as our county enjoys under the Cabinet out of, thirteen, whereas responsible government has been so long allowing 300,000 to each ministerial maintained in harmonious action is representative, they would only have mainly due to the organization of parties | had two. while Upper Canada, or -an agency not recognized by our con- rather Ontario should have had six retary. stitution but inseparable from Parliamentary government, and exercising the | 300,000, has 12 Senators, while Ontario, | greatest influence upon the country. with six times the population has but 24. culture. Party has no doubt committed excesses that is every New Brunswick Senator but it has preserved our liberties, and every Ontario Senator represents nearly while giving to one set of subjects the 77,000 souls. Truly the people of Ontarcontrol of public affairs, has not left the | io will require true men to guard their | other without a hope of a feturn to power, and has excited a powerful rivalry business in the first Parliament of the for popular favor between these parties, New Dominion. who kept a jealous to the fault and errors of their opponents. No Country is safe without powerful parties and a government is arrogant and corrupt, in direct the efforts of the agriculturists, and it is only by the utmost stretch of as-histery of British Liberty, and however promising, and with the exception of Howland have been seduced to betray disgraced by excess, it should be grate- drought in some parts of the province their party, of which they should have abuses under which the country has so fully remembered as the chief influence they are without any of the other pests been guardians, should have proved too long laboured would be swept away, and gration: And this Convention is of opin

Reform party, we are not so blinded or promise well; next week will tell the regard them as representatives of the upon the Reform party, by the largely bigotted as to see no virtue either in the tale as to the hay in the vicinity. persons or principles of our opponents. Both parties are necessary under our Fall wheat is earing out well, and a new Coalition without consulting their constitution, and both, like every human notwithstanding the cold damp weather party, for their own selfish purposes, and of carrying into effect vigorously device have their virtues and their of this Spring will probably be a good and the party no longer recognizes them. sent authority, the Reform, popular average crop. The ca'y danger seems to Observe too how degraded is their posiaffairs for which its members have so equally great evils of democracy, but of late. controlled within proper limits, they are both necesary to a well balanced constitu reanimating the spirit of freedom in They resisted the dangerous and in creasing influence of the Crown, and the scarcely, less dangerous usurpations of Parliament, the favored publication of parliamentary debate, and the liberty of the press; they exposed and denounced corruption of every kind. On the other political evil, a doctrine wholly up. has instructed the Colonial Secretary to all given to them. worthy of a statesman. Their sym- confer the title of K. C. B. on the Hon. pathies and feelings are with the past, John A. Maedonald, and that of C. B. and they have hated all innovations as on Mr. Cartier, Mr. Galt, Mr. Howland,

portation the the

DANGERS TO ONTARIO.

If the Coalition succeed, Upper Ca-

The only hope of preventing a .

It is fortunate too, that Ontario

all the other Provinces put together .-- thing which will frustrate this will be the return of men who will sell the rights of their constituents; otherwise we will be worse off than before. The Lower Province have commenced their work already, they first demanded that one third of the Government employees in Ottawa should be turned out to make way for Lower Province men, and finally obtained a stipulation that every new vacancy should be filled by their

Again, New Brunswick with less than rights from invasion. Men who have

THE CROPS.

attend to the harbor.

AUSTRIAN AUTHORITIES.

"Southwest Pass, La., via New Orleans," To Count Wyendebruck.

I come from Vera Cruz to telegraph served, John White, M.P.P., F. Ba:capacity: The Convention heartily reloices that the new Constitution sweeps away from the Federal arena every

14. Resolved,—That this Convention

"U.S. steamer Tacony, Vera Cruz, June 25th, via New Orleans, 30th, to D Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the The Convention was not merely suc- largely-preponderating majority. discussion truth is discovered, public Navy:—Maximilian was shot on the cessful in its numbers, it was also a 7. Resolved,—That it is alike the 19th inst. Begged hard for his corpse great success as regards the influence of duty and the desire of the Canadian fased. The city of Mexico surrender- its members, representing Reformers of lations with the neighbouring people of ed on the 20th. Vero Cruz holds out all shades from every part of the Prov- the United States, and especially to offer

"(Signed), F.A. ROE.

sented to the execution of Maximilian. delegates selected freely from municipal. public will modify their restrictive com-When the messenger bearing despatches ities. Notwithstanding the diversity of American Colonies; and while holding ative to sparing the life of Maximilian, character, station and locality, the ut the true Canadian policy to look dili imilian, but the pressure from the Mex- ly determined to unite on the policy as while well satisfied that such markets mittee reported as follows: possible to resist it.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada necessity of the new situation. It brings together in the Cabinet representative men from the four Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick,

all probability, have more than the four Provinces.

This Government is composed of the Hon. J. A. Macdonald, First Minister, Hon. Mr. Campbell,

Hon. Mr. Howland.

Hon. Mr. Macdougall, Hon. Mr. Ferguson Blair,

Hon. M. Cartier, Hon. Mr. Gale,

Hon. M. Chapais, HoneM. Langevin,

Hon. Mr. Archibald

Hon, Mr. Mitchell.

Hon. Mr. Kenney, Hon. Mr. Tilley,

It is reported in Ottawa, that the men until one-third was given them .-following programme has been agreed according to numbers. Taking the

Sir John A. Macdonald, Premier and Minister of Justice. Hon. A. T. Galt, Chancellor of the

Exchequer. Hon. G. E. Cartier, Minister of

Hon. A. J. Ferguson-Blair, President of the Council.

Marine and Fisheries.

Again, they have four ministers in

Hon. A. G. Archibald, Foreign Sec-

Hon. Wm. McDougall, Minister of Public Works.

represents less than 25,000 souls, while Internal Revenue. Hon. Mr. Tilley, Minister of Cus-

Hon. Edward Kenney, Receiverbeen tried and found wanting have no General.

And this Government is called a Coal- dissatisfaction." ition! As far as Ontario is concerned we repudiate the idea. The liberal element is wanting, three men have deserted our Providence is this year smiling upon ranks and gone over to the enemy, but in forming the British Constitution. so common of late. The meadows are weak for the temptation of office, with Although representing the Liberal or luxuriant, and the clover and hay its dear bought honors, yet we cannot Reform element. They chose to enter rights and privileges. The former princi- be drought, although in the North and tion; President of the Council carries no ple if pressed to an extreme would recentre of the County we have been favorsult in despotism, the latter in the sult in despotism, the latter in the cd with two or three refreshing showers that he never would be member of a The wool crop this year has been of Minister, humbly accepts the guardian- ministrative purposes, inevitably result tion. If we turn to English History we improved quality, and larger than any ship of Old Rye, as Minister of Internal in the abandonment of principle by one Party have placed an important part in about 30 cents. The fruit crop as far monetary affairs of the Confederacy. spread corruption:—That the Coalition the soil by a hardy and industrious pop every department of Government. as blossom goes, promises well. Alto. Mr. Galt's appointment to this high of 1864 could only be justified on the ulation. gether unless something unforseen occur. 1867 willbe a good year to the farmers.

London, Watch Maker to her Majesty.

Confederation Honors.

The services rendered by the gentledangerous theoretical experiments, they Mr. Maedougall, Mr. Tilley and Tup-assembled to the number of over seven hundred in the spacious Music Hall, amental principles of the Reform party.

SHOT!

Coalition of public mes habiling opposite fruits of the fundmineral industry of the Reform party. Toronto, was the most numerous body of the kind ever assembled in Consider Church and State total separation of lie importance that the ardian and is has fixed the last the support of the last the support of the last the support of the last I come from Vera Cruz to telegraph McDonald, Nassagaweya; James Lind- question of a sectional and sectarian records its belief, that the progress and a great writer we see much to deplore to you of the death of Maximilian on say, R. S. Hall, C. Fymons, D. Cot. character, and records its earnest consocial happiness of the people would be promoted by the passage of a telegraph of Maximilian's execution.— Smith, Mayor, and R. Matheson, Editor matters—the Protestant electors of Up-The event has produced great excitement here among the foreign ministers.

Smith, Mayor, and R. Matheson, Editor matters—the Protestant electors of Upper Canada will have the opportunity of the series.

Smith, Mayor, and R. Matheson, Editor matters—the Protestant electors of Upper Canada will have the opportunity of the series. The following has been received to- present, but as we have mislaid the list showing to their Roman Catholic fellow- ous other questions demanding the early > on account of the foreign legion. Diaz ince, members of Parliament, senators, every facility for the extension of Trade candidates for parliamentary honors, tries: The Convention anticipates "Commander." Editors of Reform newspapers, officers with pleasure that the day is not far It is believed Juarez reluctantly con of Branch Reform associations, and distant when the Government of the Respeaking was excellent, and we would like to publish it all, but as it is already the duty of the Canadian Administradistributed over the country by the city tion to meet frankly and cordially any to present their first report. that the 5th or "No Coalitien" resolu- of years, based on equitable principles, the erection of the New Market Buildtion was the great feature of the meet- and consistent with the honour of both | ing and Town Hall on the 29th day of ing. Mesars. Howland and McDougald, the two traitors to Reform interests were present, and were attentively listened to, while framing their excuses. Their addresses had but a damaging of tect to themselves, and the resolution denouncing coalition, was adopted, with only three hands against it! These are the resolutions:

1. Resolved .- That this Convention records its high gratification that the long and earnest contest of the Reform party for the great principles of Representation by Population, and local control over local affairs, has at last been crowned with triumphant success; and it claims from the people of Upper Canada the meed of gratitude due from a just and generous people to those who. by years of self-sacrificing labour, have peacefully achieved great and invaluable constitutional changes—the accomplishment of which in other countries has rarely been attained except through the sad scenes of armed revolution. 2. Resolved, - That while the new tant Colonies defects-yet we unhesitatingly and joywhole, is based on equitable principles, Reform party of Upper Canada, have and removes the barriers that have here- been totally removed—it gratefully re. tract. And that if Mr. Martin would tofore stood in the way of good govern- members the aid received from them in throw off the extras in consideration of ment in this Province: And on behalf hours of trial, and it anticipates gladly the deficiency in the painting, and the of the great Reform party of Upper that the time is not far distant when front, and guarantee the basement Hon. Peter Mitchell, Minister of Canada, this Convention heartily accepts the Reformers of Upper Canada may floor, and pay the rent of the old Hall, the new Constitution about to be inaugu- be able to repay the obligations then in- he was prepared to pay the full contract Hon. Alex. Campbell, Postmaster- rated with the determination to work curred. it loyally and patiently, and to provide 10. Resolved, - That the advantage Mr. Matheson agreed that this would Hon. H. L. Langevin, Home Sec- such amendments as experience from to be derived by the people of Canada be an equitable settlement, but wished year to year may prove to be expedient. from the new Constitution, as well as first to know what his personal liability, and earnest struggle of the Reform very much depend on the efficiency and non-fulfilment of contract, and that we party for Representation by Population, economy with which the new Gover. were entitled to know what our duty as and local control over local affairs-at mental machinery is administered : And councillors was. No councillor, as far length happily embodied in the new this Convention regards it as a first duty as he was aware had any desire to be government, and of bringing to an end mental system, the curtailing of the la. der seal, and the penalty was expressly that long reign of reckless misrule which | vish annual expenditure, the enforce | declared liquidated damages, not to be (in the words of the great Reform Con- ment of strict economy in every branch assessed by a jury at all, that this was a vention of 1859,) entailed on the country of the public service, the gradual liqui- debt due to the Town, and if we cona "heavy public debt, burdensome taxa- dation of the public debt, and the reduc- sented to remit it, he (Mr. M.) feared

4. Resolved, - That this Convention | lie faith. recalls with pleasure that the people of 11. Resolved,-That in the opinion merely trustees of the Town funds. Canada have looked earnestly forward of this Convention one of the first and to the successful termination of the long | most important duties of the Govern | such danger, but when asked to guaranstruggle of the Reform party for repre- ment and Legislature, under the reform- tee councillors against loss from this sentative reform, as a day when the tax- ed Constitution, will be the improve source, he refused to do so. payers in all sections of the Province ment of the internal navigation of the proportion to the weakness of the op- nature now presents a spectacle pleasing surance that McDougall can be called a would receive their rightful and equit- country. to the eye, and flattering to the farmer's | Reformer, and although we may regret able influence in the State, and when | 12. Resolved,—'i hat one of the ques- should know our rights and thus be pre-The history of party struggle is the hopes. The crops are looking most that gentlemen so amiable as Blair and by the consequent ascendancy of Reform tions most deeply affecting the stability pared to defend them. They both contend to the consequent ascendancy of Reform tions most deeply affecting the stability tended that the basement floor could a new and better era inaugurated And this Convention fully recognizes the grave responsibility now devolving increased political influence secured it under the new Constitution, of meet ing the just expectations of the country. and promptly those numerous reforms

5. Resolved. - That Coalitions of op-Cabinet of which Mr. Galt was Finance posing political parties, for ordinary ad Revenue, while Mr. Galt manipulates or both parties to the compact, the lowpost is an insult to Upper Canada, it is ground of imperious necessity, as the an intimation that extravagance and only available mode of obtaining just recorruption, are to be continued under presentation for the people of Upper country has been seriously retarded the new regime. On the other hand ob- Canada, and on the ground that the through the mismanagement of the how the most important and influential compact then made was for a specific Crown Land Department-Miners and "Amo" from Limchouse, reflecting upon appointments are grasped by the Tories. measure and for a stipulated period, and Capitalists having been driven to other the Reform Convention. We do not think The Premiership, the Ministry of Justice was to come to an end so soon as the countries, where useless departmental the ground that he takes at all tenable, but the Militia Department, Post-master | measure was attained :- And while this | restrictions and annoying uncertainties | according to our pledge, we insert it as hand the Tory Party looked with avermen who aided to carry Confederation, Generalship, and greatest of all the Convention is thoroughly satisfied that and delays do not stand in the way of coming from a responsible elector. The and distrust to the amendments of have not been forgotten. Her Majesty Chancellorship or the Exchequer are the Reform party has acted in the best progress, and large tracts of the best Convention did not badger McDougall and the Reform party has acted in the best progress, and large tracts of the best Convention did not badger McDougall and the Reform party has acted in the best progress, and large tracts of the best Convention did not badger McDougall and the Reform party has acted in the best progress, and large tracts of the best Convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best progress, and large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the best convention did not badger McDougall and the large tracts of the large tracts o Mr. Robert Cuthbert of Guelph, measure was secured—it deems it an Convention is firmly of opinion that a an invitation and what "Amo" calls Mc-of delegates, we are obliged to trust to which a minority ought ever to receive ment and Legislature, are, an act for in all free countries at the hands of a the winding up of Insolvent Incorpormarkets for the products of the Domin- Taylor, Center, Morse, Roper, Matheion, wherever they can be found, and son and Bastedo. The Building Comexist in other foreign lands, fully as lucrative as those ever heretofore enjoypress, and will shortly be issued in overtures from the Washington Govern-Republic, extending over a fixed term Mr. Joseph Martin, the contractor .for 8. Resolved, - That this Convention Legislature; and it does this the more interest on $1000 from the first day of and won in these Provinces, as in Can- amounting to about $250, and he i foundland, Prince Edward Island, and corporation under the said contract. British Columbia, will form a part of the Dominion of Canada, upon terms satisfactory to the people of these impor-

9. Resolved, - That this Convention vinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New | heartily rejoices that, under the new Constitution the barriers that have stood in the way of cordial sympathy between the Liberals of Lower Canada and the as consistent with maintaining the Pub. an action an Chancery to recover it of how we shall attract to our shores a lar | not be called a grout floor and would ger share of the tide of European emi- require to be done over again. of the Crown Land Departmental Sys. and Roper. tem-by extending to proposing settlers the utmost facilities for ascertaining and selecting and properly securing 9th instant. their titles to the lots they may selectby the imposition of a special tax on wild lands held back from cultivation to-day for Great Britain, whence he will refor speculative purposes in settled townships-and by the speedy opening up for settlement and cultivation of the great North Western Territories : And the Convention records its conviction evening last J. Greer, Lowville, met with a that the small sum that may be extract. od from the settler for his lot of wild land is of no consideration whatever in comparison with the rapid occupation of

of the vast Mineral Resources of the ering from his injuries. English Lever Watch, made by Russell, of Conservative parties should now cease, what mineral lands are in the market, ition in England, it is simply a swallowing and that no Government will be satsi on what conditions selections may be of principle by conservatives.

and condemn in the history of parties, but more to commend and approve.— but more to commend and approve.— up the 19th inst. Juarez refuses to deliver trell and A Neilson, Esquesing; H. P.
Government without party is absolute (Signed), Grolier Teheiff,

(Signed), Grolier Teheiff, Appelbe, Sovereign, Henderson, Orr, ment, rests the future harmony and ly their own, to the purchase of a farm The Emperor of Austria and the Emperor of Austria and the Emperor Napoleon have been informed by telegraph of Maximilian's execution.—

The event has produced great excite.

And Bowbeer, Trafalgar; Mr. Cantly, Oakville; John Dewar, jr., George Smith, Mayor, and R. Matheson, Editor

The event has produced great excite.

ated Companies—a Revision of the Patent Laws-a stringent Audit Act, ap plicable to all Public Expendituresthe establishment of a Provincial system of instruction for the Blind and Deaf and Dumb persons-and the organization of an improved system of Public Statistical Returns, for commercial, sani tary and general purposes.

The Town Council.

The Town Council met on Tuesday last, the Mayor in the chair. Members present. Messrs. Dewar, McGuffin,

To the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Milton.

The Building Committee, beg leave

June ultimo.

Mr. Martin informed the committe. records its great satisfaction that the that his ultimatum (to use his own laupeople of Nova Scotia and New Bruns- | gug ie) wis that the Corporation should heartily, because it remembers that the December last, being the date when Mr. same long battle for popular rights and Martin claims that the building was social and material progress was fought | completed, and all his claim for extras, ada, by Reform statesmen, against the willing to allow out of the above amounts bitter opposition and hostility of the one months rent of the old Town Hall Tory party-and because it believes and Market Building. Your Committee that the great and influential Reform | would also report that the front of the parties of these Provinces, hold princi- building the floor of the basement and ples essentially in unison with those of the painting are not completed according Canadian Reformers, and that their re- to the contract. Your committee canpresentatives will be found in the Fed | not recommend the acceptance of the eral Parliament of the New Dominion | building upon the terms proposed by the the earnest and able advocates of just, | contractor, but would recommend that efficient and comomical legislation : and the Mayor be authorized to procure the this Convention entertains the hope that opinion of Counsel in the City of Toronto the day is not far distant when New- as to the rights and liabilities of the All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN DEWAR, Chairman. G. T BASTEDO,

ROBERT MATHESON, Council Room, 2nd July 1867.

Upon this report a discussion arose, Mr. McGuffin contended that it was a useless expenditure to engage legal opinion as to our liabilities under the con-

3. Resolved,-That during the long the future progress of our country, will if he agreed to remit the penalty for tion, great political abuses, and universal | tion of the customs duties as rapidly | that some rate-payer would commence Mr. Martin ridiculed the idea of any

that the report should pass and that we

The report passed on the following ion that this highly important end will vote : Yeas, Dewar, Bastedo, Taylor, best be attained by a thorough reform Center and Matheson. Nays, McGuffin

The next Wesleyan Social will be what public lands are in the market, at Mrs. Dr. Street's, on Tuesday next, the

> Mr. D. D. Christie sails from Quebec turn in a few weeks, with a large and attractive stock of Millinery, Dry Goods &c.

We regret to learn that on Tuesday serious accident while driving down Bradt's his horse-a restive one-took fright, and on being pulled to one side bounded over the side ditch, and threw Mr. Greer over the fence, where he lay for a considerable time 13. Resolved, -That the development in a state of insensibility. He is still suf

We insert to-day a letter signed interests of the country by sustaining mineral lands having been locked up Howland to come; on the contrary these the Government until the Confederation in the hands of mere speculators: This gentlemen badgered the Conventionists for advertises to his many friends in Halton, imperative duty to declare that the temthat he is prepared to supply a first-class porary alliance is ween the Reform and actual operators to know with certainty

| Convention is firmly of opinion that a course, we think might more properly be called impubsion. Again he is prepared to supply a first-class porary alliance is ween the Reform and actual operators to know with certainty

KILBRIDE.

Choicest Moyune Young Hyson Finest Souchong and Congou. Choice Twankay.

The above Teas were personally selected by T. L. WHITE at the reco

MONTREAL

of D. Torrence & Co's. Cargo ex Avenuale, direct from Shanele!

May expect a treat in the shape of a pamphlet form, we shall content oursel- ment for a new treaty of Commercial the resolution passed at the last meeting Reciprocity between Canada and the of the Council, had an interview with Reciprocity between Canada and the of the Council, had an interview with wick are hereafter to be united with that of Canada under one Government and full amount of the contract price, with Legislature, and it does this the more interest on $1000 from the first day of

AT A

JEW TOBAGGOS.

The lovers of the Weed would do well to

TRYAPOUND

And will not regret their acquaintance with the "New Domisson," which is the nearest in flavor and quality to the Old "Osborne" brand ever produced.

HARVEST TOOLS,

CROCKERY,

Hon. J. C. Chapais, Minister of Agriculture.

Hon. W. P. Howland, minister of Securing efficient and economical athorough overhauling of the depart.

Hon. W. P. Howland, minister of Hon. W.

AND OTHER

councillors personally, as they were merely trustees of the Town funds. Seasonable Goods in store,

Messrs. Dewar and Bastedo contended And for sale on terms to meet the views of the closest and most eccessical bejoin

OPPE BODBE

BOOTS& SHOES

CLOTHING, COTTONS, LINENS,

Mountain. The holdback gave way, and his horse—a restive one—took fright, and on Nails and Shelf-Ware, "Hard to Beat."

BLOW AS YOU WILL, KILBRIDE IS THE PLACE.

T. L. WHITE & Company

KILBRIDE, June 20th, 1867.