

A NEW LECTERN AND BIBLE were presented and dedicated at Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. The gifts were a centennial project of the junior and senior church schools, whose members raised "talent money" by doing odd chores around home. A similar lectern and Bible were purchased by the Sunday Schools to be presented to the new church being formed in Bramalea. Knox church minister Rev. J. K. L. McGown is shown accepting the gifts from Pamela Jones of Knox Senior Sunday School. At the same service flags were officially re-dedicated for centennial year. Geoffrey Foran represented the Junior School during the presentations. (Staff Photo)

TENDERS WRONG

A report on truck tenders in last week's Nassagaweya Council Briefs was in error. The item should have read: Council approved the purchase of a half-ton truck from Thompson Motors, Acton, at $1,680 with trade-in; and a five-ton truck from Terrace Motor Sales Ltd., Burlington, an outright purchase at $12,066, on the recommendation of the roads committee.

Grade eight dinner, awards program highlights of Percy Merry school year

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

A large number of proud parents and happy students gathered in Percy W. Merry auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 27, for the grade eight banquet. Also attending were several teachers and honored guests.

Kenneth Rutledge was master of ceremonies and welcomed the guests. The toast to the Queen was given by Anderson May and Sandra Featherston was at the piano. Elizabeth Hall asked the grace on the delicious hot dinner served by the ladies of Church of Christ, Omagh. Later, Harold Merry expressed appreciation for the dinner.

After the meal an intermission was taken to allow for photos of the students with their teachers. Mrs. S. Snider, Mrs. A. Fisher, and principal Donald White.

Returning to the auditorium, Kenneth Rutledge introduced the guests at the head table. David Frederickicks gave the toast to the parents and Bill Hill gave the reply. Daryl Wood gave the toast to the school and Mrs. Fisher replied, wishing the students all success in their future studies, and noted that she was very proud of them and would be watching with interest their progress. Douglas Wood from the board of education advised the young people to be sure their choice of careers and study was the right one for them.

Geoffrey Drew-Brook, president of Home and School congratulated the grade eight and assured them that each had contributed something to the school and to the banquet. Mr. Drew-Brook presented a gift to Mr. White who is leaving Percy Merry School.

Mr. White expressed appreciation to all who had made the past year a happy one for him at the school and for the co-operation. He emphasized P. W. Merry school is growing in size and importance. He asked for continued support for the staff next year and a sincere thanks for the gift—a desk pen set.

Nancy Gitto introduced the guest speaker, J. Marriott, principal of White Oaks Secondary School. Mr. Marriott gave a humorous and interesting talk.

Speaking of White Oaks where grade eight class will be attending in September, he said there are approximately 1,200 students and 60 teachers. The motto, Three Oak leaves and a tree was "The lamp of learning" and a leaf stood for "Truth" "Purity" and "Strength."

He congratulated the Merry School on their motto "Work to Win," on a Maple leaf.

His message to the students was that so far they had acquired habits, made friends, learned to deal with others, and they had been helped by their home, parents, school and teachers. In elementary school they will have more responsibility, they must make important choices, acquire skills and inspirations and work at being a good citizen. He stressed that young people developed a pattern from heredity and environment. Parents should make certain their children are directed to the way they desire, but let them choose their own path. There is a large waste of human abilities, young people must have guidance and help.

He reminded that there are two ways to get to the top of the tree. First, one could climb it with work, skill and ambition or sit on an acorn and wait for it to grow.

Judy Pettwest thanked Mr. Marriott for his fine talk. Presentation of awards followed. Mrs. P. W. Merry's trophy was given to Donald Leslie. A student is chosen for this prize by showing co-operation, helpfulness, honesty and integrity and by being a good student.

The Bailey trophy for academic was presented by Mrs. Wm. Bailey to two students, Joyce Wilson and Harold Merry. The Helen Robinson trophy was presented by Mrs. R. Brownridge for progress to Mervin Ball.

The Sybil Bennett I.O.D.E. award for progress for girls was presented to Susan Hilton. Mr. White presented Citizenship Awards given by Royal Canadian Legion, Oakville and Bronte to Violet Finnie and Joyce Wilson. The dinner came to a close with the singing of O Canada.

About 135 attended the banquet, the tables were attractively and colorfully decorated with flowers and centennial dated napkins. The girls looked sweet in their dainty gowns and corsages, and the boys handsome.

Thirty-nine students were in Grade 8 class, and they were guests of honor at a special table, with their teachers.

The following were in the 1967 Grade 8 class: Rick Rutledge, Ken Rutledge, Cathy Course, Cathie Neelands, Mary Jean Maxwell, Randy James, Harold Merry, Sandra Featherston, Joyce Wilson, Keith Leslie, Sonny Ferrier, Debbie Wilson, Anderson May, Judy Pettwest, Bob Mannerow, Mervin Ball, Elizabeth Hall, Marilyn Saliba, Donald Brown, Janice Good-

Mrs. Snider gave music awards to students who were members of the choir. Five choirs competed at the festival and were placed second in four events. Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Snider, Miss Cherrington, Mrs. Clayton were directors.

RON JOHNSON of Fibre Metal Canada Limited, presents Percy Needham of Milton Works Dept. with a citation, a gold tie bar and a new hard hat, and welcomes him in the "Wizards Club." To be invited into the Wizards Club, one's life must be saved by a safety hat manufactured by Fibre Metal Company. A 1,200 pound water main fell, splitting Mr. Needham's helmet last November. The blow broke seven ribs but he suffered only minor head injuries. (Staff Photo)

Before dismissing assembly Mr. White thanked staff and students for co-operation this past year, also appreciation to Mrs. C. C. Patterson and the mothers who had served hot dogs each month and at field day.
