

Variety of entertainment

By Miss Lottie Moore and Mrs. M. Warbanks
The Church service on Sunday, May 28 was conducted by Rev. Lorne Graham of St. Paul's United Church, Milton, with Mrs. Harold McGee at the organ. A special feature was a trombone solo by Mr. Hardie. Mr. Graham based his sermon on the familiar Psalm 121.

They were under the direction of S. Buchanan with Miss D. Powell as pianist. Solos and duets were rendered between the choir members. Many of the numbers were old and familiar bringing back memories.
Lunch was served by the W.A. and Miss Moore expressed thanks to all.

On Saturday evening June 17, the Alarie Dancers of Oakville once again entertained at the Manor. The auditorium was a bevy of color with children of all ages in their attractive costumes. Too numerous to mention were the clever dances portrayed and they all deserve much praise. The second half of the program portrayed the story of Cinderella in ballet. Mrs. Alarie designed all the scenes and costumes herself. G. MacGregor played the pipes for the necessary numbers, other music was supplied by recordings.

A delightful lunch was served to close out the evening. Mrs. J. Hoare thanked the visitors for their time and efforts.

One hundred children brightened our afternoon on May 25, when the school choirs of Brookville and Campbellville visited the Manor. They were directed by Mrs. Lenora Vickery with James Zehr at the piano. K. Trowbridge, the principal, acted as master of ceremonies. The children sang beautifully and we hope they will return at some time in the future. Miss L. Moore expressed the heartfelt thanks of the residents.

The church service on Sunday, June 11, was conducted by Rev. D. Nicholson of Campbellville. Because it was Communion Sunday he was assisted by elders Lloyd Crawford and Gordon McPhail of Campbellville, and Mr. Lockie and Mr. Wood of Milton.
Rev. Nicholson's sermon was on forgiveness of sin.

On the evening of June 14, the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 114 of Oakville assisted by their ladies auxiliary entertained the residents in the auditorium. The opening number was the "Can Can Girls". Six men performed and it had to be seen to be appreciated. It was hilarious and the residents' laughter showed their enjoyment. Another number was performed by six men also and it was a pantomime by the "White Spots".
Mrs. E. Green received a lovely plant and A. Anderson cigarettes for being the oldest residents present.

The Church service on Sunday June 18 was conducted by Rev. Dr. Dusan of the Grace Anglican Church, Milton, with Mrs. Winters at the organ. Dr. Dusan based his sermon on the 5th chapter of Luke, verses 1 to 11.
June 20 was film night when Mr. Wright showed three short travelogues. Sunshine in St. Lucia, the home of Champagne, Austria Holiday and Destination Bermuda, were the titles of the films. Hearty clapping showed the residents' appreciation.

On May 30 the White Oaks Choral Society visited the Manor with a musical concert that will long be remembered by all who attended. The numbers were taken from "Merrie England." Sydney J. Backham was the director with Mrs. E. Crissell at the piano. After the program the ladies served a dainty lunch.
Miss L. Moore expressed the thanks of the residents.

On the evening of June 1, the Junior Choir of Alderwood presented an interesting and enjoyable evening to the residents when they repeated their flower service at the Manor which they had given at their church the previous Sunday. Besides a variety of sacred songs, they also presented three short dramas on the lives of three of Canada's spiritual forefathers, namely Father Isaac, Joques, Rev. James Evans, and Rev. James Robertson.
Refreshments were served the Manor Auxiliary.

The residents who are bingo fans had a busy and enjoyable evening on June 21, when the Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 12 of Milton visited the Manor to sponsor a bingo. Mrs. A. Bassett made an excellent caller.
Lucky winners were Miss H. Marcy, Mrs. Hartlen, Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Player, Mrs. Smythe, Mrs. Cuttriss, Mrs. Everdell, Mrs. M. Shaw, Mrs. Burnell, Mr. Vipond and Mr. Roberts.
A delightful lunch was served to close out the evening. Mrs. J. Hoare thanked the visitors for their time and efforts.

Martin House residents are very pleased to have two new television sets which were donated by the Evening Star Rebekah Lodge of Milton and our own Manor Auxiliary. The grateful thanks of the residents go to both these groups of hard working ladies for their generosity.

Church Service on Sunday, June 4 was conducted by Rev. M. Christensen of the Highway Gospel Church with Mrs. Crawford at the organ. Mr. Christensen based his message on helping others.
Another most enjoyable musical evening was given to the residents on June 6, when the Teachers' Choir of Burlington visited the Manor.

A delightful lunch was served and trays of fruit and cigarettes were passed around.
Miss Moore thanked the visitors and the evening closed with "O Canada".

OBITUARY

Mrs. L. Skuce dies Sunday

Mrs. Edna J. Skuce, wife of Halton and Peel Trust and Savings Company's Milton office manager Lorne Skuce, died on Sunday at Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital.
A private funeral service was held in Lindsay on Tuesday, with interment in the Skuce family plot at Riverside Cemetery in Lindsay.
She was the mother of Carol Todd Skuce, John and Larry Todd. Mrs. Skuce was well known in Milton where her husband was Halton school inspector for many years, and in Oakville where the family has lived in recent years.
Contributions were suggested in the form of contributions to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Because Canadians voluntarily donate blood, the Red Cross is able to supply hospital patients with all the blood and blood products they need.

Milton band, county float in Oak. centennial parade

Oakville celebrated Canada's birthday with a parade, picnic and fireworks display on Saturday. Several of the parade entries came from Milton and district, to participate with several bands, a dozen floats, costumed councillors, clowns, and horses in the morning event.
Ward One Oakville Councillors Don Gordon and Geoff Drew-Brook marched in the parade, Geoff as a "keystone cop" complete with a full bushy beard, and Don as his "prisoner" — striped suit and all.

The political aspects of centennial year were in evidence too. Dr. Harry Harley, M.P. for Halton and a resident of Oakville, rode in a convertible from which he dispensed centennial pins through the crowd.
Halton East N.D.P. entered a float featuring a birthday cake with candles, which was driven by Ivan Armstrong of Milton. The Halton East Liberals had a unique float decorated with imitation flowers and pushed by several girls singing "Canada". Halton East P.C. candidate Jim Snow of Hornby was in the parade, but he was too busy riding in a convertible as Lions District Governor to do much politicking as the P.C. hopeful in the provincial election.

Milton Girls' Pipe Band was one of three bands in the parade. Nassagaweya Township's centennial cake appeared in the parade on a trailer, driven by Grant McMillan. A sign brought greetings from Nassagaweya Township—"where the action is."
Halton County's special centennial float, reminding parade viewers the county has been established since 1853, was also in the parade.

Two Milton beard-growers rode in a convertible as winners of the "best overall" and "longest beard" categories of an Oakville contest. They were Bruce McGinnis, Charles St., and Roy Stuart, Bronte St.

Pat Solomon July 1 baby

Little Patricia Gwynneth Solomon will probably never forget Canada's 100th birthday on July 1, 1967. For that's also her birthdate.
Patricia, first daughter for Mike and Ruth Solomon of 74 Victoria Ave., was the only Dominion Day baby born at Milton District Hospital to mark Canada's centennial. She arrived at 11 p.m., tipping the scales at 7 pounds, 9 ounces.

Conservation school is still under study

Possibility of a Conservation School is still being investigated by the Halton Region Conservation Authority. At the group's June meeting last week, Allan Masson of Oakville was appointed a one-man committee to visit several similar schools in the province to gather information and report back to the Authority.
The project has been approved by several of the Authority's committees, but no funds have been allocated in 1967 for the work.

Members learned the tree planting program has been going over well this year. A total of about 140,000 new trees have been planted.

At last week's meeting the Authority decided to file a plan of expropriation on land required for the new Scotch Block Reservoir in Esquew Township, in order to "freeze" the land. Meanwhile, a negotiator is approaching the residents involved to work out flood easements on the land.
The Authority is going ahead with a new brochure explaining its work in the Halton Region, to replace several brochures currently in use. Also being considered is a quarterly bulletin to municipal councils, organizations and people interested in conservation.

Girls get perfect score

Senior and intermediate champions were named last week when the Martin St. Senior Public School students held a track and field day at the school grounds.
The girls out-shone the boys, point-wise, as two of the fairer sex won 20 points out of a possible total of 20. Points were awarded in a 5-3-1 ratio for firsts, seconds and thirds.
Senior boys' champion was Robert Martin while Dwight

Odenback and Roger Rowley tied for the intermediate boys' honors. The girls who won perfect scores to gain championships were Debbie Smith in the senior division and Colleen Clement in the intermediate class.

New Laws for Consumer Credit effective July 31st 1967

The new Ontario Consumer Protection Act, which comes in to force on July 31st, helps everyone who buys on credit by obliging the lender, or seller, to make a written statement of the true cost of credit. This provision, and others in the Act, will not relieve the consumer of his normal responsibilities of shopping carefully and choosing wisely; but it will make it easier for him to make the right decisions.

Disclosure of the cost of borrowing
In all time payment transactions the borrower must be given a written note of the cost of borrowing, both in dollars and cents, and as an annual percentage rate, before credit is granted. The lender must also set down any charges he intends to make if the borrower should default on payments.

Cooling-off Period
This new ruling applies to sales made by itinerant sellers, which is the Act's name for sellers who operate away from their permanent place of business, and who make a charge to the buyer for the privilege of buying on time.
A contract made with an itinerant seller can now be cancelled by the buyer, provided he does so in writing and delivers the cancellation to the seller personally, or by registered mail, within two working days of the contract being signed. If he cancels in this way, the buyer must return any goods already supplied, and the seller must return any money or trade-in which he may have received. The trade-in does not become the seller's property until the two-day cooling-off period has elapsed without the buyer cancelling the contract.

Registration of itinerant sellers
As from July 31st, 1967, all itinerant sellers as defined by the Act must register with the Consumer Protection Bureau. If the seller is a company or a partnership, only the company or partnership must register, not the individual employees.

Information to be contained in a contract
Under the new Act, certain important details must be written into all contracts for the sale of goods or services to a consumer, when the purchase price is $50 or over. To be binding, the contract must comply with the Act and must be signed by all parties, who must each receive a duplicate original copy.

Repossession
If the buyer should default after two-thirds of the purchase price has been paid, the seller cannot repossess without permission of a judge.

Penalties
Substantial penalties are provided for contravention of the Act and its Regulations. Lenders and sellers who are likely to be affected are urged to make themselves familiar with the Act.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO
Borrowers and buyers should bear in mind that nothing in the new Act relieves them of the responsibility of making careful decisions when considering a loan, or a purchase on credit. Keep this notice as a reminder of your rights. Information on borrowing, and on credit buying, is contained in a leaflet which can be obtained from the Consumer Protection Bureau, 123 Edward Street, Toronto 2.

Lenders and sellers should make themselves familiar with the Act and its Regulations. The Consumer Protection Act 1966 and Ontario Regulation 207/67 (25¢ each) can be obtained from the Queen's Printer, 26 Broadbalt Street, Toronto 5. For advice on the working of the Act and its Regulations, see your qualified business adviser.

Don't get tires Get UNIROYAL Tiger Paws

Tiger Paws have been tested at better than 120 miles an hour, sustained speed.
They respond quickly and eagerly, rain or shine.
And they have such tough innards, you can go over some of the most grueling roads without worrying one bit.
When you're taking a sharp curve, Tiger Paws give you a feel of the road that you just can't get with ordinary tires. They corner beautifully. With virtually no squeal at all.
They give you that real sports car feel. As if the car is a part of you.
If you like to drive, then you should have a set of Tiger Paws under you. Come in and pick them up here.
It's the tire with the red circle. It's the one that look's wild.
