LOWVILLE

Rev. Griffiths leaves charge farewell sermon last Sunday

By Mrs. Roy Coulter For his farewell sermon at the Lowville and Zimmerman United Churches, Rev. A. K. Griffiths took as the theme "Man and His Maker" completing the centennial series.

At the close of the service at Lowville the congregation assembled in the Junior Church Hall. On behalf of the congregation Jack Barton, clerk of Session, presented Rev. and Mrs. Griffiths with a purse of money, as a token of esteem and gratitude for the spiritual leadership during the four years on the Lowville-Zimmerman charge. John Byere, on behalf of the Junior Choir presented Mrs. Griffiths with a parting gift. Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths each made a fitting reply.

The evening unit of the United Church Women held an open meeting in the Junior Church Hall, to which they invited all members of the United Church Women. The leader, Mrs. Eric Gudgeon, welcomed the group and Mrs. Gordon Malmstrom conducted the worship service. Small discussion groups were formed to answer questions on the Scripture passage regarding the judging of our fellow man and brought forth many points of view.

The special feature of the evening was the presentation of a set of silver coffee spoons with engraved crests of the provinces of Canada to Mrs. A. K. Griffiths as a parting gift and in gratitude for her unselfish participation in the work of the United Church Women. Mrs. Griffiths made a gracious reply of thanks and reviewed the chapter of the Study Book on the growth of the church in Eastern Canada which included some items of interest on Louisburg Cape Breton Island where Rev. Griffiths has accepted a charge. Refreshments were served and a social hour spent.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hayward have returned from a vacation trip to Dorset and Ottawa where they visited relatives, and spent a few days at Expo.

Those visiting Expo this week are Mr. and Mrs. George Coulson and Sherwood; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Malmstrom, Adah and Esther, and Mrs. T. E. Ramshaw, Ann and Bobby.

Best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Terry Grant who were married on Saturday and will reside in Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robertson have returned from Cumberland Beach, near Orillia, where they visited with Mrs. Grace Robertson.

Members of Lowville United Church Women made a surprise visit to the home of Mrs. W. J. Robertson on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will celebrate the 60th anniversary of their marriage next month and in honor of that occasion a Life Membership in the United Church Women was presented to Mrs. Robertson. A long time neighbor and friend, Mrs. Leonard Coulson, read the address and Mrs. Thomas Ramshaw presented the certificate and pin. A beautiful corsage of pink roses from her own garden was designed and pinned on her sister by Mrs. R. S. Heatherington.

The ladies served tea and a social hour was spent visiting with Mrs. Robertson. Also present were Mrs. George Robertson, Kilbride; Mrs. Orlo Coulson, Milton; and Mrs. Theo Morris, Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdge Gunby and Stephen are now residing in their new home on Cedar Springs Road, and are wished continued happiness in their new home.

Mr. D. Morden conducted the Sunday morning service at Zimmerman Church and Mr. S. Portch delivered the sermon. Continuation of joint services through July and August will be as follows: at Lowville on July 16 and 30, Aug. 13 and 27; at Zimmerman July 23, August 6 and 20. Lay members will conduct the services and deliver the sermons throughout July and August. Services will be in charge of Rev. E. E. Bastier, formerly of Owen Sound.

The services are at 10 a.m. and there will be no Sunday School sessions at either church until September.

The Red Cross says those backyard wading pools are lots of fun for children, but they could cause a tragedy if you don't supervise your children every time they go near it. Over 150 unsupervised children drowned in Canada last year.

HORNBY

Sunday school picnic held features rides, races, ball

By Mrs. Jim Hamilton St. Stephen's Anglican Church Sunday School Picnic was held in the Hornby Park on Saturday, July 8, with a good attendance. Valerie Ella was in charge of the pony rides which were greatly enjoyed by all the children. Races and a game of baseball were enjoyed by all. A Picnic Supper was enjoyed.

The 17th annual reunion of the Hamilton family was held on Sunday, June 9, in Stanley Park, Erin. The president, Harold Treanor of Meadowvale, was in charge and asked for a minute's silence in memory of William Hamilton and Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, who had both died this year.

A delicious pot luck dinner, prepared by the ladies was greatly enjoyed until a severe thunderstorm and heavy rainfall sent everyone running and it was decided that next year the reunion would be held on the last Sunday in June with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marchment as the host and hostess.

Herb Hamilton was elected as president for 1968 and Mrs. Ian Break as the secretary-treasurer. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Penny, who were host and hostess for this year and also to Mr. John Newell, the secretary-treasurer.

Following the business meeting Floyd Hamilton of Oakville, presented the ladies with Centennial pins and the children with rings and other treats. Prizes were also awarded to the couple coming from the farthest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hamilton of Wroxeter; Albert Marchment, for being the oldest member attending; Debbie Hamilton, the youngest member; Harold Treanor for his Van Dyke Beard and Wayne Rakestroy of Oakville for the fullest beard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons of Islington, visited on Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur plant.

Mrs. Edna Waite, Mrs. Gordon Sharpe, Betty Laidlaw and Laurie Fries left on Wednesday for a trip to Vancouver.

Lesley Nicol of Toronto is spending a vacation with her cousin, Vickie Tyner of the Eighth Line.

Kimmy Squire of Oakville is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patchett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Marchment enjoyed a vacation at Wasaga Beach.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Laking of the Sixth Line, who have announced the birth of their son at the Milton District Hospital on Thursday, July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden and family spent the weekend at Wasaga Beach.

Belated greetings to Mark Patchett who celebrated his birthday on Sunday, July 9.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shea, who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on July 20th.
