

HORNBY

Program on Expo at Community Club

By Mrs. Jim Hamilton

The August meeting of the North Trafalgar Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Lamb. Mrs. T. A. Leslie welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened with the Club Ode. The roll call was answered by 12 members. The annual meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jack Williamson with Mrs. Alfred Ball and Mrs. Bert Leslie in charge of nominations.

During the business hour, the summer meetings for next year were discussed. Mrs. Jack Miller, was in charge of the program which was on Expo, what you should take and the most interesting things to look at. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

A clear sky and warm temperature was the keynote to the large crowd and success of the annual Senior Men's Softball Tournament held at the Hornby Park on Saturday. It was a busy day for the refreshment booth operators, where players and their parents were kept at a steady pace throughout the day to late in the evening. The teams which ended up in the finals were the local Omagh team and Frank's I.G.A. team from Port Credit. First prize went to the I.G.A. team with the Omagh team taking the second prize.

Miss Elsie Bloor of Milton is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ball and family left on Sunday by bus for Expo. They will return home on Thursday.

Annette Reid enjoyed a week vacation with her cousin, Marilyn Reid of Hillsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson and Jeannie enjoyed some holidays at Bala. While there Jeannie enjoyed some water skiing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fries and Laurie enjoyed a picnic at Fort Erie on Saturday and also attended the horse races.

Get well wishes are extended to Alex Peterson, who is a patient in the Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Plant and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Devlin and family spent a few days holidaying at Wasaga Beach.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Lena Sanford, who died on Friday, August 11, at the South Peel Hospital, Cooksville. Mrs. Sanford was the wife of the late William Sanford and dear mother of Kathleen (Mrs. Jack Chettle) of Hamilton; Doris (Mrs. Elie Alberts of New Toronto); Madeline (Mrs. G. Collier) of Georgetown; Jack Santord of Streetsville; and the late Leo Sanford.

Mrs. Sanford lived for many years on the Ninth Line at Hornby before moving to Mimico. She was a life member of the North Trafalgar Community Club. The funeral service was held on Monday morning, August 14, at 10 a.m. at St. Leo's Church, Royal York Rd., Mimico with interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Streetsville.

Belated greetings to Jimmy McKay who celebrated his birthday on Friday, August 11.

Birthday greetings are extended to Mrs. William Robinson and David Rowan, who will celebrate their birthdays on August 11.

Congratulations to the Hornby Middlets on winning their first round of the Ontario Rural Softball Playoffs by defeating the Midget Team from Greenwood.

Boston W.A. visits with Omagh group

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

A most enjoyable fellowship was enjoyed on Tuesday, August 8 at Omagh Presbyterian church when the members of the Women's Association entertained the ladies of the sister church, Boston. Mrs. J. C. Marshall, president, welcomed the guests and following the opening hymn and prayer, called on the Boston president, Mrs. Clifford Brown, to take charge of the meeting.

This custom for a social afternoon together started about 40 years ago following Church Union at which time Boston and Omagh were in the same charge.

Mrs. Brown expressed pleasure in being invited to Omagh and that their group looked forward to the get-together. As has been the custom, the visitors supplied the program for the afternoon. The scripture reading and message were given by Mrs. G. Jefferson and Mrs. W. Harris gave the prayer.

Mrs. Brown read a beautiful reading on Friendship. Mrs. McGibbon and Mrs. Mischee rendered a duet with Sharon Hume accompanist. Miss Hume accompanied her sister Marlene who sang a solo and they sang a duet "I Believe".

Mrs. Parsons read a very interesting paper on "Canada's Hundredth Birthday" in which was portrayed the struggle in the past, the wonderful achievement of the present and the great possibilities for the future. This paper was prepared by Mrs. D. Irving.

Miss Hime gave a piano selection and accompanied Mrs. H. Mischee who sang with song "Dear Land of Home". Mrs. T. Snowden on behalf of Omagh W.A. expressed thanks to all who had taken part in the program and contributed to the success of the afternoon, and invited all to adjourn to the Sunday school rooms for afternoon tea.

More than 40 ladies enjoyed the buffet style luncheon. They served themselves and were seated at tables arranged with summer flowers. Mrs. R. Dredge moved a vote of thanks for the delicious luncheon, and a social time followed.

We are sorry to report the passing of Gordon Tasker in Milton Hospital, following a brief illness. Mr. Tasker is survived by his wife the former Olive Peacock and five sons and a daughter. He had resided on his First Line farm for many years.

A farewell party was held recently for Miss Susan Wilson of the Sixth Line who is leaving for Montreal with her parents for an extended time. A lawn party and barbecue was held at the home of Rick and Ron Reid, assisted by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reid. About 25 young friends from Oakville and district attended.

Local ladies of the Milton Fair Board Ladies' Division, have been working on their centennial project and have made a handsome quilt in the double Irish chain pattern in centennial rose and white color. The quilt will be set up at Milton Fair and members in old time costume will be quilting during the day of the Fair. When completed the quilt will be given to "Hope" and proceeds from its sale will go to help in the work of the Hope workshop for Mentally Retarded adults. The ladies are to be commended for their efforts.

DRUMQUIN

Local girl among guests on inaugural jet flight

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

Friends will be pleased to learn that George Bailey is doing nicely.

Bethel church services of worship will be withdrawn for the month of August for vacation. Joint services will be held at Hornby Church with Jack Gillop minister from Eden church in charge.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Francis Cook recently, when Miss Beverley Hoey, a September bride-to-be was the guest of honor at a surprise miscellaneous shower.

Mary beautiful gifts and good wishes were bestowed on Beverley by about 30 friends and neighbors who attended the party. Beverley expressed her appreciation for the lovely gifts and to her hostess Mrs. Cook and Mrs. L. Chamberlain who arranged the evening.

Games and contests were held followed by a dainty lunch served by Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Chamberlain.

The Oakville Boy Scouts and Cubs held their Centennial dedication services at Drumquin Park on Wednesday, July 26. Originally planned for a three-day jamboree, which was rained out earlier in the month, it was held Wednesday evening with about 500 attending. The parade led by band, started from Percy Merry School and marched to Drumquin, up the Seventh Line to the park entrance, around the grounds to the flag standards for the ceremony. Refreshments were served by Bethel ladies.

Miss Elaine Fraser, nurse in training at British Columbia University, Vancouver, visited last week with Oakville - Trafalgar school friend Marlene Ball.

Miss Margaret Saliba and her brother Paul Saliba and Kenneth Rusk have returned from a wonderful six day visit to Expo. They travelled by train from Oakville on a tour sponsored by the Lions club.

Miss Marlene Ball was a guest along with over 100 pur-

OBITUARY

Elmer B. Cox

Elmer Burton Cox of R.R. 3 Milton died August 5 in Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital. Mr. Cox died in his 59th year.

He is survived by his wife Edith and children Robert of Ottawa, Muriel (Mrs. Ries Boers) of Milton and William, Lorraine and Joan all still living at home. He also leaves two sisters, Bessie (Mrs. Mel Robinson) of Milton and Ruth (Mrs. Eric Robertson) of Willowdale.

The son of Robert and Bessie Cox of Nassagaweya he was married on September 16, 1933 and lived near Milton for the past 20 years.

Mr. Cox worked as a painter, decorator and a farmer. He had his formal schooling at S.S. No. 7, Nassagaweya.

He was P.D.D.G.M. in the Prince of Wales I.O.O.F. Lodge in Toronto and was a district officer for the Lodge for over 25 years.

The funeral service was held August 7 at Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church where he was an elder. He rested at the Rumble Shoemaker Funeral home in Acton. Officiating at the funeral service was Rev. D. Nicklos of Campbellville.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

The pallbearers were John Wilson of R.R. 2, Rockwood and church elders David Henderson of Moffat, Stan Robinson of R.R. 1 Campbellville, Wilfred Kennedy of R.R. 2 Rockwood, Herbert Dredge R.R. 1 Acton, Edward Dredge of Freelon, John Wilson of R.R. 2 Rockwood.

SMALL SIZE

A woman dashed into a hardware store and asked to be waited on in a hurry. "Give me a mouse trap quickly, please. I have to catch a bus." "Sorry. We don't have any that big."

ONEUPMANSHIP

Young girl in love: Mother, I'm reborn.
Mother (acidly) Why do you always think you can do everything better than I?

at the recent Halton All-Star game.

MOFFAT

Dr. T. J. Campbell interred at Acton

By Mrs. Dave Henderson

The funeral of the late Dr. T. J. Campbell was held in Acton on Aug. 5 with interment in Fairview Cemetery. Dr. Campbell had been in poor health for several years, but was up and around until a week before his death. He was stricken with pneumonia and passed away in Guelph General Hospital.

Dr. Campbell was born in the Moffat district and got his public school education in No. 3 school. After graduating for a veterinarian he practiced for a short time in Ontario and then went to Avonlea, Sask. and remained there for several years. In 1931 he came back to Ontario and practiced in Erin and Brantford.

He retired to 103 Baget St. Guelph, where he lived till his death. His wife passed away three and a half years ago. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Florence Lasby, Guelph and Mrs. Jean Elliott, Morrison and a number of nieces and nephews to mourn his loss.

The sympathy of the community is extended to them in their time of sorrow.

Nassagaweya Presbyterian church lost one of its faithful members by death on Aug. 5. The late Elmer Cox passed away in Oakville hospital after several months of poor health.

Mr. Cox was an elder of the church and was in his pew in church every Sunday while he was able.

The funeral service was held in the church on Monday. A large crowd attended the service.

The members of the kirk session, David Henderson, Herbert Dredge, Wilfrid Kennedy, Stanley Robinson and Ed Dredge and the Sunday School Superintendent John Wilson were pall bearers.

He leaves his wife, three daughters, two sons and three grandchildren to mourn his passing. The congregation extends sympathy in their bereavement.

A few people from Moffat attended the Smith-Bell reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, Milton, on Civic holiday. It was another rainy day which made every one stay in the house for a while and races were contested when it cleared up.

The relatives coming from the greatest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Anderson of Neepawa, Man.

After a short meeting the officers were elected for another year.

President, Delbert Henderson, Chippawa; 1st vice pres., James Henderson, Port Credit; 2nd vice pres., Doug Anderson, Neepawa, Man.; sec-treas., Mrs. Jas. Robertson.

The dance committee are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell, of Moffat and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Henderson, Port Credit. The dance to be held early in October.

The sports committee for 1968 is Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reck, Mr. Larry McPhail and Mr. Larry McLaughlin all of New Toronto. The picnic ended up with a horseshoe pitching game.

Champion District

CAMPBELLVILLE 70 at Synod retreat challenging weekend

Miss Shirley Ella was one of 70 young people to attend the annual weekend retreat for Toronto-Kingston Synod at Glen Moor Camp at Beaverton, Ont. Rev. Don Campbell from Pierrefonds, Quebec presented three theme addresses on "The Other Six Days". The Dean for the weekend was Rev. Ken Heron from Petrolia. A very challenging weekend was enjoyed by all.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Elmer Cox who passed away, August 5.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baynton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. James Baynton, Mrs. Peggy Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Connor, Miss Lorraine Wilsher and all the families. A wiener and corn roast was enjoyed by all.

Garth and Glenn Bechtel of Winnipeg spent a week's holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Bev. Ella.

On August 10 a banquet was held at the Halton Country Club for the Nassagaweya Centennial committee. A very enjoyable evening was had.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Tom Watson and Miss Anne Wheelahan.

Congratulations to Jack Roberts on being chosen the most valuable player in the league

YOU

HAVE TO BE SATISFIED WHEN YOU DO BUSINESS AT TRAFALGAR MOTORS

NOT JUST IDLE WORDS

... but a statement of policy pertaining to every member of our service and sales team. We will go to any lengths to make sure you are satisfied. We know that satisfied customers will return — and we need you!

● For Responsible Car Care Call Our Service Department

FORD

TRAFALGAR

FORD

MOTORS FORD CO. LTD.

409 Main St. East
MILTON
Phone 878-2369

LET OUR CARPETS POINT THE WAY

TO GRACIOUS LIVING AT FAIR PRICES

Estimates Given Free • Installation Guaranteed

9' x 12' AREA RUGS, all colors, IN STOCK

Juno Draperies

878-2513
MILTON
MARTIN ST.

MILTON FIRE DEPT.

CENTENNIAL SALUTE

IN MILTON ...

SAT., AUG. 26th.

ENTRIES WELCOME

Merchants, industries and organizations are invited to enter a float or mobile display to make this a better Centennial parade

6.00 p.m. Parade from Milton Plaza through downtown to arena, followed by outdoor chicken barbecue and dance in Milton Arena

TO ENTER A FLOAT PLEASE CONTACT

V. Coulson, 878-6560 or G. Krantz, 878-9423