Singers, piper win amateur show

An abundance of local amateur talent came before the spotlight at Milton arena Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce Amateur Talent Show. Approximately 250 people were there to see Gail Brown of R.R. 2, Milton, recent first prize winner at the Highland Games piping competitions in Halifax, tie the popular "Haltonettes" singing trio of Joy Hayward and Ruth and Wilma Mason for first prize. Grant Devlin and Bruce Tyrell of R.R. 4, Milton, won third prize with country music entertainment.

The entries trying for first split $75 and third place received $10. The top three entries will appear on a televised talent show in Kitchener. The date has yet to be decided. Liz Anderson of R.R. 3, Milton, sang her way to fourth prize, while accordion player Ruth Walden took fifth prize, and twins Judy and Janet Ferrier of Campbellville sang their way to sixth place honors. Seventh place was a toss-up between Tom and Mary Wills, who play the piano and drums, and accordion players Cindy and Sandy Higgins, the second set of twins participating.

Fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh place winners received cheques for $5 and all participants were presented with centennial spoons from the Chamber of Commerce. Other contestants entering the contest were piano player Barbara Barr, tap dancers George and Meleza Cescon, singer Reg Thomas, piano player Susan and Anne Arbic, guitar player Robert Coulter, electric guitarist Sheila Lutes and accordion player Amelia Blumm, all of Milton, and singer Dorothy Wilson of Brampton.

KILBRIDE

Two Ontario scholars here top M.M. Robinson school

By Mrs. William Watson
In its first year of operation as a school with Grade 13, M. M. Robinson High School is proud of its Ontario scholars. Terrence Tricker is the school's top scholar. Terry earned five firsts and an overall average of 82.5 per cent. Terry was editor of the school newspaper. While he was in Grade 11, Terry represented the school on a trip to Yellowknife.

Kilbride Bantams defeated Hornby 8 - 5 at Kilbride last Wednesday in the second game of the semi-finals. Lynda Lawson of Stewarttown holidayed with her grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Alexander of Kilbride Road recently. Master Victor Woollett of Frederick St. arrived home on Monday after spending two months with his great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Almas at Warton. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mason of London and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marshall were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Fannie Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coulson, Twiss Rd., holidayed recently with Mrs. Coulson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Randall at Manitoulin Island. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Ford, Kilbride Rd., spent last Saturday at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the 14th Burlington Cubs and Scouts will meet in the Sunday school room for their first meeting of the season on Monday, September 11. All mothers are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Charles Hepburn, Twiss Rd., is home after spending a month in Scotland visiting relatives.

HALTON MANOR
U.C.W. sponsor August party
By Miss L. Moore and Mrs. M. Warbanks
The church service on Sunday, Aug. 6, was conducted by the Gideons. Mr. Dolby was the speaker with Mr. West at the organ. Mr. Dolby sang a solo prior to the sermon. The text of the sermon was taken from the 19th chapter of Luke.
An enjoyable evening was spent in the auditorium on Wednesday, Aug. 9 when the Zimmerman United Church Women sponsored the August birthday party.
Stan Portch acted as M.C. and after welcoming everyone, led in community singing with Mrs. Cornell at the piano. Mrs. K. Powell sang three lovely solos. Mr. Portch recited "Albert and the Lion". Gordon Warren showed films of Western Canada.
After this pleasant program, the birthdays were called out and the guests took their places at the head table which held a lovely birthday cake. Each received a favor.
Everyone present then enjoyed a most delicious lunch. Miss Lottie Moore thanked the visitors on behalf of the residents.
The church service on Sunday, Aug. 13 was conducted by Mr. Dolby of the Gideons with Mr. West as organist and assisted by R. Morton. Mr. Dolby sang a solo prior to the sermon. Scripture reading was Acts 16, verses 6 to 34.
On Aug. 20 the church service was again conducted by Mr. Dolby of the Gideons. Mr. Straight led in prayer. Mr. Dolby sang a solo and took his message from John 19: 5 "Behold the Man".
