Legion Notes

by charles scott

Foremost in the schedule of events for the month of November is the Remembrance Day parade to be held on Saturday next, November 11. All members, veterans and service clubs are invited to be on parade, which assembles and falls in at 10.15 a.m. at the Legion Hall. Heading the parade will be the pipes and drums of the Lorne Scots.

BANQUET AND DANCE

Our Annual Remembrance Day banquet and dance will be held on the evening of the parade, commencing at 7 p.m. Tickets for this popular event are still available and can be had from the clubroom steward. See advertisement in this issue.

GENERAL MEETING

The monthly general meeting of the Branch will be held on Monday next, November 13, commencing at 8 p.m.

SHUFFLEBOARD

The time has rolled around again when our shuffleboard champions have put their three trophies (Zone, District and Provincial) on the line. Getting off to a good start they retained the Zone trophy on Saturday, October 28 with Port Credit Branch as runners-up. On Saturday last, November 4, they went on to hold the District B. trophy. Teams competing were Woodstock, Erin (two teams), Port Credit, Milton, Dundas. Milton's winning team-mates were Conn. Bob White (captain), Cliff Taylor, Steve Rasberry, Stan Callard; Don Murdoff, Max Bradbury and Ron Mercier. The boys seem to be confident that on Saturday, November 18 they can hold the triple crown of shuffleboard for the second year by winning the Provincial trophy. Fourteen teams will take part in this tournament. I share their confidence and am looking for a photograph for the "Legionnaire".

Darts

Team standings of the Milton Industrial Darts League as of October 25 are as follows: 1 Executioners won 2 for 46, 2 Scotrams won 10 for 44, 3 Trafalgar Motors won 14 for 56, 4 League of Nations won 2 for 10, 5 Mustangs won 6 for 32, 6 O.S.P. won 14 for 32.

LADIES AUXILIARY

At a general meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary held last Thursday evening an election of officers was held and the following are the results: Immediate Past President, Joyce Murdoff; President, Jean Hasselfeldt; First vice-president, Edith Patterson; Second vice-president, Elva Howden; Secretary, Edith Winney; Treasurer, Millie Dance; Sgt-at-Arms, Jean Coulson. Executive Committee: Flo Eggleton, Mia Bluhm, Carol Marshall, Dorothy Elwood, Irene Patterson. The election was conducted by our First vice-president, Fred Johnson.

Unlucky 13

A total of 13 accidents occurred within the town of Milton during October, Milton Police report. The crashes caused $4,145 property damage and three injuries. No fatalities were reported. Totals for 1967 so far include 152 accidents causing $32,815 property damage and 12 injuries.

The electric eel is almost blind and locates its food by using a rudimentary radar system.
