Cancer Society field man speaks of patients needs

By Mrs. Jim Hamilton
The November meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon, November 8th, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Patterson. Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth, the president, welcomed the ladies to the meeting which was opened in the usual manner. Five ladies from Drumquoin Institute and two from the Scotch Block Institute were guests at the meeting.

The roll call "A cure for the blues" was answered by 13 members and some of the guests. Some of the suggestions were getting out for walks, calling a friend for a cheery chat, or doing something you really like to do. Two letters were read from the adopted Chinese child, thanking the ladies for their support. Mrs. Hugh O'Connor reported a Christmas parcel had been sent to this child.

taking the time to come out and talk to the Institute.

During the business period, Mrs. Wrigglesworth reported on the desert luncheon she had attended at Stewarttown on November 7. Mrs. Patterson reported on the plans for the program for the birthday party to be held at the Manor on November 22. At the December meeting, there will be the usual exchange of gifts. Mrs. Percy Merry extended a vote of thanks to the hostess for her hospitality, also to the Drumquoin Institute for visiting with Hornby. Mrs. Ralph Featherston expressed the pleasure of the Drumquoin ladies in being able to be present and enjoy the program. Following the singing of The Queen and repeating the Institute grace, lunch was served by Mrs. Wilbert Ford and the hostess.

Members of the North Trafalgar Community Club held their annual social outing recently when they enjoyed a dinner party at the House Tanenhaus, Huttonville. Following the dinner, they went on to the Odeon theatre in Brampton to see the show "The Greatest Story Ever Told", which was very much enjoyed by all.

shoes. The Eden United Church Women held their annual turkey dinner in the church basement on Tuesday night, November 7, with a crowd of 280 attending. Mr. and Mrs. John Gillup welcomed the guests at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson (nee Sharron Bussell) have announced the arrival of a baby daughter at Georgetown Memorial Hospital on Wednesday, November 8, first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. John Bussell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Hamilton, Kent and Kendra, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Majeau of Port Credit.

Mrs. Elsie Bloor of Malton is visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plant.

Friends in this district are sorry to hear that little Larry Sammit is a patient in the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto, where he is being treated for a severe case of pneumonia. A speedy recovery is wished for Larry.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Earl McMillan, who will celebrate her birthday on November 18.

The Hornby United Church Women held their annual Fall bazaar in the church basement on Saturday, November 11 with a good crowd attending and a very successful day reported. Mrs. Keith Hawkes greeted the guests at the door and also officially opened the bazaar.

Birthday greetings to Yvonne

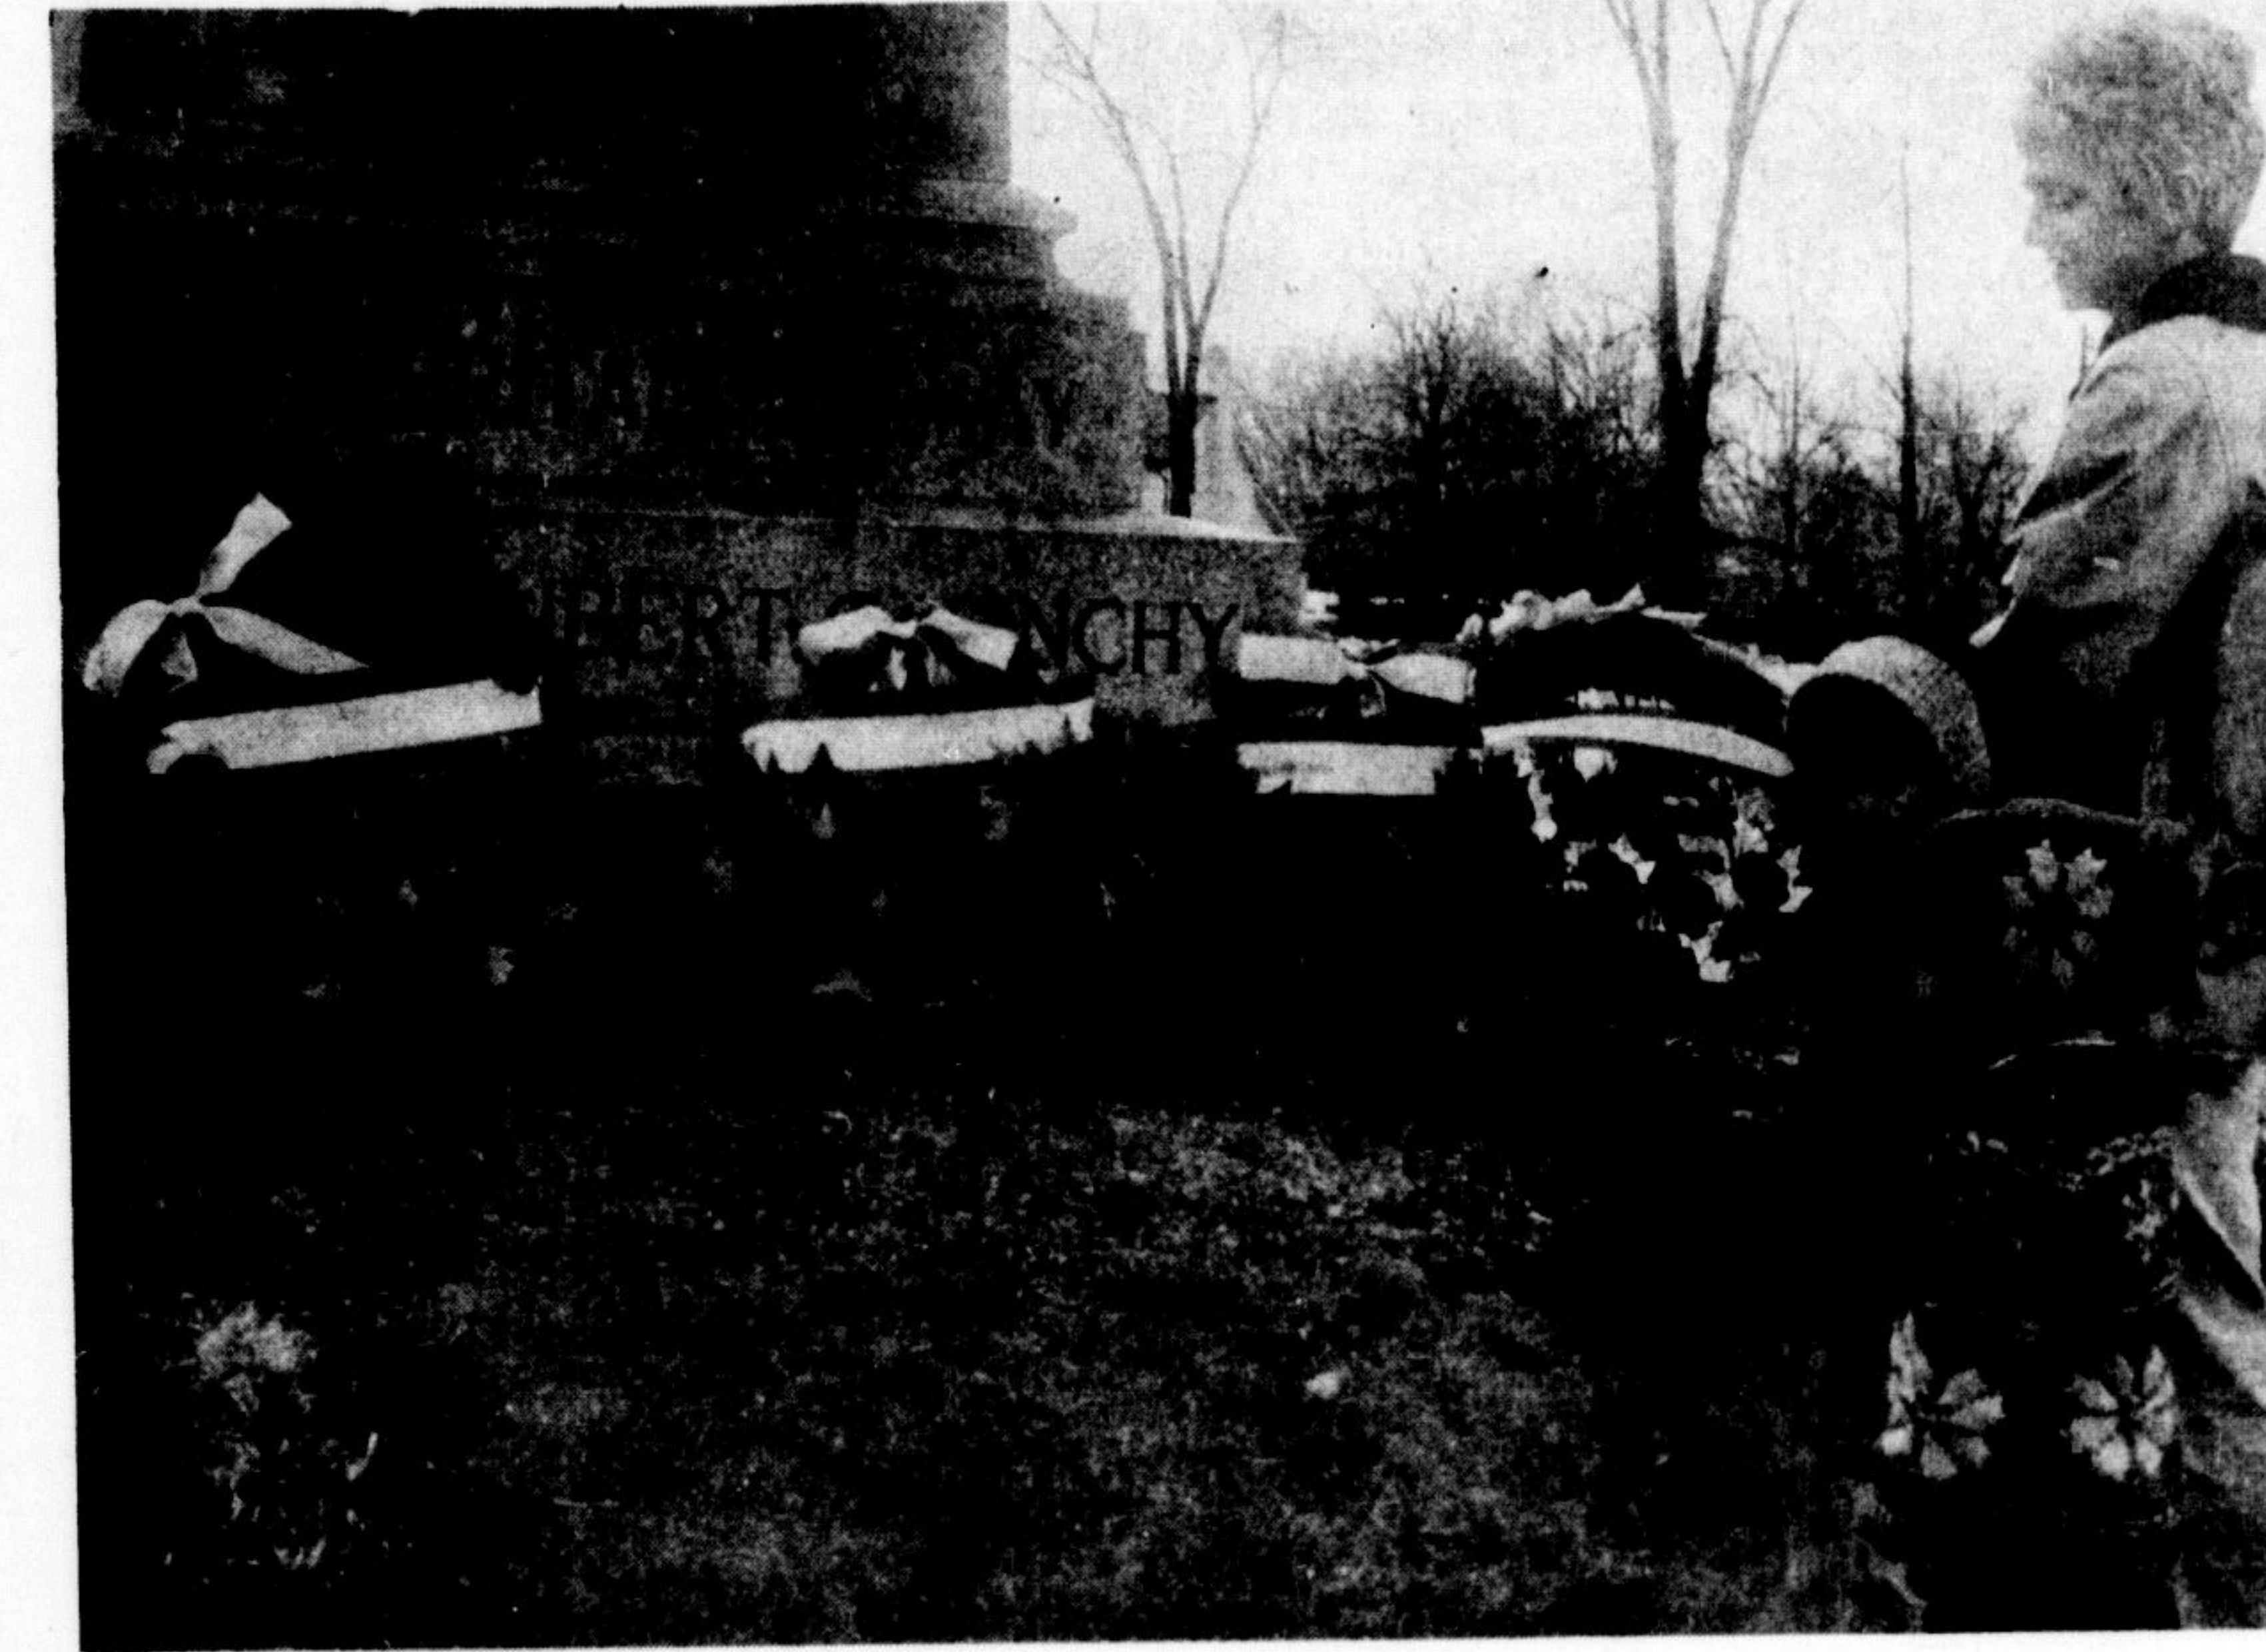

Brown, who will celebrate her birthday on November 17.

John Hannah has been enjoying deer hunting for the past week at Burks Falls and was one of the lucky fellows to shoot a deer.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Haynes (nee Brenda Thompson) who were married recently at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in Brampton. The young couple are residing in their new home on the Sixth Line. Mr. Haynes is the son of Mrs. Gerald Marchment and the late Norman Haynes.

First Kilbride Scouts, Cubs change charter from Burlington

The Men's Group Committee of the First Kilbride Cubs and Scouts met Monday evening in the Sunday School room with nine present.

On October 25, the charter was changed from the 14th Burlington to the First Kilbride Scouts and Cubs.

It was moved that the group take out insurance to cover all the committee members. The cost was $7.50 for the year.

An evening has been planned for fathers, Scouts and Cubs on Wednesday evening, November 22 at 7 p.m. in the community centre when Mr. W. B. McGregor will be guest speaker and show a film entitled "The Alaska Earthquake." It is hoped that all fathers will make an effort to attend.

The committee members will sell Christmas trees again this year.

Scoutmaster Fred Arnold announced that the Scouts have been asked to make a sign for Mountsberg church similar to the signs the Scouts made and donated to the Kilbride community last summer. Donald Coulson chaired the meeting.

The Faith Mission in Canada, mobile mission unit, is here in Kilbride beside Kilbride United church.

The Faith Mission in Canada is not a sect or denomination, but rather an interdenominational movement, functioning as an auxiliary to all Protestant churches desirous of evangelical work.

You are invited to attend special services in the mobile unit conducted by Misses Douglas and McMullan. The Sunshine Hour immediately after school beginning November 13 features film strips, contests and prizes. Family services are nightly at 8 p.m. commencing Sunday, November 12, Saturday excepted.

Gervais was hostess for the group.

Rev. C. R. Wragg opened the annual bazaar and tea of the United Church Women of Kilbride United Church in the Sunday School room last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. H. R. McDonald and Mrs. Wragg were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harris and family have sold their home on Twiss Road to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Verkaik and family, formerly of Woodbridge, Ont. The Harris' are residing at No. 10 Sideroad, R.R. 3, Campbellville.

Mr. and Mrs. Stu King and family of No. 10 Sideroad are now residing on No. 5 Sideroad and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snelling and family have recently moved into the home formerly occupied by the King family.

Wilbert Ford of Kilbride is a patient at the Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital, while Cliff Fretz of Kilbride St. is a patient at Milton District Hospital. Mrs. Lloyd Coote has returned home from Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital, Burlington.

Mrs. R. Z. Wicker of Kilbride St. is home after being a patient at the Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital.

As planned on their activity program, the Teen Drop-In Club members went ahead and held their hay ride and wiener roast in spite of the rain Saturday night. Thanks to Andy Tyios and a few of the boys, the wagon was covered with a tarpaulin to keep them dry.

After the hay ride through this district, the teens went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Yemm, McNiven Rd., where they enjoyed a wiener roast and dancing to records.

The members presented Mrs. Yemm with a gift in appreciation for their hospitality during the season and Mr. Tyios for taking them on the hay rides throughout the season. The teen members have raised enough money and were able to purchase a stereo portable record player for their dances and other events.

All these teens deserve a great deal of credit, and thanks is also due to Milton Schuett, who is in charge of the group.

Mrs. Wilbert Ford, health convener, was called on for her program. She introduced Mrs. Chester Service of the Scotch Block Institute who gave the motto, "No one is rich enough to be without a neighbor" and suggested rules to follow to be a good neighbor. Mrs. Gordon Strain of the Cancer Society of Milton was introduced and she in turn introduced Roy Delaney, one of the fieldmen of the Cancer Society working out of the office in Hamilton. He gave a most informative talk on the work of the society, which is broken into divisions, such as Ontario where there are 14 districts and our immediate district is broken down into 10 units.

He also spoke on the campaigns run each year for research in the service to cancer patients and for transportation of patients to clinics for treatment. Mrs. Strain told of the great need for drivers to transport patients and also explained about dressings. Mr. Delaney answered several questions. Mrs. Wrigglesworth thanked the guest speakers for
