By Mrs. M. A. Warbanks One of the most successful "dress up" parties was held at the Halton Centennial Manor on Friday evening, October 27. The auditorium was decorated in the tradition of Hallowe'en with witches, cats, goblins and pumpkins. It was a wonderful sight to see the wide variety of costumes worn by the many residents and staff members, and the building was filled with laughter and fun and all in attendance, residents and visitors alike enjoyed a happy evening. Mrs. Stan Allen, chairman of the Manor Auxiliary acted as Master of Ceremonies and after welcoming all those present to the party, instructed those taking part on the procedure to follow for the competitions in the various classes.

Following the "grand march" of all those in costume an enjoyable program took place. While the judges were selecting the contest winners Miss Elizabeth Anderson, granddaughter of Mr. A. Anderson, one of our residents, sang several solos. Janet Ferrier played the guitar and sang in western style and Darlene Ferrier offered a number of tap dances. Sincere appreciation was extended to Mrs. Bernadette Serafini, Mrs. Alice Alton and Mrs. Gayle Etherington of the Catholic Women's League who gal son.

so kindly acted as the judges. Chocolate bars and apples were distributed to all residents, and following the selection of the various prize winners Mr. and Mrs. George Martin were chosen Centennial King and Queen of the party. Mrs. Allen and her fellow Auxiliary members sponsored this evening in their usual capable and efficient manner and a sincere thanks is extended to them and the staff for a very delightful evening which concluded after the serving of tea, coffee and doughnuts.

Congratulations are extended to all the prize winners as follows and we say "Au Revoir" to the witches and goblins for another year:

Best decorated wheel chair, first Mrs. Martin, second Mr. Anderson; best centennial costume, first Mrs. Shaw, second Miss Belcher; best centennial dressed couple, first Mr. and Mrs. Cuttriss, second Mrs. Small and Mr. Buck; best Hallowe'en costume, first Mrs. Pearce, second Mrs. Metzger; best athletic costume, first Earl Leaver, second Vern Reynolds; best comic costume, first Mrs. McMullen, second Jim Begley; most original costume, first Agnes Boss, second Miss Lotty Moore; best single centennial costume, Mrs. Forbes.

On Thursday afternoon September 28 an impromptu concert was given in the common room by the Misses Sheila Lutes, P. Haire and G. Deforest. Songs were sung with guitar accompaniment. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

On September 30 many of our residents attended Milton Fair. through the forgiveness of Despite the inclement weather all reported an enjoyable afternoon. We are very proud of our display and prize winners at the fair.

Church service on Sunday October 1 was conducted by Rev. Christensen of Highway Gospel Church with Mrs. Crawford at the organ. He took his message from the sixth chapter of Mark, verse 31.

On Friday, October 13, the All Canadian Talent Society of Hamilton presented a concert at the Manor. Your reporter was unable to attend due to illness but those attending reported the talent was outstand- from the tenor voice of Vining and everyone thoroughly cent Rose of Burlington whose enjoyed the evening. Refresh- rendition at both morning ments were served by the Manor Auxiliary.

Church service on Sunday, October 15 was conducted by Rev. Dr. T. M. Dustan of Grace Anglican Church with Mrs. Waters as organist. Dr. Dustan took his message from 2nd Timothy, chapter 4 verses 5 and

On Wednesday, October 18 the monthly birthday was held in the auditorium under the auspices of the Manor Auxiliary. For several years the Mountain Union Women's Institute has sponsored the October party but due to circumstances beyond their control they were unable to do so this year. They did supply each birthday resident with a favor and card and for these we wish to thank them most sincerely.

Mrs. Allen and her faithful assistants took care of the balance of the party. A most enjoyable program consisted of tap dancers Milissa and George Cescon, accordion player Anna Lee Bluhm and country music by Grant Devlin and Bruce Ty-

A bountiful lunch of assorted sandwiches, birthday cake and tea and coffee brought this pleasant evening to a close.

The church service on Sunday, October 22 was conducted by Rev. C. Hainer of St. Paul's United Church with Mrs. Mc-Gee at the organ. Miss Margo Clarkson sang a lovely solo. Rev. Hainer's sermon was on the familiar story of the prodi-

Large congregation hears Rev. Comerie

Emmanuel Baptist Church had a full day of challenge and blessing through the ministry of the Rev. Roy Comrie, LL.Gh., who with his wife and family are at present on furlough from Chrizera Bible School, Zambia. A large congregation both morning and evening heard speeches and saw films about the work being done there.

The teaching of students from many far-off places, India, Congo, Rhodesia, South Africa and other nations of Africa, speak well of this accredited Bible school, which also provides good accommodation for young married couples studying theology together, some returning to remote parts of the world to teach and preach the whole counsel of the word of God.

Mr. Comrie stressed mission interest does not commence at Bible school level to be effective. It must commence at Coming to the Throne of Grace, all power is given for every need. Only there can the student of missions say, "Here am I, Lord send me."

Having the power and authority of Christ in their consecrated lives, they possess what this world most desperately needs today - peace with God sins at Calvary.

Mr. Comrie pointed out that so many avenues are open to the student today, he must be fully equipped for education, medical, literature or aviation

In closing, Mr. Comrie emphasized strong missionary work can only be accomplishwhen there is a strong church at home, dedicated to the support of missions.

Musical retreshment came and evening services were much appreciated.
