Calbery-Wright

Highway Gospel Church was decorated with standards of yellow mums for the afternoon marriage on Nov. 4 of Lynda Patricia Wright and James Edward Calbery. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. D. H. Wright, 324 Bronte St. S., Milton and the groom, an employee of Milton Quarry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Calbery, St. Annes, Ontario.

Rev. M. Christensen conducted the ceremony and Bill Brush played the organ. John Seymour sang The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by George Prisiak, wore a full length white gown with overskirt and elbow length sleeves trimmed with lace. Her headpiece of small white flowers held her shoulder length scalloped veil. She carried a white lace-covered Bible with white streamers and a corsage of red rose buds.

Maid of honor Miss Bonnie Kelman and the bridesmaid, Miss Jane Storey, wore full-length blue velvet gowns with matching headresses and carried lace covered Bibles with white streamers and corsages of white and pink variegated carnations. Their white crosses were the gift of the bride.

Groomsman was the groom's brother John Calbery and the ushers were Richard Furze and Don Wright, brother of the bride.

Dinner followed at the Milton Inn. The bride's mother wore a blue and green coat dress with beige accessories and yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore beige lace, brown accessories and pink carnations.

Telegrams were read from the groom's grandparents in England and a friend in Guelph.

Among the guests were the bride's aunt Mrs. Davison, North Bay; aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Toronto and godfather Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geddes, Agincourt.

A wedding dance was held in the Steelworkers' hall, Milton. The couple left on a trip to Pennsylvania, the bride wearing a three piece coral suit with accessories and white carnation corsage. They are making their home in Milton.

Before the wedding, Mrs. J. Clemenger held a linen shower; Miss Bonnie Kelman a pantry shower, employees of General Electric a miscellaneous shower and the Milton Quarry employees presented the groom with a swivel rocker.

Provincial grant for Limehouse land

The Department of Energy and Resources Management for the Province of Ontario has given approval for a Provincial grant in the amount of $5,255 to the Credit Valley Conservation Authority towards the additional cost of the land acquisition in the Limehouse Conservation Area, in the northern section of Halton County.

The announcement of the grant was made this week by James W. Snow, M.P.P. for Halton East.

In Holland

Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and Rudolph would cause no excitement in the Netherlands, where children believe that a horse pulls St. Nicholas' sleigh.

The great horse is named Sleiplier, and the Dutch children fill their wooden shoes with hay for him. This gives him energy to get St. Nick to every house.

Duncan-Alexander

Margaret Rhena Alexander and Ronald Edward Duncan were married in Norval United church at 2:30 p.m. on October 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie Alexander, R.R. 1, Norval, and the groom is the son of Mr. J. N. Duncan, R.R. 2, Alton.

The couple after a trip to Montreal, Washington and Key West, Florida, are living at R. R. 2, Mono Road.

The church was decorated with tall candelabra and bouquets of bronze gold and white mums with colored wheat for the double ring ceremony conducted by Rev. Walter Ridley.

Organist Miss Mason, Streetsville, accompanied Miss Joan Beaty, Milton who sang O Perfect Love and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride wore a full-length gown of cloud white nylon organza with long sleeves, high neckline, with daisy appliques at the sleeves and bottom of the gown. The long chapel length train which fell from her shoulders was also edged with daisies. A crown of crystals and pearls held her fingertip length veil and she carried red roses, ivy and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Gail McCallum, Brampton, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Miss Irene Drysdale and Miss Sharon McNeil, Brampton. They were gowned alike in jade green crepe gowns with dark green velvet tops, with a flowing panel at the back, accented with green velvet daisies. They wore bronze mums in their hair and carried a bouquet of bronze mums.

The bride's niece, Miss Debbie Reid, was flower girl wearing a princess gown of cloud white peau de soie with nylon overskirt accented by daisies with a gold panel at the back. She carried bronze and white mums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Ken Green, North Bay, a cousin; ushers were Russell Duncan, Bramalea, the groom's brother and Bill Alexander, Norval, a brother of the bride and the ring bearer Brian Zuest, Milton, nephew of the bride.

At the reception in Stewarttown hall, the wedding party welcomed guests from North Bay, Bradford, Toronto, Guelph, Georgetown, Brampton, Streetsville, Norval and Milton.

The bride's mother wore a bronze and gold dress with sequin trim, brown accessories and yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom's stepmother wore a gown of berry glow and black brocade, black accessories and gold roses.

The bride's going away outfit was a green and gold suit with brown and white fox collar, brown accessories and yellow baby orchids.

The bride carried a hankiechief her grandmother, Mrs. Ruddell, carried at her wedding in 1900. She was present at the wedding and a toast was proposed for her 87th birthday on Oct. 16.

There were several gatherings before the wedding to honor the bride or the couple

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Beaty, Milton, were hosts when Halton Jersey Breeders honored the couple at a miscellaneous shower.

Mrs. W. Duncan, R.R. 3 Milton, was hostess for a miscellaneous shower attended by relatives.

Mrs. John Wilson of Norval assisted by Miss Ruth Mason hosted Norval Junior Institute at a personal shower.

Miss Gail McCallum and Miss Irene Drysdale of Brampton were hostesses for a surprise party when they entertained friends and presented a gift.

The U.C.W. of Norval United church held a miscellaneous shower in the church hall.

EBENEZER

Elections held for church board

by Mrs. R. McLean

The December meeting of Ebenezer U.C.W. was dampened by the tragic news of the death that afternoon of Bill McLean, of Eden Mills. All the people of the community extend great sympathy to his many friends and relatives. The sanctuary on Sunday morning was beautified with floral tributes in his memory.

Mrs. Don Joss had charge of the program, Mrs. Earl Ward assisting. Mrs. Murray Hayward sang "The Happy Bells are Ringing".

Fourteen ladies answered the roll call with a "white gift" for the Voluntary Services. The treasurer's report showed a healthy balance. It was decided to raise our "fair share" -- (all-ocation is a bad word nowadays) for the coming year by $65.

A musical contest was held. Mrs. W. Darby, Mrs. Young and Mrs. McLean served lunch.

Norman Moore, Rae Blyth and Eleda Ward took part in the Sunday-school service. The combined Sunday-school concert and choir carol service is to be held on Friday, Dec. 22.

Rev. H. Finley have an interesting sermon, appropriate to Bible Sunday. He referred to the Christmas account from St. John. The God of Love expressed His love in human form. Let us read the Bible intelligently. The meaning is clear. Times have changed since the time described in "The Cotter's Saturday Night." But it is still possible to take a little time for some devotions, possibly with the aid of such a guide as "The Upper Room."

Mr. Finley told the story of the Dad, who gave his small son a huge and complicated map of the world, in the form of a jigsaw puzzle. He thought it would take the young lad so long to do it, that Dad would have peace and quiet. To his mingled pride and chagrin, the boy had the puzzle solved in an amazingly short time. Asking his son how he managed to put the pieces together so fast, the man found that there was the figure of a man on the back of the puzzle. Put the man together and the world will be alright.

Next Sunday Holy Communion will be celebrated.

After a very closely contested election, Mr. Keith Moore and Mr. Earl Ward were elected for a three-year term, and Mr. David Munroe for a one-year term to complete Mr. Chas. Thomson's term on the church board.
