The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line gown with an empire waist line in white peau-de-sole embroidered with pearls and sequins and a detachable train which fell from a large bow at the shoulders. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crystal and pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride wore pearls, a present from the groom.

Diane Patterson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Susan Sanderson, sister of the groom, Margaret Coulter and Kathy Powell, friends of the bride. Shows trip slides to members of W.I.

An enjoyable evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead last week.

Members and friends of Mountain Union Branch of the Women's Institute were entertained by Mr. Readhead showing slides of the bus trip they enjoyed in the fall. These proved to be quite interesting.

A social time followed. Those having lucky cups were, Mrs. H. Richardson, Miss Clara Hartley, Mrs. N. Langton and Mrs. F. McNiven. The treasure hunt was won by Rev. E. Baskier of Lowville. In appreciation of the evening Mrs. Velma Norris expressed the pleasure of the group and presented a slight token.

Sr. Citizens oversubscribe cent. project

One 1967 centennial project completed during the past year, which was not too widely acclaimed, was a new room at Milton District Hospital that was completely furnished and equipped by Milton Senior Citizens Club.

Members of the club were asked for individual contributions toward the $595 cost of furnishing the single bed room. Member Albert Wheeler told the Champion "we went well over the top, it went over in such a big way we collected $742."

With the additional money, the hospital was able to provide extra furnishings for the room.
