

FOUR HALTON COUNTY OFFICIALS travelled to Queen's Park in Toronto recently, where Halton East M.P.P. James W. Snow presented a cheque for $200,000 on behalf of the Hon. John Yaremko, Minister of Social and Family Services. The cheque represented the final payment for the Province's share of the construction costs of the new Martin House at Halton Centennial Manor. Halton Clerk-Administrator Garfield Brown and Warden William Hunter, left, accept the cheque from Mr. Snow while Reeves George Currie of Esquesing and Austan Ledwith of Milton look on at right. Building code action

One piece of new legislation introduced this week in the Legislature of particular interest is the Act entitled the Employment Standards' Act, which will replace several other acts concerning employment.

This act will bring Ontario's employment standards legislation into line with working conditions that have wide acceptance in the province. This new act, expected to be effective in the fall, includes all the benefits made available to workers under the present legislation and establishes new provisions calling for time and a half pay for overtime beyond 48 hours a week, equal pay for men and women doing the same work, and seven statutory holidays for which employees would receive time and a half if they work on these days.

The new legislation will also empower the Labour Department to collect unpaid wages for employees up to a total claim of $1,000.

The Hon. Allan Grossman on May 27 introduced new legislation called the Correctional Services Act. This act consolidates into one 18 existing acts dealing with adult offenders. The major changes are to be made in the complete method of operation of correctional institutions and changes in the whole correctional attitude and system.

The Hon. Darcy McKeough, Minister of Municipal Affairs, announced Wednesday that a committee is being set up immediately to further study the possibility of bringing in the national building code as a standard building code for the Province of Ontario as suggested in my resolution to the floor of the House on March 4 of this year. I am very pleased to see this early action being taken on my first resolution as a member of the Legislature.

We have this week completed the consideration of the estimates of the Department of Social and Family Services, and are presently considering those of the Department of Reform Institutions.

It was interesting to note this past week that on May 23, the first birthday of the GO transit system, that over 4,000,000 passengers had been carried by the system in its first year of operation.

I was very pleased this past week to have visits to the legislature by two groups of school students from the Halton East riding. On Tuesday, May 28, approximately 70 students from Holy Cross School in Georgetown, and on Thursday, May 30 another 70 students from Martin Street Public School in Milton visited the Legislative Building and briefly sat in on the session of the legislature.

First candidate for county board

The first candidate to announce his intention to stand for election to the new Halton County Board of Education is Ernest Forgrave, presently business-administrator for Georgetown District High School.

Mr. Forgrave has been secretary-treasurer of the Georgetown board since 1962, following a two-year period of part-time service in the capacity.

He is also a former chairman of the North Halton High School District Board, of which he was a member from 1955 to 1959.

--No, they weren't "removing" the Knox Church steeple as a Champion photo caption last week implied. The caption should have said the workmen were "renovating" the steeple. It's still there.

--There's a host of bargains in Champion classifieds, 52 weeks a year.

Scouts get eight tons of papers

Thanks to the many people of Milton and district, the Second Milton Scouts collected approximately eight tons of waste paper on Friday, May 31.

A special note of thanks was offered to Canadian Truck Leasing, Jack Richardson Chev-Olds, Johnson Bros. Garage, United Co-Op, George Smille and Shaw Pipeline Protection for the generous use of their trucks.

If any paper was missed, the Scouts are sorry and promise to try harder next time.

--Noxious weeds throughout Halton must be cut by June 15 or the municipality is empowered to cut them and charge the owner the costs.

--Aspirations for a shopping mall covering two blocks of downtown Acton have been dropped by The Chamber of Commerce, after the project ran into opposition.

Natural gas is exciting at the Windsor Raceway. Ever watch the trotters going through their paces down at the Windsor Raceway? What with the speed, the colour, the excitement, you may never have noticed that you stay completely comfortable. But you do. They've gone out of their way to ensure your comfort, winter or summer—and they've done it with natural gas. From the clean, fresh air you breathe, to the goodies on your dinner table, natural gas behind the scenes is quietly contributing to your comfort. In fact, the things that gas is doing at the Windsor Raceway can be as exciting to a home-owner as the race itself!

Look at the big Grandstand windows: Natural gas keeps the big 6,000 seat grandstand warmed with clean, filtered fresh air. The windows put it to the test: they stay clean and dry whatever the weather, because the gas heating system doesn't allow soot or frost build-up. No condensation can take place—because gas-heated warm air literally "scrubs" it off!

Peek at the modern Kitchens: They're fully equipped with natural gas appliances. The chefs prefer them for speed, precision, economy. Most chefs do, as a matter of fact. Think of it this way: gourmet meals are easier to make with natural gas for cooking.

Glance at the Taps: From grandstand to stables to paddock natural gas heaters maintain an unlimited supply of piping hot water—gallon after gallon of it! Your home calls for only a fraction as much, of course—but gas will give you the same speed and dependability.

Windsor Raceway, like so many big complexes in South-Western Ontario, chose natural gas because only natural gas does so many things so well—efficiently, economically, dependably. And natural gas can do as much for you. Look into it. Talk to your contractor or United Gas.
