Parents hear about continuous progress

By Mrs. William Watson
Parents with children attending schools with no Home and School Association might well be envious of the interesting and informative meeting held Monday evening, September 23, at Kilbride school when principal Norman Howell introduced the school staff and addressed the parents on "Open Concept Continuous Progress". The curriculum for kindergarten, year one and year two students is designed on an ungraded approach. Consequently the student will progress as rapidly as his mastery of skills allows.
At the end of the meeting Mr. Howell invited the parents to visit the new wing of the school, which contains a library resource centre and four open space classrooms.
Mr. Howell was introduced by past president Mrs. Mary Rasberry and thanked by Don Vivian.
President Dr. R. Muirhead presided and reminded parents that the membership fee is $1 per family and those unable to purchase their memberships at this time will be able to do so at the October meeting.
It was moved and passed by the Home and School members that the usual $25 be given to Mrs. Claire Sumler, kindergarten teacher to purchase extra equipment.
Mrs. Sumler's kindergarten class won the shield and award for the most parents in attendance.
Refreshments were served in the auditorium following the meeting by Mrs. Sumler's kingergarten mothers and Mrs. Sharon Banks' year one mothers assisted by social conveners Mrs. Allan Stokes and Mrs. Milton Schuett.

Safety Patrol members for the 1968-69 term at Kilbride Public school are Joe Seroski and Debbie Sault, Captains; Bill Watson, Randy Jones, Laurie Shaw, Julie Longdo, Helen Brown, Debbie Parent Bill Barrett, Robert Barrett, Robert Story, Harold Blenkhorn, Pat Coulson, Robert Inglis and Mark Haywood.
Children and teachers at Kilbride school enjoyed hot dog day Wednesday, September 25. Thirty-one dozen were prepared and served by daytime conveners, Mrs. Harold Jackson and Mrs. Walter Wilson assisted by Mrs. William Allison, Mrs. D. Blenkhorn, Mrs. Milton Schuett and Mrs. William Watson.
Kilbride United Church Women held their first fall meeting Thursday evening September 12 in the Sunday school room with 15 present.
During the business portion of the meeting the members voted to cater to the Cedar Springs banquet on Saturday October 12 at the Springs. It was also agreed that the dishes and coffee percolator be used on Sunday October 27 at the Open House for Dr. H. R. McDonald.
Thursday November 7 was the date set for their annual bazaar and tea to be held in the afternoon in the Sunday school room. Mrs. McDonald gave a reading from the study book.
A reading entitled "The Second Mile", was given by Mrs. Fannie Alexander. Mrs. Mel

Slimettes learn new dance to help keep weight down

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The regular Monday evening get together of the North Trafalgar Slimettes was on September 23 in the auditorium of Percy W. Merry school. Twenty-five ladies answered the roll call with the 'weigh-in'. Instructor Mrs. Pat Clayton is in charge of recreation and exercises and introduced the Bossa Nova dance to the members, which was much enjoyed. It was decided to again show the "Cover Girl" film sponsored by Noxema Co. at a later date; the film deals with skin care and cosmetics. Mrs. Michael Jones was the best weight loser of the week and received her prize.
Mrs. John Donovan, Britannia Road entertained on Saturday afternoon for her daughter Sharon on her ninth birthday. Guests attending the party were Karen Flippance, Heather Bailey, Patty Drewbrook, Sherry Deming, Heather Eves. All enjoyed a show at Oakville theatre and later games, fun and a birthday supper.
Several pupils from Percy Merry school received seeds last spring to grow pumpkins for a special display at Milton Fair. Sharon Donovan and Sherry Deming exhibited theirs on Saturday.

The regular and first meeting of the Percy W. Merry Home and School Association will be held Thursday evening October 10. Installation of officers and general business for the new year will be discussed. Ronald Bonar, incoming president invites all parents and interested persons to attend. Refreshments will be served.
Birthday greetings this week to Duncan Craig, Marilyn Ayres, George Peffany, Patric Schoonheydt, Ricky O'Connell and David Turner.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Drewbrook on their wedding anniversary October 3. Hornby South 4-H Club will meet October 5 at 9:15 a.m. at the leader's home. Members please note.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Youngs of Lambeth were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Ball.
