

Champion

Women's Page

Davies-Richardson

MARRIED IN ST. GEORGE'S Anglican Church at Lowville on September 28, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mitchell have taken up residence in Guelph following a honeymoon trip to Bermuda. She is the former Beverly June Dales. (Photo by Merle Gunby)

Mitchell - Dales

St. George's Anglican Church, Lowville, was the scene of the September 28 wedding of Beverly June Dales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Dales, Milton, and Ross Leslie Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Campbellville.

Rev. R. P. E. Jeffares officiated at the double ring ceremony. The organist, Mrs. John Farrow, a cousin of the bride, accompanied Mrs. Jeffares who sang the Lord's Prayer and the Wedding Prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line gown of legoda with Empire bodice of chantilly lace. The lily point sleeves and train were also of chantilly lace. Her petal headpiece, trimmed with pearls and rhinestones, held her scalloped finger-tip veil. She carried a cascade of pink roses and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Bonnie Powell of Lowville. The bridesmaids were Miss Janet Mitchell, sister of the groom, Miss Donna Hayes and Miss Leanne Ideson of Toronto, both graduates of Toronto Western Hospital and classmates of the bride. They wore full length aqua gowns with lace trim and matching train, and carried cascades of pink carnations and white daisy mums.

Flower girl, Miss Debbie Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Currie of Campbellville, wore a long white dress of legoda with aqua trim and train, and headpiece of aqua flowers. She carried a basket of white carnations and pink roses.

Groomsman was Duncan Currie of Campbellville; the ushers were Jim Dales, brother of the bride, Glen Mitchell, brother of the groom, and Richard Britton, friend of the groom. Assisting with Prayer Books was Master David Mitchell, brother of the groom. Receiving with the bridal party were the bride's mother wearing a libellule silk and worsted dress and coat ensemble with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses and white carnations; and the groom's mother in an ice-blue antique satin dress and coat ensemble with blending accessories. Her corsage was of white roses and pink carnations.

The reception was held at Fairview School with 100 guests attending, followed by a wedding dance. Dr. Freed of Brampton, uncle of the bride, acted as master of ceremonies. Honored guests were the bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. William Dales and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harrison, all of Milton, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Mitchell of Campbellville, and great aunt, Miss Sarah Mitchell of Guelph.

For the wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride wore a teal blue suit with brown accessories, and corsage of pink and white roses. Before the wedding, the bride was honored at several showers. Mrs. B. D. Freed, Brampton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Jack Peart, Guelph, aunt of the groom, both entertained at miscellaneous showers in their homes. Other miscellaneous showers were given by Miss Bonnie Powell at Lowville, Miss Donna Hayes and Miss Leanne Ideson at Toronto, Mrs. Harold Middlebrook, assisted by Mrs. Fred Grant, and a personal shower by Miss Beth Currie of Campbellville, assisted by Mrs. Bonnie Ouwendyk of Milton.

A bachelor party was held for the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside in Guelph.

Miss Helen Marie (Susie) Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Ivan Richardson, Guelph, became the bride of William Richard Davies, Campbellville, son of Mrs. Cora Davies and the late William L. Davies.

The wedding took place in Ebenezer United Church, Campbellville. The church was decorated with pink and white gladioli.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. William Slinn of Ridgeway, assisted by the Rev. R. Finley of Ebenezer. Mrs. Donald Blacklock was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a full-length gown of chantilly lace in a snowflake design. The gown featured a ligoda sheath covered in a cage of lace which flowed from the yoke to a chapel train edged in a delicate border of scalloped chantilly. The long lily point sleeves were also of matching lace. Two roses edged with a spray of hand-cut crystal held her shoulder-length illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink puff sweetheart roses and white miniature carnations.

Mrs. Doug Black, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. The bridesmaids were, Mrs. Ronald McDonald, Binbrook, Mrs. Wendell Phillips, Preston, and Mrs. John Jarvis.

The bridal attendants wore sheath-styled gowns of capri blue chiffon falling from a yoke of medieval lace trimmed with bands of peau-de-soie. Tiny bows enhanced the back panels of the gowns. Their headdresses were matching bows with tulle veils and they carried informal nosegays of white pom pom chrysanthemums and pink puff sweetheart roses with blue statice.

Ronald McDonald of Binbrook was the best man while ushering were John Jarvis and Doug Black, both of Guelph and Bruce Richardson of Rockwood. The ring bearers were Master Shawn Phillips and Master Shawn Richardson.

For a reception in the Ebenezer Church parlor, the bride's mother received wearing an aqua metallic ensemble with silver accessories. Her corsage was of Zorina sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's mother assisted in a blue crepe dress with matching coat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

For a honeymoon to Kingston and the Thousand Islands, the bride wore a figured dress with matching beige hat and coat and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of pink miniature carnations.

The newlyweds will reside at 14 Home St., Guelph.

Out-of-town guests were present from Ottawa, Honey Harbour, Galt, Hamilton, Fergus, Milton and Campbellville.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ISHAM

Double ring vows, David Isham weds Terry Forand de Merse

A wedding trip to England, Wales, and Palma, Majorca followed the summer marriage of Pierrette (Terry) Forand de Merse of Port Credit and David Isham of R. R. 6, Milton. The couple returned to Canada at the end of August and are living at 1 Briarwood Ave., Port Credit.

The bride, a secretary-teacher at All Canada Radio and TV Limited, is the daughter of Aime Forand de Merse, Montreal. The groom, with Federal Electric Corporation, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Isham, R. R. 6 Milton.

Highway Gospel Chapel was decorated with baskets of flowers for the double-ring ceremony July 27 conducted by the Rev. Mervin Christensen, Milton. Mrs. Madeline Faulkenstein, Oakville, was organist.

The bride was escorted in and out of the church by a Royal Stewart piper, Mr. MacKay of Toronto, and the ushers wore kilts.

The bride chose an Empire white silk gown with lace and pearl trim, and matching coat of lace with bell sleeves and chapel train. Her tulle veil was held by a circlet of white daisies with pearl centres.

Her pendant bouquet was composed of pink roses, stephanotis and white mums.

Matron of honor, Patricia Frenette, Toronto, wore an orange silk crepe gown accented with white applique roses, her orange tulle veil held by a pale orange gardenia.

She carried a hanging bouquet of yellow daisies, white mums and stephanotis.

Bridesmaid Dorothy Dyer of Toronto wore pale yellow chiffon with applique daisies, and a deep yellow gardenia holding her yellow tulle veil.

She carried orange daisies, white mums and stephanotis in a hanging bouquet.

The bride was given in marriage by John Jones, Port Credit. Groomsman was Walter Whitty, Montreal, and the ushers were Duncan Laird and David Simpson of Glasgow, Scotland. The reception was held in the Caravan banquet hall, Milton. Mrs. Jones received for the bride wearing white silk with navy accessories, blue mums and stephanotis.

The groom's mother wore a blue silk crepe dress with white bodice and accessories, yellow roses and white gardenia.

The bride's going-away ensemble was a chiffon dress in pink, purple and blue shades, pink accessories, white mums and pink roses.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. Whitty; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson, Mr. M. Testaro, Montreal; D. Laird and D. Simpson, Glasgow, Scotland; Harry Foxmain, North-West Territories; Miss Simone, Paris, France; Miss Susie and Hilary Elliott, London, England.

A shower, organized by co-workers of the bride, was given in July by Mrs. Barbara Gallagher.

Mrs. V. Norris W.M.S. speaker

Mrs. Velma Norris, past president of Brampton Presbyterian of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, spoke at the October meeting of Knox Church Evening Department (W.M.S.), which was held at the home of Mrs. K. P. Marshall. The devotions followed the order of service for Thanksgiving, as set out in "The Good Tidings," the W.M.S. publication.

Mrs. Norris reminded her audience of the responsibility each of us bears because of the sacrifices made by the early settlers on this continent, which have resulted in our way of life and our freedom to worship as we please.

DROP IN FOR A FREE COFFEE DURING OUR

GRAND

OPENING

ANYTIME . . . THURS., FRI., SAT. OR SUN. - NOV. 7, 8, 9, 10

OTHER OPENING SPECIALS INCLUDE:

- ONE FREE Pkg. 12 Donuts with each purchase of a Loaf of Canada Bread
- ONE FREE 25c Bag of Humpty-Dumpty Chips with each 49c Bag
- ONE FREE Quart of Chocolate Milk with each 3-qt. Jug Royal Dairy Milk

Thurs., Fri., Sat., Sun. - November 7, 8, 9, 10 - Buy One Brick of

Neilson's Golden Grade Ice Cream

at Regular Price . . . Receive Another Brick for only 1c

(LIMITED! FOUR BRICKS PER CUSTOMER)

Bring This COUPON To the Store for a FREE ICE CREAM CONE and Remember . . .

FOR ANY HOUSEHOLD NEEDS FROM

TOBACCO

Cigarettes, Cigars, Chewing Tobacco, Pipes, Pipe Tobacco, Matches, Lighter Fluid, Lighters.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Pens, Ring Binders, Pencils, Refills, Erasers, Felt Markers, Glue, Rulers, and Much More

AND FROM

GROCERIES

Baked Goods, Canned Goods, Bread, Milk, Pop, Snacks

READING

Magazines, Pocket Novels, Daily and Local Newspapers

AND FROM

CLOTHING

Caps, Scarves, Some Underclothing

GIFTS AND HARDWARE

Light Bulbs, Fuses, L.P. Records, Enamel, Toys, Wide Range of Gifts

TRUCKERS AND TRAVELLERS: We have sandwiches for take-out and the best coffee on the road!

DROP IN ANYTIME . . . 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. -- 7 Days a Week

CURT'S CORNER 854-2211 - Campbellville

(formerly "The Corner" -- Now under the management of Curt and Shirley Baker)

Hansen - Hayes

Jo-Anne Hayes and Erik Hansen exchanged rings in a two o'clock ceremony in Grace Anglican Church on Oct. 5. Glads and mums decorated the church for the ceremony conducted by the Rev. R. W. Foster with Mrs. A. Ledwith at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes, R. R. 2, Campbellville. She is a graduate of Hamilton Teachers College.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregors Hansen, Court St., Milton.

The bride wore a full length A-line gown with lace bodice and detachable chapel length train of lace. Her tiara of gardenias, miniature carnations and stephanotis held an elbow length four tiered veil of chiffon.

She carried a cascade of orange ice roses with white carnations and stephanotis.

The bride's four sisters, wearing orange ice, were her attendants. Barbara Uldriks, Campbellville, was matron of honor. Marie Assenheimer, Oakville, Lenore Jukema, Stoney Creek and Sharon Hayes, Campbellville, were bridesmaids.

Lorri-Ann Jukema, a niece of the bride, was flower girl and Kenneth Hayes was ring bearer.

The attendants all wore floor length gowns of orange ice peau de soie with lace bodice, scalloped bell sleeves and matching flower shaped headpieces. They carried nosegays of orange carnations and shasta daisies with white and orange streamers. The flower girl carried a basket of orange roses, carnations and shasta daisies. The bride's young brother, the ring bearer, carried the rings on a white satin heart-shaped cushion.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groom's brother, Jon Hansen, was best man, and the ushers were Hans Hansen, Almenzio Denick and Jim Krolokowski.

Guests were received at the Caravan banquet room. The bride's mother chose a sleeveless dress of sapphire blue with straight train at the back, white hat and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a matching coat and dress of rose pink lace with beige hat and accessories, and pink roses and carnations.

Guests attended from Campbellville, Milton, Hamilton, Waterloo, Toronto and Dundas. Special guests were William Hayes, grandfather of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. W. Vaughan, grandparents of the bride. The bride's uncle, S. Fitzhenry, acted as master of ceremonies.

Their honeymoon trip was to Niagara Falls, and the bride wore a pink lace dress, beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

They are living in Port Credit. Before the wedding, a miscellaneous shower was given by bridesmaids and the matron of honor at the Mohawk Inn, Campbellville.

On Sept. 27, a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. A. Norris, aunt of the bride, in Waterloo.