Extend best wishes as boy breaks arm

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
We extend get well wishes to Collin Crombie, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Crombe, Fifth Line. Collin had the misfortune to fall while swimming and playing at Kelso Park and broke his arm at the elbow. Collin was a patient in Milton Hospital and later was transferred to Sick Children's, Toronto. He returned home a few days ago, and will be sporting a cast for several weeks.

Miss Lynne Bawden of Moorefield has been holidaying with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bawden and also with little friend Erla Snow.

Erla Snow is visiting in Exeter for this week with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Rhude and other relatives.

This community was saddened on Wednesday to learn of the sudden passing of Charles Leriche. Charles who was only 39 was born on the Fifth Line below Omagh, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leriche. He lived on his farm until a few years ago when he moved to Fifth Line Esquesing. He attended Omagh school. He is survived by his brothers Hugh of Toronto and Douglas of Omagh. He was the loving husband of Marion Cunningham and dear father of Betty, Keith, Barbara, Linda and Laurie. We extend sincere and heartfelt sympathy to all who mourn his passing. He will be much missed in the community.

Many friends from a distance attended the funeral of the late Charles Leriche on Saturday July 26 from Hillcrest Church. His uncle and cousin Stanley Beatty and Harvey Beatty attended from London.

Will Long, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daylor and children Pauline, Susan and Billy of Hamilton holidayed with the Cecil Patterson family this week.

Birthday greetings to Louise Kubinec, Mary Elizabeth Curtis, Cecil C. Patterson Jr., Willard Featherston, Arthur Peacock, Karen Adamson, William Mitchell, Paul Cripps, Richard Colbeck and Randy Janes.

Wedding anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Featherston, 30 years married on August 3.

A MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY CARNIVAL was held in Kingsleigh Court recently by nine neighborhood children, and they raised $3.27 for the M.D. fund with a variety of money-making projects. There was a penny sale, refreshment stand, coin throw, bottle game, bowling game and sink-the-cup game, plus a sponge throw that

Milton's firefighters are planning to attend the annual convention of the Ontario Association of Firefighters in Whitby this weekend.

Capt. Harold Coulson of the Milton brigade is the 1968-69 president of the Association and will be conducting the early business of the weekend convention, before handing over the gavel to a new president. About 20 local firefighters are planning to march in the big parade on the Monday holiday.

Nine brothers, sisters attend Bristow reunion

Nine brothers and sisters and their families enjoyed a happy family reunion on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Bristow, Elizabeth Drive, Acton. Just under 50 came, from Unionville, Oakville, Milton, Hamilton and Acton.

The gathering started out as a shower for Brenda McKeown and developed into the full-scale family reunion. Their mother, Mrs. Hysert, Hamilton, who's 85, was unable to attend, but her nine children were all there. And the family ranged all the way down to her great-granddaughter, Laurie Van Dalen, who's a year and a half old, and her great-great granddaughter, June Vecenstra, two and a half.

It was the first time in five years the family had all been together. Brother Jack lives in Milton, brothers "Tich" and George in Hamilton, sisters Mae, Bertha and Rose in Hamilton, sisters Bea (Mrs. Bob Anderson) and Doris (Mrs. Fred Kentner) and brother Vic in Acton.

Jack Bristow of Milton brought the largest family group—14 people.

OBITUARY

Stanley Robertson

Frederick (Stanley) Robertson lost his life by electrocution in an accident on the farm of Ed Gorman, Proton on Wednesday July 9, 1969. He was in his 21st year.

Born at Milton, he was the son of Fred Robertson and the former Christine Pell. He resided at R.R. 5, Milton, attended school at Waterloo S.S. 5, Esquesing and Speyside Public School. He moved in June 1968 with his parents to R.R. 2, Dundalk. He had been employed for several months at Rundle's Feed Mill, Dundalk and three weeks ago left there to drive a tractor trailer for Ed Gorman.

Surviving Stan are his parents, one brother and two sisters. They are Douglas, Mrs. Earl Bentley (Pat) and Mrs. Jack Woolley (Leona), all of R.R. 5, Milton, also five nephews and nieces. Stan was known for his love of small children, and generous outgoing personality. The funeral was held Friday July 11 at the McKersie Funeral Home where the Rev. R. W. Foster of Grace Anglican Church conducted the service.

The pall-bearers were a cousin Ken Cole of Acton and friends Keith McKenzie, Acton, John Fisher, Milton, John Young, Streetsville, and Rick Terry and Jim Moody of Dundalk. Interment was in the family plot in Evergreen Cemetery.

Caledonia weekend reunion opportunity to re-live past

For those who would like to bathe in fond recollection of the way it used to be back on the farm, there is nothing like a real, live trip down memory lane—the kind you can enjoy at Caledonia over the Civic Holiday Weekend, August 2-3-4.

The March of Time Show to be presented by the Golden Horseshoe Antique Society, on the grounds of Haldimand County's Agricultural Fair at Caledonia, will give you ample opportunity to re-live the past while enjoying a visit with the type of people who are interested enough in our heritage to present a unique display of their collections for the public's enjoyment.

Set up in what has been named the Golden Horseshoe City, the accent is on country living in bygone days with displays of all types of farm and household items featured over the midsummer long holiday weekend. Included in the antique village are such attractions as an old-time implement repair shop, blacksmith shop, livery stable, garage, general store, trading post, bank, jewellery store, gun shop and old city hall. The Caledonia Agricultural Society, sponsors of the local Fall Fair, will be operating their featured "Old MacDonald's Farm", along with which there will be an almost endless display of dated farm machinery and equipment, much of which will be in operation throughout the weekend. Highlights of this portion of the program will include steam threshing and horse-pulling contests.

Entertainment-wise, there are plans for western-style riding competitions and an archery contest, as well as daily appearances of Vince Mountford and his troupe of entertainers. Daily grandstand parades will feature many of the display items—even a horse-drawn calliope. For the children, there will be stage coach rides and pony rides, as well as refreshment booth treats.

Haldimand County Milk Board will attend, with the Dairy Princess serving ice cream. A "Gay Nineties Pageant" will be produced in the arena nightly, under the direction of George Shippey and nostalgic numbers will be sung by the Choralists. On Sunday evening an open air service will be held, with all denominations represented.

So, if you think you could enjoy seeing a surrey with the fringe on top, a shingle mill, steam engines, old tractors or a reaper that's "just like the one we used to have, only..." be sure to plan on a visit to the Caledonia Fair Grounds over the Civic Holiday weekend.
