

ROUGHING IT for a night are these children from the Milton Recreation Committee's day camp who went out to Kelso to spend last Thursday night in tents under the stars. Getting ready to leave and finishing off the food supply are Darlene Gervais, Wayne Day, Patti South and Don Riddell.—(Staff photo)

SAVAGE SAVAGES were seen prowling around Rotary Park but upon further investigation it was found they were really day campers from the Milton Recreation Committee's summer day camp. The savages included Sandra Whetham, Sandra Coradetti, Brian Wilson, Timmy Lapierre and Laurie Smades, pictures with a real totem pole Day Camp supervisor Paul FASTER has made.—(Staff Photo)

TRICK OR TREAT? In the middle of July? This bunch seems to be in the wrong month but they're really a group of children from the W. I. Dick playground who were holding a Hallowe'en in July as part of their special events program. Most of the children dressed in costumes and decorated the school with orange and black streamers.—(Staff photo)

HALLOWE'EN IN JULY was the special event held at the W. I. Dick school playground Friday. Bowing very low is this clown, Jan Bennett, and she bows to the fairy princess who is really Jane Logan.—(Staff photo)

THE QUEEN and the hobo were in attendance at the W. I. Dick playground last Friday for the Hallowe'en in July festivities. Knighting the hobo for the day is Brigitte Poland while Richard Filipowski is behind the dirt and old clothes of the hobo.—(Staff photo)
