Legion Notes

There have been quite a few members of other legions visiting the Milton Branch recently. On Oct. 13 Miss Jessie Allen, the secretary of the Col. Margaret Eaton Branch 368, Toronto dropped into the club room for a short time.

Other visitors, from much further away, have been Norman Hogarth and his wife Enid from Salisbury, Rhodesia. Norm is a member of Old Bill Boulders Shellhole of the Memorable Order of Tin Hats while Enid is a member of the Jackaranda Shellhole. Shavently these "shellholes" are equivalent to branches of the Canadian Legion with one difference—membership is limited to those who had had front service. Both have been in the clubroom quite a few times in the last two weeks and every time they come in Norm, who is really a talented pianist, entertains the members present with a wide variety of numbers on the piano.

On Saturday during the weekly social evening in the clubroom Past President Andy Meechan presented Norm with an Honorary Membership badge of the Royal Canadian Legion. Fred Sargeant changed his Legion necktie for the one Norm was wearing. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hogarth have been very pleased with the reception they received in Milton and will take some very pleasant memories back with them to Rhodesia.
