

Eighteen ladies attend area quilting party

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The second meeting of Hornby South 4-H Debutees was held in Omagh church hall on Saturday afternoon at 1.30 p.m. Vice-president Fern Lawrence presided for the business meeting. It was decided that next meeting would be held Sat. Feb. 14 at 1 p.m. Roll call what to look for in cotton material.

Leaders Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Kiernan welcomed four new members to the club for a total of 23 and one visitor. Most of the girls had their material for their sewing project to make a skirt and top or shorts and blouse or tunic. All material was checked for suitability to the pattern and for straightness of goods.

A fine demonstration given by Mrs. Kiernan and Anne Ruhl on blouse material showed that goods must and can be straightened by pulling on the bias. Pattern markings were explained and discussed, also alterations where necessary. The girls working in pairs, took measurements. The questionnaire for meeting two was completed, and will be included in the record book. Most members had their new sewing baskets and equipment. The materials were most attractive in many colours and kinds, such as denim, sharkskin, print broadcloth and must be cotton. Next meeting the members will be cutting out their garments.

Eighteen ladies attended the quilting party class at the home of Mrs. J. McCarron, Milton on Tuesday afternoon for the fourth meeting in the series. Most members have completed their cushions and the afternoon was spent in cutting out blocks for the quilt for summary day, March 10. Much time and energy will be required to complete the project quilt for that date. Many ideas are exchanged and a fellowship enjoyed as the members work together each week. Several have displayed beautiful quilts form their homes. One lady showed a star pattern quilt in rose and blue which had been made from a bridesmaid's gown she had worn.

Another was a grandmother's flower garden and also a block from a prize tulip quilt. Leaders Mrs. Merry and Mrs. Patterson were in charge.

There is much illness in this district. Joanne Jarvis is nursing a case of mumps and Patsy Patterson is under doctors' care with flu and complications. We hope they are soon feeling better.

Get well wishes also to Mrs. Clifford Wigglesworth and Mrs. Cameron Wilson both patients in Milton District Hospital.

The many friends of Mrs. R. Verral are sorry to learn that she is a patient in a London Hospital after a car accident on Highway 401 Thursday Feb. 5. Mrs. Verrall suffered two broken legs, an arm and possibly other injuries.

Congratulations to Allan Mackinnon 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mackinnon, Fourth Line on success and high standing on a music history exam. Allan had the exam at the University of Toronto in December and results have just been announced. Julie Stover daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stover, Second Line also tried this exam and had a high standing. These young people are pupils of Mrs. K. O. Foster, Milton, congratulations to all concerned.

Sympathy is extended to Allan and Gail Kiernan on the sudden passing of their grandmother Mrs. Albert Watson, Eighth Line. Mr. and Mrs. Watson were holidaying in Florida when she was stricken by a heart attack. She is survived by her husband sons Kenneth Kiernan, Neil and daughter Marion at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Aden Bauman and sons Michael and Barry of Elmira were Sunday visitors with their parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Patterson, Fourth Line.

Ron Willis returned home from Milton Hospital on Wednesday. Friends wish him well.

Love is year's theme for Bethel U.C.W.

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The U.C.W. of Bethel church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lorne Chamberlain on Wednesday evening Feb. 4. The theme for the year's program is "Live Love".

Mrs. W. Harris president read the thought for the day and reports were given on the luncheon on Wed. Feb. 11 in the church. All tickets had been sold. Six quilts had been finished and ready for shipment. Mrs. L. Lister and Mrs. S. McMillan were named representatives for World Day of Prayer to be held at Hillcrest Church on March 6 at 2 p.m. Roll call word "Love" was well answered by 12 members.

Mrs. P. Merry missionary convener gave a splendid talk on "Give Love" stating that any donations given to missions may be designated for certain countries if desired. Rev. K. Hawke was present and led an interesting discussion on the history of the church, the persecutions of early Christians and the church today. Problems today are alcohol and drugs and are as difficult as any faced in the past. Looking into the future, it is certain that Christianity and the church will never disappear, although the buildings may be less in size and grandeur. Counselling is helping many unfortunate people to face their problems and to be able to have a role in their community.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Wood, at which time the members are to bring new ideas and suggestions for the fall bazaar. Lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Alfred Ball.

Rev. Keith and Mrs. Hawke leave shortly for a 10 day holiday to the Holy Land on a guided tour. Friends wish them a happy and safe journey.

After several weeks without classes, the North Trafalgar Slimettes met in North Oakville Community Centre at Hornby on Monday, Feb. 2 with 23 ladies attending. Mrs. Pat Clayton instructor led in exercises, games and square dancing. At the weigh-in it was found that many had gained pounds but there were also some good weight losers. Weekly winner was Mrs. Ruth Ann Colling of Milton.

While motoring to Georgetown on Saturday Feb. 7 to represent White Oaks Secondary School in the wrestling competitions Stephen Hughes and Bob Mannereau were seriously injured in a two car crash at Coyne School. Hughes received head injuries and Mannereau broken legs, and internal injuries. We wish them well.

Control tower biggest item on permit list

Esquering township building inspector Tom McLean issued a total of eight building permits during the month of January. Total value of the buildings to be erected is $183,000.

Biggest item on the list of permits, is the one issued to Carl Bristow for a control tower and reservoir for the Golden Horseshoe Dragway, on Lot 29 Concession 6, north of Highway 7. Value of the control tower and reservoir is listed at $25,000.

Fifteen attend meeting to discuss education

By Mrs. William Watson
Seven executive members of the Kilbride Home and School Association met last Thursday evening with Dr. R. Muirhead presiding.

Mrs. Mel Davies reported she had $61.00 from the sale of hot dogs. A motion that the association pay for the bus that transported the primary children to the African Safari was passed.

A motion that up to $25.00 be spent in purchasing seclusion screens for the primary department was made by Mrs. Lynn Heatherington and seconded by Mrs. Davies. Dr. Muirhead thanked Mrs. Inglis for sending get well cards out from the executive members. An nominating committee was appointed and are as follows Mrs. Gordon Harris, Mrs. William Watson, Norman Howell and Dr. Muirhead.

Plans for the February meeting were finalized with the topic being Founders Day, followed by a dessert party. Each executive member and home room mothers are responsible for the desserts which will be served later. The entertainment for the evening will be Scottish Dancing. The children will be asked again this year to make the table centre pieces for the tea tables under the direction of Mrs. Heatherington. Fifteen people attended the informal fireside meeting at the home of Dr. Muirhead, Cedar Springs road, Monday Feb. 2, sponsored by the Kilbride Home and School Association.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the direction of education in Ontario as suggested in the Hall-Dennis report and particularly about the programs and methods in our own school.

Due to the lack of interest on the part of the mothers, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Kilbride Brownie Pack and Girl Guides was forced to close as their were no mothers willing to take an executive position.

Neil Nicholson and Kenny Watson were dinner guests Monday evening Feb. 2 with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMullen, Brian and Shawn on the occasion of Brian's eighth birthday.

A birthday supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sault, McNiven road Sunday Feb. 1, in honor of Wayne Sault's ninth birthday on Feb. 2, Mrs. Robert Sault's Sr. birthday on Feb. 3 and Gordie Steven's birthday on Feb. 4.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stevens, Betty Jean, Herbie and Gordie of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sault Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Car. Watson.
