Busy program planned in Scout-Guide week

Feb. 15 to 22 is Scout-Guide Week in Milton and several events are being lined up to mark the special week, District Commissioner Larry Senicar reports.

At least three Scout groups are planning father-son dinners. On the weekend Milton Rovers organized a winter camp for Scouts and Venturers from the Oakville District, at the new campsite in Nassagaweya.

Milton boys are participating in the Oakville District's first "gang show" at White Oaks High School Feb. 19, 20 and 21 and the final night has been designated "Milton Night".

Mayor Brian Best will be the dignitary in charge of the evening and a Milton Scout, Robert Hawkins will receive his Queen's Scout badge during the show.

All Scout-Guide groups in Milton are expected to take part in the annual church parade to Grace Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 22.

Local Scouters are holding a dance at the Scout Hall on Friday, Feb. 27 for anyone interested in Scouting. Proceeds from the dance will go toward sending one boy from the district to the Jamboree in 1971 in Japan.

Area students receive university information

On Wednesday, Feb. 11, 16 Ontario Universities will be represented at a Secondary School-University Information Program to be presented at Milton High School, Grades 12 and 13 students from Milton, Brantford and Georgetown and their parents are invited to participate in the program. Discussion will centre on the courses offered by universities, the educational requirements needed for successful entrance into these courses, their costs, residence fees, and other questions related to university life in general. A representative from the Department of University Affairs will also be present to discuss the Ontario Student Awards Program with those interested in its benefits.
