Milton Rover crew hosts winter camp

Over 100 Scouts, Venturers and Rovers from 10 different groups converged on the Scout Camp on Nassagaweya's Sixth Line for a winter camp-out sponsored by Milton's Third Rover Crew.

Events were held during the weekend of Feb. 7 and 8 and included wood lashing, wood chopping and sawing contests and a search for a mock accident victim on Sunday.

All the Scouts stayed in tents over Saturday night although they were spared the discomforts of a below freezing night, due both to mild weather and their adequate preparations in getting their tents insulated. The floors were covered in hay and the boys all dressed warmly. Top Scout troop of the weekend was Seventh Trafalgar

Name administrator within two weeks

Within the next two weeks a new administrator is expected to be named for Milton District Hospital.

Board Chairman J. M. Ledwith reports close to 20 applications for the position were received, after the resignation of Dalton McQuaig who had held the job for the past six years. The board has been interviewing applicants and narrowing down their choice. Mr. Ledwith said the board did not want to be hasty in making its choice, but wants to obtain a new administrator as soon as possible. Meanwhile Mrs. Brian Hatfield is acting as director of the nursing division at the hospital. The board has still come to no final decision on the status of nursing director Mrs. R. Verrall or her assistant Mrs. P. Walker. "Things are running very well

Weigh it well is new column
 The Champion has a new columnist, Mrs. Eleanor Coulter of Lowville whose women's page article "Weigh it Well" will appear irregularly in coming issues.
 No stranger to the pages of this newspaper, Mrs. Coulter was for several years the Lowville correspondent, and also contributed a column titled "Dear Elizabeth" a few years ago. She titled her newest effort "Weigh it Well" because, in her words, "I want women to start thinking out their own thoughts, to question and investigate items I may mention, not take my word for it. Besides, I am a 'Libra' person, thus the scales."
