Drummond-Price

In a double-ring ceremony in St. George's Anglican Church, Lowville, Judith (Judy) Colleen Price and Ean James Drummond were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price, R. R. 3, Campbellville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Drummond, R. R. 1, Streetsville.

The Rev. R. P. E. Jeffares officiated at the 3.30 p.m. ceremony on January 31, with pink carnations decorating the altar. Mrs. Elva Middlebrook was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore re-embroidered Alencon lace with full skirt and lily-point sleeves. Three layers of tulle gathered to white forget-me-nots formed her headdress and she carried a white orchid with purple lip and white carnations with streamers of mauve velvet.

Maid of honor was Miss Elvamay Readman, Lowville, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Smoke, a friend and Miss Janet Drummond, sister of the groom. They wore sleeveless jade green velvet gowns, carrying white fur muffs with a pink rose attached. Their ivory rose pendants were the gift of the bride.

The bride's mother made all the gowns for the wedding party as well as the wedding cake. Ron Break was groomsman and the ushers were Paul Colborne, friend of the groom, and Rod Drummond, brother of the groom.

The reception was held in the church. The bride's mother wore dark green crepe and lace, coral and black accessories and white carnations; the groom's mother wore a multi-colored ensemble with avocado accessories and white carnations. The bride changed to a blue walking suit with matching hat, black accessories and a yellow corsage. The couple are living in Burlington.

Guests were present from Montreal, Toronto, Oakville, Burlington, Kitchener, Milton, Streetsville, Campbellville and Rockwood.

The bride-to-be was honored at several showers before the wedding.

Norton Bus Lines, where the bride is a secretary-receptionist, held a shower. A miscellaneous and personal shower was held by Miss Sandra Coulson and Mrs. Charles Withnell. Miscellaneous showers were given by Mrs. Ian Break and Mrs. Willis Hamilton; Mrs. Fred Rouse and Mrs. Terry Rowbottom. Miss Elvamay Readman and Miss Ruth Smoke; and Mrs. Jackie Colbourne.

Thirteen workers receive S.S. certificates

Thirteen Sunday School workers and teachers, members of Highway Gospel Church will receive teacher training certificates from the national office of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada at their annual appreciation dinner on March 21.

The training course conducted two hours each evening for five nights was entitled "Teaching for Christian Maturity", and at the close of the sessions each worker praised the fine efforts of instructor Rev. M. Christensen, pastor of the church. Those taking the 10 hour course were Mrs. M. Christensen, director of Christian education, Mrs. B. Ruttan, Sunday School Superintendent, Mr. and Mrs. S. Sherratt, Mr. and Mrs. P. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. N. Roesner, Mrs. G. Wood, Mrs. G. Hutchison, Mrs. D. Christensen, Miss Debbie Miles and Eric Sherratt.

After the final lesson lunch was served, pictures were taken and an open discussion revealed the pleasure that each had received from the course.

Steam-Era ladies feted

The ladies were in the spotlight Friday when the Ontario Steam and Antique Preservers Association, sponsors of the annual Milton Steam-Era Reunion, held a ladies' night at the Highlands Restaurant near Galt.

Wives of the hobby enthusiasts were guests of honor at the roast beef dinner and dance. Close to 200 people attended the evening, arranged by directors Ross Calder of Preston, Jack Arthur of St. Agathe and Spencer Wilson of Norval. Mr.

Calder gave a glowing tribute to the ladies as he toasted them. Prizes for the best exhibits at the 1969 reunion in Milton were distributed to William J. Earl and John Smith for the best restored gas engines, Sherwood Hume of Milton for the best tractor, Ross Johnson for the best steam engine and to Bill Bailey of Brampton for making the biggest contribution to the show. Draw prizes went to Mrs. Roy Downs of Milton for the closest birthday and the Fred Thompsons of Caledonia for the closest anniversary. After dinner Capt. Bill James entertained with magic tricks and Cy Leonard and his puppet Happy kept the audience in stitches with their comedy routines.

Special guests of the group were Halton Agricultural Society president Alfred Ford, Halton Agricultural Representative Henry Stanley, Champion editor Roy Downs and their wives. Ontario's Minister of Agriculture William J. Stewart had planned to attend but was detained with government business. Club president Gordon Rayner of Milton presided over the evening.

May-Royce

Valda Jacqueline Royce and John Larry May were married in a double-ring, candle-light ceremony in St. Stephen's Anglican church, Hornby, on January 17. Canon J. E. Maxwell officiated and the church choir sang. Mrs. A. Bye was organist and the soloist Mrs. J. Hutton sang The Lord's Prayer and Where'er You Walk.

Standards of white and pink carnations decorated the church with white carnations on the altar. White candles were lit on the altar, at the windows and in candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lydia S. Royce and the late Mr. Royce, 180 Ontario St. S. Milton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack May, R. R. 2, Norval.

Wyndham St., Streetsville. Leaving the reception the bride wore a white knit dress with black and gold trim, black accessories and a corsage of deep pink carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

A trousseau tea was held at the bride's home on January 11. The groom's parents entertained after the wedding rehearsal.

The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence May, entertained at a luncheon. A church and community shower was held at the home of Mrs. Ken Ella. Family and friends attended a shower given by Mrs. Craig Royce and Mrs. Jim Mehlenbacher. Howard Chester and John Feenstra held a stag for the groom.

Youth still seeks religion theme of Nassagaweya group

Mrs. D. Nicholson, Campbellville, welcomed the ladies of the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, Haltonville, to the manse for their March meeting.

Mrs. D. Henderson opened the W. A. meeting with a poem, "I Believe". After the singing of the first hymn Mrs. J. Roberts read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. D. Mullen reported the plans of the committee for the luncheon on May 13. The date was set for cleaning the church, for Miss Lorie Allison's wedding on March 21. Arrangements were made for the lilies for Easter Sunday. After the singing of a hymn the meeting closed with prayer.

The Women's Missionary Society meeting was opened by Mrs. Norris reading a poem "A Recipe for Daily Living". After the singing of a hymn Mrs. C. Cargill read the minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by a verse from the Bible containing the word sacrifice. Mrs. Norris reviewed the annual meeting held at St. David's Church, Campbellville.

Mrs. G. Campbell had charge of the devotion. She opened with an interesting paper, "Youth Still Seeks Religion" - Religion attracts youth. Another point Mrs. Campbell touched on was that little kindnesses are very important.

Mrs. McLaren read the story of the Good Samaritan from the Bible. A hymn was sung and the meeting closed with prayer. Mrs. Nicholson served a delicious lunch. Mrs. Norris voiced the thanks of the ladies for her hospitality.

LOSE 14 LBS. IN 14 DAYS

With New Zealand's Original Grapefruit Diet - Here's How

This is the one, the original New Zealand, South Pacific Grapefruit Diet, recently sweeping with its revolutionary success all of Australia, New Zealand and the Fiji Islands.

Tens of thousands of the unhappy overweight have spread the words of its success throughout the South Pacific, U.S.A. and now Canada, and why? Because this is one that really works, without cutting out those favorite beers or glass of spirits. Now by following in others' footsteps you will lose 14 lbs. in 14 days. Be patient, little will happen in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop five pounds on the fifth day. After this first weight loss, count on 2 lbs. every two days, till the 14th day, and figure your new weight, a full 14 lbs. of undesirable fat will have left forever.

You will now steadily lose till your proper weight is reached. New Zealanders, Australians, Canadians, we all love to eat well, usually food that adds inches of ungainly fat, realize that with this amazing diet plan there will be no hunger pangs at all.

There's no doubt this original exciting diet lets you fill up on foods that have always been "taboo" for weight watchers, such as roast and fried chicken, rich gravies, salad dressings, crab and lobster with rich butter sauces, creamed or scrambled eggs, bacon and sausage, to name a few, eat all these and you will still lose 14 lbs. in 14 days, and then all the way down to your normal weight.

The mystery of the Original New Zealand Grapefruit diet is simple - FAT DOES NOT FORM FAT - FAT FIGHTS FAT and the grapefruit in this wonder diet acts as a blast furnace to start the fat burning process.

The unpermitted foods are now permitted, completely listed in the original diet plan, and you will still lose unsightly fat and bloat and body fluids, when all the excess fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will then remain constant.

A copy of this original, new and exciting diet can be obtained by sending $2 to: NEW ZEALAND ORIGINAL GRAPEFRUIT DIET, DEPT. MC11, P.O. BOX 160, STATION R., TORONTO, L7 UNCONDITIONAL MONEY BACK GUARANTEE by the publishers, WYNDALE AGENCY OF CANADA, 18 PURDON DRIVE, DOWNSVIEW, ONT. (C.O.D. orders accepted).

If after trying the original New Zealand Grapefruit diet plan you have not lost 14 lbs. in 14 days and thereafter at least one pound every day, simply return the diet plan you will receive, and your $2.00 will be promptly refunded, and without argument.

Decide now to regain the trim and attractive figure of your youth while still enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and unrestricted dinners. Tear out this message now as a reminder. Order now before others snap up the very limited supply.
