

Milton anglers clean up on fish derby prizes

The Halton Sportsman's Association's Trout Fishing Derby ended Sunday with most of the prizes going to Milton area residents.

The winners and their prizes in the senior division were, first, Eric Baudier (reel); second, Larry Newell (tackle box and lures); third, Fred Newell (compact tackle box and landing net); fourth, Rich LeClaire, (minnow bucket); and fifth, Rocky Gaitor (styrofoam bucket).

Winners in the junior division were, first, Debbie Newell; second, Steve Baudier; third, John MacDonald; fourth, Roland Kleer; fifth, Perry Caputo; sixth, Gregory Morley. Prizes in the junior division were the same as those in the senior section.

Also at the finish of the Derby, the Halton Region Conservation Authority restocked Kelso Lake with 1,175 young rainbow trout. The fish were released into the lake by Brock Harris, Chairman of the Authority's Land Use Advisory Board, and Jim Smith, Fishing Director of the Halton Sportsman's Association.

Fly-tying and casting demonstrations were given throughout the derby by the Feather and Hook Club of Dundas.

Martin St. boys win softball tournament

Martin St. school male athletes are establishing themselves as the gang to beat in a wide variety of events in the athletic world. Thursday they won the North Halton Senior Public School softball championship, defeating Fairview in a real thriller to gain entry into the finals and then staging a last inning comeback to win the championship over Brookville. Stewarttown beat Brookville in the girls' championship.

Teams from Martin St., Brookville, Fairview, Centennial, M. Z. Bennett and Stewarttown took part in the tournament. Martin St. boys beat Fairview, Centennial and M. Z. Bennett before going to the wire against Brookville in the finals.

Martin St. boys also won the volleyball and basketball championship this year and the school came second in the North Halton field day.

Don Kosulic came up with the greatest clutch hit of the tournament.

Fairview went ahead of Martin St. in the fifth inning after both teams battled scoreless innings. With one out and one on, Kosulic drifted one into deep left field and crossed home before the fielder was able to retrieve and field the ball.

Martin St. found themselves in a similar bind with Brookville, trailing 2-1 in the last inning. Rick Bridgman and Brad Joyce got on base and Bruce Ellison blasted a long ball scoring both Bridgman and Joyce to win the game 3-2.

Bombers win two late inning runs

Milton Brownie's Bombers claimed a 3-1 win over Brampton Friday and an 8-2 decision over Oakville Monday, breaking out in the sixth inning of each game. The Bombers now have a six and two win-loss record.

John Tonelli went all the way in the first game, giving up three hits and one run to Brampton. Tonelli engaged in a real duel with Johnston on the Brampton mound. Brampton led 1-0 going into the sixth inning and Milton came up with three runs.

Johnston pitched himself out of a bases loaded spot and other situations with men on base and none out but never allowed a run until the sixth.

For Milton the hitters were Bruce Ellison with a triple and single Roger Clements, Ron Rowley, and John Tonelli with two singles each and Dave Turner and Paul Stover with singles.

Dave Turner and John Tonelli shared pitching duties Monday as the Bombers beat Oakville 8-2. Craig Jubb, Paul Stover and Perry Caputo all singled twice. Ron Twiss and Bruce Ellison doubled and singled twice.

The Bombers were sheltering a flimsy 3-2 lead going into the sixth inning when they opened with five runs. The Bombers are slated to see action Saturday and then at home against Georgetown Monday. Game time Monday is 6:30.

Closer competition in house league

Patrick Roberts tripled, John Crisci doubled and singles went to Don Bell and Brian Bell who singled in the winning run from Elsley.

Mike Shepherd tripled for Milton Auto Body while singles went to Tracy Murray and Robert Benton.

Moffat minor teams suffer dismal week

Limehouse swamped Moffat (19 and under girls) 31 - 6 for Moffat's second loss this season. Berli McEnery was the winner for Limehouse.

Michelle Sokolowski and Susan Thomson starred for Moffat (12 & under girls) as they won 12 - 3 over Hillsburg. Susan recorded the win and also hit a grand slam homer.

Bantams dropped two games this weekend. A 14 - 2 loss to Arkell Friday and a 21 - 3 loss to Hillsburg, Sunday.

Squirts twinned their big brothers and dropped a close 8 - 7 decision to Hillsburg, Friday, then lost Sunday to Elora 22 - 19.

George Brown homered for Moffat Atoms, as they suffered their second defeat this season to Limehouse by a 10-8 score.

Moffat atoms put forth their best team effort of the season and stopped undefeated Ponsonby 7 - 5, Monday night. A combination of steady pitching, good hitting and excellent fielding by the entire Moffat squad kept home fans excited until the final out.

Night club owner at Norval robbed

Milton OPP are this week investigating an armed robbery at Norval following a 3 a.m. Sunday hold-up at the Riviera Club dance hall.

Riviera owner Emil Zuber of Georgetown had closed the hall for the night and was walking toward his car in the parking lot when he was accosted by a hooded man wielding a gun. The bandit snatched a bag containing the club's bank deposit of $1,300, then tied Mr. Zuber to a heavy lawn mower and fled in the club owner's car. The victim was able to free himself in about an hour and report the incident.

Const. Douglas Ormsby of Milton OPP, the investigating officer, reported the car was recovered later that day at the GO Transit station in Mississauga.

LOSS OF MEMORY

The doctor told the druggist about a patient who suffered from loss of memory.

"What did you do?" asked the druggist.

"Made him pay in advance," was the answer.
