

Bruce St. fun fare is sellout success

Bruce St. Home and School Association held a "fun fare" at the school Monday. Bake, white elephant, hobby and fish pond tables added to the excitement. A picnic supper was also held at the fair and proved to be "one mad success." "You couldn't see for a while," said supper convener Mrs. Larry Smith. "The entire project proved to be a success—everything sold out quickly." First, second and third prize ribbons were awarded the children who submitted the best baking and hobby class entries. Head conveners were: H. Norsworthy, fish pond; Mrs. H.

Kellin, white elephant; Mrs. R. Kerr, hobby; Mrs. L. Smith, supper and Mrs. J. Rimpl, baking. The fun fare ran from 5 to 8.30 p.m.

INTERPRETATION Drivers are reminded by the Ontario Safety League that the yellow caution sign on the traffic light doesn't say: "C'mon, hurry up and you can get through!" It does say: "You've got time to clear the intersection if you're in it."
