Jones family enjoys reunion

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
North Trafalgar Slimettes held their weekly meeting on Monday, Oct. 5 at Percy Merry School, with 49 members attending. It was decided to hold a dance on Nov. 13 in Milton. The committee includes Joan Jarvis, Betty Ann Leriche, Thelma Bousfield, Hannah Mezuna, Joyce Lockie, Joy Cole, Betty Watson, Marjorie Mowbray, Ruth Wells.
Best weight losers of the week were Audrey Brush and Betty Watson. The gift of a pair of pearl earrings were presented to Mrs. Donna Jones, a past member now living in Stoney Creek, in appreciation of her services as treasurer.
Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Colling entertained the Finnie and Colling families at a Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday Oct. 11. Nearly 50 were in attendance.
New machine
Mrs. Donna Jones and children Jimmy, Tommy and Marlene spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Finnie Jr. and family while her husband Michael is receiving instruction on operating a new pasteurizing machine purchased by the dairy in Stoney Creek. The first one in Ontario, the machine is made in U.S.A.
Mr. and Mrs. Jones, formerly of the Fourth Line returned recently from a three week holiday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamaluk of Hairy Hill, Alberta. Mrs. Jones' three sisters and two brothers and families all arranged their vacation so they could spend it together with the Jones' from Ontario. It was a grand family reunion with 24 persons attending for the three weeks. The parents have a 13 room house and all had a wonderful time. Due to the poor market for wheat, many large farms in that area are not being cropped. Weeds and unkempt land make a pitiful sight.

Demonstrate at school
The October meeting of Percy Merry Home and School was held on Thursday, Oct. 8 in the auditorium with 33 in attendance. Mrs. Aileen McMillan, vice-president welcomed the members and presided. J. Kobzey, principal and members of the staff explained and demonstrated the audio teaching aids as used in the school. Five new memberships were added, making 57 in all. The informal meeting was held with the group seated at small tables and they enjoyed coffee with cheese, crackers and fruit tray.
We are pleased to report that T. A. Leslie, Sixth Line is convalescing at his home following a stay in hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rippon have sold their home at Gibbons, Alberta and have moved to Victoria, B.C. Friends in the area wish them good health in their new location.
Birthday greetings to Craig Morley, Judy Prestidge, Mrs. T. Alderson and Karen Bradley.

Lois Mills

Ministry in India topic at fall tea

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
A delightful fall day with autumn colors all around outside, and inside Omagh church, floral arrangements with fruit and nuts made for a truly Thanksgiving tea. The event, arranged by Omagh Women's Missionary Society was held Thursday Oct. 8 with ladies from other churches attending. Mrs. Cecil Patterson, president welcomed the guests and presided. Mrs. Muriel Gerhart of Clarkson, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Lambert rendered three beautiful solos - Bless This House, The Lord is my Shepherd and Beautiful Garden of Prayer.
Mrs. Robert Brownridge introduced the guest speaker, Rev. John Murray of Knox church, Milton. Mr. Murray told of his life in Bhil India, where he and his wife labored for many years. He helped build a leprosy hospital there, starting in 1935 and leaving in 1964. He gave an interesting account of his life with the black people, many times seeing no whites for six months at a time.

books, blue in color for members' record books.
A review of the first meeting on color schemes, namely, monochromatic, analogous, trend, complementary and split-complementary were explained using a color wheel. Members are to find three examples and put them in the record book. Many had their samples of button hole stitches made. Mrs. Patterson demonstrated feather stitching and variations, single, double and closed versions. Most members got their material and thread so got started on their table runner.

Celebrate anniversary
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford, Fifth Line who recently celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary. A dinner was held in their honor at the home of their son Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Ford and daughter Rhonda in Orangeville. Their three other sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Ford, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ford, Burnhamthorpe Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ford, Oakville made a presentation on this special occasion. There are eight grandchildren. Friends wish this couple many more anniversaries.

Friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Clayton May is a patient in Milton Hospital, following a fall at her home on Thursday afternoon. We wish her a speedy recovery.
Get well wishes to Mrs. Earl Galbraith, a patient in Women's College Hospital, Toronto for surgery.

Accept tender

Halton County Board of Education accepted the low tender of Thurlow and Sanderson Limited of Burlington at $237,343 for the construction of a addition to the West Education Centre in Burlington.
Nine firms issued bids and the low bid came in $2,000 lower than the estimated budget. The addition when complete will serve as the new headquarters for the Halton Board.
The new headquarters will be located on the Guelph Line in Burlington. It is presently located in rented quarters on the South Service Rd. in Oakville.

Other churches
The scripture lesson on Thanksgiving and stewardship followed by prayer was given by Mrs. Henry Peacock. Mrs. Velma Norris brought greetings from her association at Nassagaweya and also from the Brampton division. Guests were present from Sheridan, Bethel, Milton Presbyterian, Milton United, Eden, Boston, Palermo, Oakville and Clarkson.
Mrs. Robert Marshall gave the courtesies, thanking all for their contribution to the afternoon's enjoyment. Mrs. R. Brownridge was at the electric organ. The benediction was given by Mrs. R. Lewis, after which all adjourned to the S.S. rooms for lunch and social time. A sale of homemade goodies and garden produce was held.

New members
The second meeting of Hornby South 4-H club was held in Omagh church basement on Saturday Oct. 10 from 1 to 3 p.m. Heidi Nowak, president led in repeating the 4-H pledge. Answers to roll call showed that most members were planning to make a table runner for learning stitch article. Three new girls registered and were welcomed. Heidi had secured sufficient
