Busy year for lady pipers name Susan Martin president

Last week the Milton Girls' Pipe Band held their annual election of officers. They are: President, Susan Martin; vice president, Suzanne Ricketts; secretary-treasurer, Zandra Miller; assistant secretary-treasurer, Marilyn Martin; press reporter, Janie Bird; sick and sunshine, Arlene Graham; scrap book, Marily Miller; quarter masters Vicky, Janie and Margaret Bird; drum major, Suzanne Ricketts; acting pipe major Marilyn Martin; drum sergeant, Zandra Miller.

The pipe band had a successful year due to the overwhelming assistance of the Royal Canadian Legion Auxiliary. They have been able to obtain three white pearl snare drums, a band set of pipe chanters, white blazers for their summer wear and new socks are coming from Scotland. They hope to complete the drum section with a matching bass and tenor drum and they have yet to outfit their new Drum Major.

Many highlights
Highlights were a weekend trip to Pennsylvania, a day at the Orange parade in Toronto and the Hamilton Santa Claus parade in which they won first prize of $50 for the best marching band. These are just a few highlights of the year. They have received an invitation back to Pennsylvania for next summer's steam show in Mansfield. Each Tuesday evening the girls help out at the bingo held at the Legion.

The Legion ladies are providing the girls with $50 for their Christmas supper at the Tien-Que Chinese restaurant in Burlington.
