

Student choir to lead Christmas carol singing

Care to join in some pre-Christmas carol singing? A student choir of about 80 voices will lead a downtown carol songfest next Monday and Tuesday mornings, Dec. 21 and 22, at 9.30 a.m. The students are all from Martin St. Senior Public School.

Everyone in the downtown area is invited to join in the yuletide singalong—shoppers, store clerks, town hall staff and everyone who wants to get into the mood is welcome to join right in.

The event will take place at the new parkette at the corner of Main and Charles Sts., across from the town hall.

Free Christmas carol sheets will be distributed to everyone attending. Don Smith, a local businessman, made the arrangements with the co-operation of Martin St. School principal Thomas Gibson and Milton Parks Board.

10 more lucky winners in Chamber's yule draw

Ten more lucky shoppers won $10 merchandise vouchers in the Christmas bonanza draw conducted by Milton Chamber of Commerce Monday.

Vouchers went out in the mail to the following: Mrs. Eleanor Bousfield, R. R. 2 Milton; Joseph Belvedere, 195 Bell St.; F. Hunter, c/o OSD; E. Antonucci, 221 Bell St.; Audrey Brush, 322 Elmwood Cresc.; Frank Richard, R. R. 6; Mary Robertson, R.R. 5; Mrs. W. Taylor, 211 Ontario St.; Mrs. J. Conway, R.R. 1; and Mrs. C. Moulton, 155 Robinwood Cresc.

Each voucher is worth $10 at any of the 84 stores and services which are sponsoring the Chamber's free Christmas bus for shoppers.

Last week 15 persons won a total of $100 in the first draw. The third draw will be held next Monday for two $25 vouchers and five more at $10.

All tickets turned in by noon on Dec. 24 (including tickets used in the first three Monday draws) will go in the big drum for the final draw that afternoon — with one grand prize of $100 and 10 final winners at $10 each.

Order installation

Installation of automatic protection, consisting of two short arm gates with flashing lights, signal and bell has been ordered by the Canadian Transport Commission for railway crossings in Esqueving on the Fourth Line, just south of Lot 13 and on the Fifth Line, just south of Lot 14.

Canadian National Railways must install the protection within 10 months a letter from the Commission informed Esqueving Council, Monday.

Yesteryear's Customs Live At Yuletide

Candles and carols, trees and treats, gifts and greens — and Santa Claus, of course. Whenever Christmas is celebrated, these symbols seem to appear.

In the modern era of rapid communication, there is a growing uniformity in the ways that people everywhere choose to mark the holiday.

Yesteryear's customs, however, still have their place in modern celebrations. It's a case of "the more things change, the more they stay the same," as countries, communities and individuals seek to cherish and preserve their own special holiday traditions.

Some of these traditions, as treasured in memory or kept alive in holiday ritual, are compiled in the following paragraphs, according to information from the editors of Encyclopedia International.

It's a Mystery

Mysterious things happen on Christmas Eve, say country legends of Switzerland. Young people may foretell the future, if they drink from nine different fountains while the midnight church bells chime. Then, if they hasten to the church steps, their future mates will await them there.

Somewhat less romantically, older folk seek to predict the weather for the coming year, using onion peels filled with salt.

Wrapping Gifts

When German tradition is followed, unwrapping a Christmas gift can be an amusing but complicated process.

One gift may have many consecutive wrappings, each with a different name on it; and the final wrapping may reveal not a gift, but a card telling where the gift is hidden.

Other cards in other hiding places lead to a treasure hunt, ending in the discovery of the gift.
