Hornby W.I.

New slate to be elected next month

The March Hornby Women's Institute meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Wilson with 12 members present. Mrs. H. O'Connor conducted the meeting due to the illness of President Mrs. William MacPherson. She opened the meeting with a poem "Enjoyment of Life". This was followed by the minutes of the last meeting read by secretary Mrs. L. Sampson.

Roll call - "Hints from a green thumb to a green horn" was well answered. "Snippy Tips" published by the Garden Club of Toronto, consists of three booklets, one on "The Drying of Flowers, Plant Material and The Preservation of Foliage; House Plants."

The District Annual at Acton on May 19 (morning and afternoon). A cushion top, a decorated anniversary cake and a poem not exceeding 16 lines are to be taken from each branch. Suggestions for program for the day are to be presented at the District Directors meeting in April.

The two courses chosen for Leaders Training School in the fall were "working with Knits" and "Ontario Fruits". These are to be in by April 1. It was decided not to hold any short courses. An ACWW Conference will be held in Oslo August 3.

A nominating committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. C. Patterson and Mrs. R. Wilson to bring in new slate of officers for the April meeting. A letter had been sent to our Korean adopted child, Hornby WI caters to the Early Bird Bowlers Banquet on May 15 at the Boyne Centre.

Interest had been shown in purchasing Institute silverware so a price was set in case it might be sold between meetings.

Gospel never changes minister tells women

The World Day of Prayer was observed in the Nassagaweya Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon, March 5 with ladies from Ebenezer United Church as guests. Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Ward conducted the service with Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Hayward as additional readers.

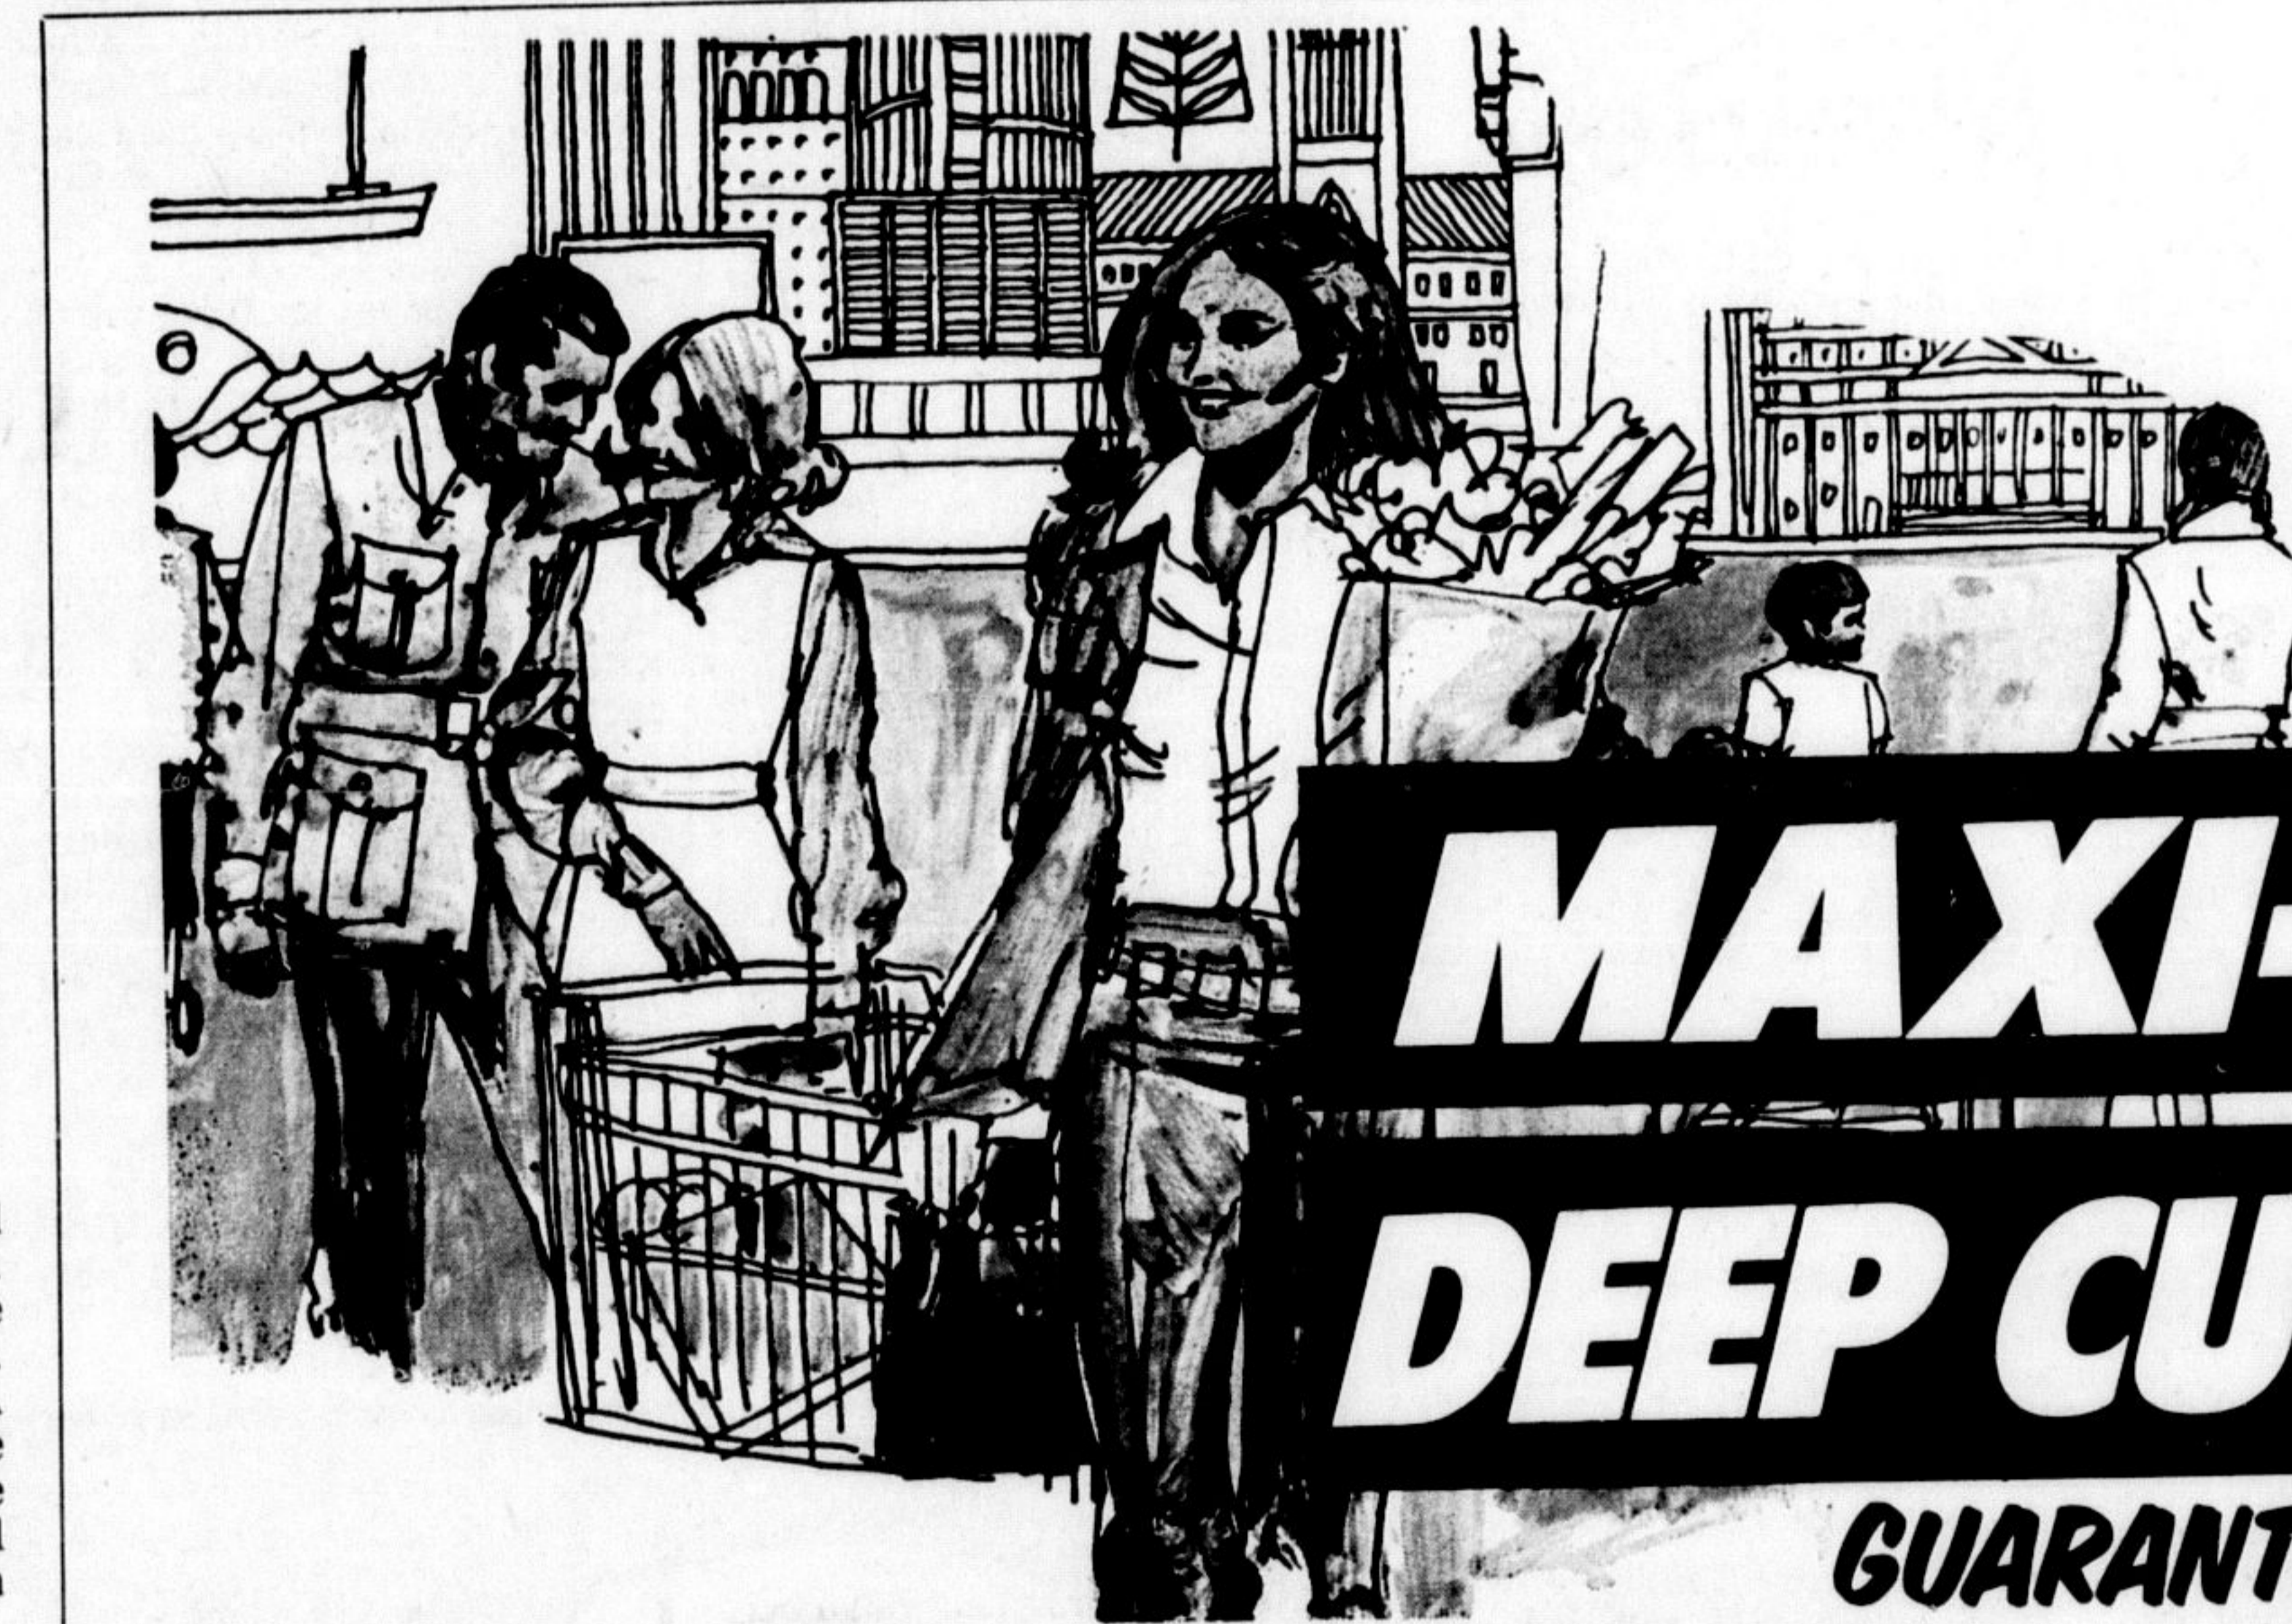

The speaker for the afternoon was Rev. B. Warren of the Bezek Christian Retreat and he was introduced by Mrs. Joss. His subject was "A new people for a new age."

Quoting from 38th chapter of Ezekiel, verse 26, he said that although the old religion does not seem to be suitable any more, the old gospel will never change. His discourse was listened to with interest and enjoyed by all.

230 women, girls at prayer services

Two hundred and thirty Miltonians of all ages united for prayer on Friday, March 5, the World Day of Prayer. Services were held at the Centennial Manor chapel at 2 p.m. and at Grace Anglican church in the afternoon and evening.

Patients at the hospital were also provided with copies of the service by a member of the Hospital Auxiliary.

Representatives from Grace Anglican, Highway Pentecostal, Knox Presbyterian and St. Paul's United Churches formed a ladies' choir directed by Mrs. M. Ledwith. Besides providing leadership for the hymns the choir brought pleasure to their listeners with a special song called "The Gospel Call."

Rewarding crowd

The attendance at the 4.15 p.m. service of 106 young people was very rewarding for the efforts of the group leaders of the Guides, Brownies, Rangers, C.G.I.T., Explorers, and Anglican Girls' Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary. Music for this service was provided by the Junior Choir of Grace Church, which sang an anthem entitled "Joy is Like the Rain" in which solo verses were taken by Misses Joanne, Jane, and Mildred McKinnon. Everyone also enjoyed hearing Miss Linda Smith sing "Tell Me the Stories of Jesus". The planning for this service was convened by Mrs. K. Cann.

The combined offerings were sent to the Women's Inter-church Council of Canada for distribution to world organizations with emphasis on Christian literature and ecumenical and educational projects.

Attends all three

Mrs. S. Sherratt, who is the president of the planning committee for the World Day of Prayer in Milton was present and took part in all three services.

Basing her words on the theme of the day "A New People for a New Age" the guest speaker, Mrs. A. Ledwith, called on the congregation to affect changes in their lives by replacing selfish desires with genuine concern for others.
