Cure your loneliness

Looking for a sure cure for those "lonesome blues"? Champion classifieds might be the answer - they're almost guaranteed to produce a few phone calls for you. They aren't really intended to cure loneliness, they're designed to sell, rent, hire or announce, but more and more advertisers are learning they work very well.

Last week a man advertised a boy's bike for sale, and says he got "a tremendous response". "I could have sold 50 of them," he said.

Plenty of calls
Another advertiser listed a pair of tires for sale. They sold right away but he was still getting phone calls about the tires on Monday.

Still another happy advertiser sold a lawn mower through Champion classifieds. He wondered how far the paper's circulation extends, as he sold it to a man from Toronto.

If you're lonesome, maybe a Champion want ad is what you need. Just place that ad and sit back waiting for the telephone to bring you a host of new friends

Will fly to convention

Three men will represent Halton County Department of Social and family services at a convention in Thunder Bay June 6 to 10.

Committee chairman Reeve Ron Harris, Warden F. G. Oakes and Director Jim Gray will attend the convention dealing with welfare.

"JUDY'S MILK BAR" was where you'd find the "dairy fare" 4-H project, and is shown serving club member Judy Chase. —(Staff Photo)
