Dredge hits number 500 in Campbellville victory

Campbellville retained their hold on third place in the Halton Senior League when they defeated Preston by a score of 4-1 in Campbellville Sunday afternoon.

Fuelers forge ahead beat Waterdown twice

This weekend the Mowbray Fuelers came out on top of their games against Waterdown, winning 16-9 and 14-3. The Mowbrays have now won six games and lost two.

On Friday night winning pitcher K. Smith fanned 11, gave up five free passes and allowed six hits. While the Waterdown combination of Nordoff, Willis and Shaw gave up four free bases, struckout two and allowed 19 hits.

The Fueler's started off early getting three runs in the first to Waterdown's one. The Mowbray's then picked up one run in the second, seven in the third and two in the fourth before Waterdown got on the scoreboard again with four runs in the fourth and one in the fifth. Each team then picked up three runs to end the scoring 16-9.

The two men at the bat for the Fuelers were R. Smith with two singles, a double and a triple and D. Gilbert with three doubles and a single.

Gilbert (3). Triples also went to M. McPhail (1), and K. Smith (1). Waterdown hitters were Talley, Bryon, Clark, Shaw, Willis all with singles.

On Saturday morning the Fuelers turned on the power again to defeat Waterdown 14-3. Winning pitcher Carl Caputo went the full distance fanning 14, allowing four hits, and gave five free passes. The combination of Nordoff, Willis, and Shaw again tried to defend their team against the Fuelers to no avail, fanning 11, allowing nine hits and giving 11 free passes.

There was no scoring in the first inning, then Waterdown drew first blood in the second inning only to have the Mowbrays come back with three in their half. The Mowbray nine turned on the power picking up five runs in the third. Waterdown picked up one run in the fourth and one run in the seventh, while the Fuelers got two in the fifth and four in the sixth to end the scoring 14-3.

The man at the plate for Mowbray was D. Harnden with a single, a double and 3 R.B.I.'s. Mowbray hitters were (singles) K. Smith (1), D. Toletzka (1), M. Hyatt (1), T. Blinco (1), D. Harnden (1), D. Gilbert (2), DOUBLES went to C. Caputo (1), and D. Harnden (1).

Meters sweep pair against Leaver club

Leavers suffered two losses to the Meters last week when they were defeated 9-4 on Thursday and 7-2 on Sunday.

Winning pitcher of Thursday night's game was Ted Casson. Casson fanned three batters, walked five and allowed eight hits. Losing pitcher Dave Yemm was relieved by Larry Bennett during the third inning. Together they struck out nine batters, gave up nine free passes and allowed 10 hits.

Naylor leads
Gary Naylor led in the batting department for Meters with two doubles and two R.B.I.'s. Brian Carter doubled and singled and singles also were batted by Glen Wilson (2), Leon Stickle, Ed McLeod (2) and Bob Lee.

For Leavers, Tom Sargent, Owen Yemm, Larry Campbell, Bryan Howard, Jim Dales, Lorne Gunby, Dave Gates and Bill Freeman all singled.

In Sunday night's game, Meters took an early 1-0 lead in the first. Ed McLeod singled, stole second and scored due to an infield error. The game became tied in the third when Dave Yemm singled and was slammed home on a double pounded by Dave Gates.

Leavers gained a one run lead in the fourth when Ralph McCormack singled, was forced to second when Owen Yemm was walked and scored on a single batted by Tom Sargent.

Turn on power
Meters turned on the power in the bottom of the fourth taking a 5-2 lead. Phil Litenburger smashed a triple driving in Brian Carter who had been walked and Bob Lee who had singled previously. Glen Wilson singled to score Litenburger and Leon Stickle sacrificed out to centre field to score Wilson.

During the fifth, Meters chalked up two more runs. Brian Carter was walked and came home on an outfield error. Bob Lee who had reached second on that error advanced to third on another outfield error and stole home.

Phil Litenburger, the winning pitcher, went the route for Meters and struck-out one batter, walked two and allowed 11 hits. Losing pitcher Dave Yemm, fanned 11 batters, issued six walks and gave up five hits.

Big man at the plate for Meters was Phil Litenburger with a triple, a single and 2 R.B.I.'s. Singles went to Glen Wilson, Ed McLeod and Bob Lee.

Dave Gates paced the Leaver attack with a double and a single and one R.B.I. Tom Sargent, Dave Yemm (2), Bryan Howard, Ralph McCormack (2) and Jim Dales all hit singles.

Future games
Future games are scheduled for Tuesday, July 13 when Leavers vs Legion at Martin St. School at 7:00 and Meters vs Charles at Rotary at 8:30. On Thursday, July 15, Charles vs Leavers at 7:00 at Leavers and Legion vs Meters at Rotary at 8:30.

Youth night is planned

An Evangelical Youth Night is planned for Thursday, July 22 at 7:30 at Martin St. School. The night will be highlighted by singing and a speech by Roy Lawson.

Mr. Lawson is a well known youth speaker in the London area. The Singing Sisters from Chatham, Marnie Hare and Ron Rand of Milton will sing for the group.

Organizer Mike Benson said the evening was open to people of all religious beliefs and noted it was basically geared for the youth.

Palermo robs Hornby in weekend contests

Palermo battled to a 10-7 win over Hornby Tuesday and then swamped Hornby Friday by a 12-2 margin in the Halton Rural-Burlington fastball league.

A triple by Ed Dunn, a walk to Ron McHugh and Andy Trencs provided two runs for Hornby in the seventh bringing the score to 7-2. Two runs in the eighth and one in the ninth polished the victory off for the Palermo group.

In tournament action Hornby beat Glen Williams in the first game, a 2-1 thriller, but lost to L.O.F. in the semi-finals. Andy Trencs and Don Chisholm were the big hitters in the Glen Williams game while Ed Dunn was the winning pitcher. John Englehart was the loser on the Hornby mound in the semi-finals.

In the first league game Palermo went ahead on a pair of hits by C. Marsh and R. Martin in the second scoring two runs in that inning. Hornby rallied in their half of the second for two runs to tie the score. Singles by Don Chisholm and Yuri Kudrasovs and a Larry Bennett double in the second put Hornby back in the game.

Palermo pounded five runs around in the fourth inning to go way out in front. Walks went to John Englehart, M. Gaborcey, D. Scarrow and Bruce Straughton had a hit during the inning.
