

RECENTLY MARRIED in St. Paul's United Church, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bousfield are making their home in Toronto. The bride is the former Elizabeth Douglas of Willowdale and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bousfield of Pine St.—(Milton Photographic)

Wedding

Bousfield - Douglas

Elizabeth Ann Rolfe Douglas became Mrs. Douglas William Bousfield on July 3, when vows and rings were exchanged in St. Paul's United Church. Rev. Charles Hainer officiated at the 11 a.m. wedding and John Bell, a friend of the bride, acted as organist. Standards of mauve and yellow flowers adorned the church and ribbons with clusters of mauve and yellow flowers marked the guests' pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Douglas of Willowdale and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon Bousfield of 395 Pine St.

Heirloom Pendant

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a long empire-style gown of silk organza over a peau de sole skirt. Lace motifs accented the high collar, bodice and long lily-point sleeves and a lace accented pillbox headdress held her tiered, finger-tip illusion veil, trimmed with matching lace. She wore an heirloom ruby pendant which was an engagement gift to her grandmother, and she carried a nosegay of yellow, lilac and white flowers accented by yellow and lilac ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor was the bride's first cousin, Miss Shirley Avarell of Toronto. Bridesmaid was Patricia Bousfield of Milton, sister of the groom.

Mauve and Yellow Hues

The maid of honor wore a long gown of buttercup yellow with white accessories and a white garden hat. She carried a white gathering basket of mauve flowers accented by the yellow and white hues.

The bridesmaid wore a full length lilac empire-style gown with white gloves, shoes and garden hat and she carried a white basket of yellow flowers accented by mauve and white. The attendants wore pearl pendants, gifts of the bride.

Groomsman was Barry Ferguson of Milton, a friend of the groom. Ushers were Niall Straw and Ken Brown of Milton, friends of the groom.

Wedding

Coffen - Emerson

Standards of white, pink, yellow and orange daisies, mums and carnations decorated St. Andrew's United Church, Georgetown for the double ring wedding of Sharon Joy Emerson and Rupert Charles Coffen. Rev. K. C. Johnston officiated at the 3 p.m. wedding and Mrs. T. Massens acted as organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Emerson of 84 Sargent Rd., Georgetown and is employed as an instructor at Milton Rotary Park Pool. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Coffen of 136 Ontario St., Milton, and is a dispatcher at McKinlay Transport.

Made own gown

The radiant bride chose a long gown of white crepe with mauve and white lace accents down the front of the dress and around the neckline. A train fell from the back of the dress and a full length veil fell from a dainty headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of mauve tipped carnations centred by a large mauve orchid. The bride made her own gown.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister Marilyn Emerson. Bridesmaid was the bride's sister-in-law Mrs. David Hough and flower-girl was Nicole Hough. The attendants were dressed alike in long mauve gowns, accented by multi-colored daisies. They carried bouquets of pink, blue and yellow daisies to match their dresses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Best man was David Hough and ushers were Robert McKay and Ed Boer.

Reception

Seventy guests from England, Ripley, Stratford and London attended the dinner and evening reception at Georgetown Golf and Country Club. Baskets of flowers and bouquets of carnations decorated the hall.

The bride's mother received guests in a lemon yellow coat and dress ensemble with a corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother assisted in a blue dress with yellow rose corsage.

Cape Cod Honeymoon

For the honeymoon trip to Cape Cod, Massachusetts the bride wore a purple crimplene dress with matching sleeveless jacket. Her corsage was mauve orchid.

The couple are making their home at 174 Commercial St., in Milton.

The groom's grandparents from England attended the wedding.

The bride attended McMaster University for two years and is a graduate of Lakeshore Teacher's College.

Plant size of bushel has 48 dainty blooms

A geranium "the size of a bushel" is growing in the front south-east flower bed of the home of Mrs. Mildred Forshner, R. R. 6 Milton. A dainty, lacy work of art, the size of the flower is not its only oddity.

Known to some as "Wild Crane's-bill" the geranium has 48 blossoms visible to the eye "and maybe more that couldn't be counted." "I've never seen one like it before," said Mrs. Forshner, its owner.

The two year old annual was kept indoors during its first winters in a large pot in the south-east window of the Forshner home. "I've planted it outdoors these last two summers but the size of it, well its really something to see," she remarked.

"Babied" Plant

Mrs. Forshner "babied" the plant with vitamins during the winter months and saw to it the plant received first choice of a spot in the outdoor beds this spring. "I put it in the same spot (the south-east bed) when I planted it outdoors and what a "blooming" success," she added excitedly.

Although the geranium is known for its pungent odor, the flower is still a masterpiece in itself.

MARRIED in St. Andrew's United Church, Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Coffen are making their home in Milton. The bride is the former Sharon Joy Emerson of Georgetown and is an instructor at Milton Rotary Park Pool. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Coffen of 136 Ontario St.—(Milton Photographic)

A GERANIUM WITH 48 blossoms is the prize in a flower bed at the home of Mrs. Mildred Forshner, 4415 Four Sideroad in north Burlington this year. The plant started to bloom profusely in the garden of the Forshner home for the first time this year. Mrs. Forshner reports the plant had grown "to the size of a bushel" and at present almost 24 tiny flowers are in bloom. Here Kathy, 5, and Roy, 7, take a peek at mom's prize specimen.

St. Georges

ACW ladies are a busy group

On Wednesday July 14 Mrs. W. Powell entertained the members of the Afternoon ACW of St. George's Church. The first part of the afternoon was spent in viewing the scrap book of St. George's Church for the past over 100 years.

Euchre was played, the prize winners being Marie Twiss and Lily Jay the high and low. The lucky cup prize went to Ethel Howard. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Powell and her helpers. Mrs. LePage thanked

Mrs. Powell for a lovely afternoon entertainment.

On Sunday, July 18 Mr. Armstrong from Georgetown conducted the service in St. George's Church and Mr. Wilson will be the minister in charge on July 25. Rev. Jeffares is on holidays and during August Lowville United Church will join with St. George's Church in St. George's Church at 10 a.m. St. John's Nassagaweya will also join in the service.

WI members tour Kelso

A picnic and visit to Kelso Museum was enjoyed by members of the Mountain Union Women's Institute, for their regular July meeting. Members enjoyed lunch beside the water in front of the old Duff Alexander farm house situated on the grounds adjacent to the museum.

A short business meeting was held with Mrs. N. Langton presiding, and the date for the September bus trip was decided. Plans were also discussed for the Women's Institute exhibits to be displayed at the annual fall fair.

Museum director Dr. Newman welcomed the members and a tour followed through the museum buildings and grounds. A motor tour through the park concluded a delightful afternoon.

—Youngsters are having fun five days a week at the three Milton playgrounds and the day camp in Rotary Park.

—Don't miss this year's Steam-Era reunion at the fair grounds, labor day weekend.
