

Panel discusses special education

The Kilbride United Church Women met in the Sunday School room, Thursday evening, October 14 with Mrs. W. Bullard, president, presiding. Fourteen ladies were present.

Mr. E. Heatherington gave the devotional entitled, "Thanksgiving and she read Psalm 105." Mrs. H. Gorter rendered a piano solo, followed by a reading by Mrs. E. McArthur, called "Autumn in Old Burlington." Mrs. J. Henry gave an interesting and humorous talk on "A Trip to Holland", followed by two readings by Mrs. H. MacDonald entitled "First Thanksgiving 1879, and 'Age of Awareness'."

Bake sale
The U.C.W. have decided to have a bake sale in the Sunday School room on Saturday Nov. 13. Lunch was served by Miss Netta Burns and Mrs. W. Bullard. The committee for the next meeting is Mrs. R. Coverdale, and Mrs. M. Davies.

The Kilbride home and school association met for the second meeting of the season on Tuesday evening Oct. 19 at 7.45 p.m. The topic for the evening was Special Education in Halton County. How does the school and county cope with exceptional children?

Panel discussion
A panel discussion was held. Panel members were Ron Chapman, assistant superintendent with the Halton County Board of Education in charge of Special Education in North Halton, Mrs. Catherine McNerny, vice principal of General Brock, the board's vocational high school in Burlington, and N. Howell, principal of Kilbride school.

The panel members explained how the county accommodates exceptional children as to the selection of class and the selection of grouping in that particular class.

Mrs. McNerny pointed out that they truthfully believe that all students have potential and their job is to find out where their potential is, and to see that they learn how to work.

A question and answer period followed.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

To celebrate 50th U.C.W. anniversary

The October meeting of the North Trafalgar Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Miller, with 16 members present. Mrs. Joe Sammit, presented the treasurer's report and Mrs. Bert Leslie reported on the 50th anniversary party which was held at the Hawthorne Golf Club.

Life members were asked to make a scrapbook of newspaper clippings pertaining to the club. Mrs. Jack Williamson was appointed chairman of the new membership committee.

Mrs. Anderson may read an article on "Mike Swartz birthday party" which was very humorous and most enjoyable. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Anderson May with Mrs. R. A. Leslie and Mrs. Otilie Dowling in charge of the program.

Greetings
Birthday greetings to Mrs. Fred Lister who celebrated her birthday on Tuesday, Oct. 26 and to Lorrie Lyn Royce who also celebrated her birthday the same day, and to John Cordingley who will celebrate his birthday on Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. David Duguay (nee Donna Break) who were married on Saturday, Oct. 23, at Hillcrest United Church. Rev.

Lynne Adams officiated at the double ring ceremony. Following the ceremony a reception was held down stairs in the church hall. A dance was held later in the evening at the Masonic Hall, Milton, where everyone enjoyed themselves.

Kevin, Susan and Shelley Jepson of Georgetown, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamilton on Sunday, Oct. 24.

The Young People of Eden United Church held a successful drive on Saturday, Oct. 23, when dozens of glass bottles were collected to raise money for a needy cause.

A speedy recovery is extended to Mrs. Norman Flemington who has been quite ill following surgery.

Big success
The turkey supper held at Hillcrest United Church on Wednesday night, Oct. 20, was a tremendous success with a crowd of 472 people attending from far and wide. The ladies had to go home and get an extra supply of pies and cooked ham.

The 50th anniversary of the Eden United Church U.C.W. will be celebrated on Sunday morning, Oct. 30, when a luncheon will be served to celebrate this special occasion. Former members are invited to attend.

U.C.W. plans role in Mission Festival

By Mrs. Richard Sovereign

The evening unit of the U.C.W. met at the home of Helen Sovereign. "The Pac" was introduced and the study is about Africa this year. The worship was taken by Mrs. Bev Dukeshire who read a poem from the United Church Mission magazine Mandate. The poem was titled "Time to Invest and the end was with two words — In Love."

Mrs. Marjorie Hall read from the New English Bible. The unit discussed the potential of the Africa study and also organized their portion of the Mission Festival. It deals with the medical work in Canada, the work with Canadian Indians and Africa done by the United Church missions.

The group signed get well cards to Mrs. Grace Readhead and Mrs. Bernice Wiley both who are sick in hospital. The community also remembers the Readhead family at this time when their mother Mrs. Sarah Readhead is very ill.

Wayne and Val Irwin, Pat Powell, Gwen Peer, Esther Malmstrom, Cindy Powell and Helen Peer went to St. Giles United Church in Hamilton for their world mission night.

Layman's Sunday
Oct. 17 was Layman's Sunday at Lowville United. Jack Barton was in charge of the service and Glenn Richardson accompanied Jack with the readings.

Elmer Foster visited his daughter Ellen and her husband Ralf Lathan and their children over Thanksgiving weekend in Kingston.

Mrs. Annie Peer visited at her former home in Lowville with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ramshaw this past week. Annie celebrated her 89th birthday earlier this month and can tell of many old and interesting stories of the people and history of the community.

The people of Lowville extend their sympathy to the Readhead family on the death of their mother Mrs. Sarah Readhead. Our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Swallow, on the death of Mrs. Swallow's mother, Mrs. David Muir at Henderson Hospital.

The community is thinking of Mrs. Jessie Powell and family, as her husband Charles is ill in hospital.

Good to Keep: Canada Savings Bonds are safe. They're backed by all the resources of Canada and they pay average annual interest to maturity

7.19%

GET MORE GOING FOR YOU!

good interest — year after year. New Canada Savings Bonds yield an average of 7.19% a year when held to maturity. They're available in amounts from $50 up to a limit of $50,000. Each $100 Bond begins with $5.75 interest for the first year, pays $6.75 interest for the second year, pays $7.50 interest for each of the next five years, and then pays $7.75 interest for each of the last two years. On top of this you can earn interest on your interest and make each $100.00 grow to $187.00 in just 9 years. Canada Savings Bonds are good today, better tomorrow. They're Canada's most popular personal investment. Look ahead! Buy Canada Savings Bonds.
