OSP workers back on job

About 75 employees of Ontario Steel Products in Milton were temporarily laid off when the plant started to produce parts for the 1972 cars about five weeks ago. OSP spokesman Stan Edgar said almost all of those workers were back to work again.

Former minister guest speaker at St. Paul's Couples Club reunion

Reminiscences ran rampant as members and former members of St. Paul's Mr. and Mrs. Club gathered to mark the 25th anniversary of the group on Saturday. Rev. Gordon Porter and Mrs. Porter, who had been at St. Paul's when the group was formed, returned for the occasion as did the charter presidents Joe and Sheila Galloway. It was a night of remembering the activities of the past 25 years that ran from booths at the fall fair to minstrel and variety shows, hayrides, sleigh rides, dances and barbecues. Civic greetings Mayor Brian Best extended municipal greetings to those who were revisiting Milton and congratulated those who had kept the club active for the quarter century. President Burke McNeill presided for the program which included greetings from absent members, extended in letters, from Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Graham, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clutton, Regina; Mr. and Mrs. Art Williamson, Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allen, Mississauga; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brandon, Columbus Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillin, Listowel and Dr. and Mrs. Bob Curtis, New Zealand.

and Mildred Galloway. A film from the records of Herb Higgs portrayed more nostalgic moments. Guest speaker Rev. Porter, who was minister to St. Paul's congregation from 1938 to 1940 and 1945 to 1947, observed there was a new age since the club was formed. He urged that the club adjust to serve new purposes and meet new challenges that have come with that new age. While the club is a source of enrichment and fellowship, he urged that it play its role as an agent that makes things happen. The speaker was introduced by Shel Featherstone and thanked by Denzil Lawrence. Former presidents The past presidents for 21 of the club's past 25 years were represented at the meeting attended by many out-of-town guests including: Mrs. J. L. Blair, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Seaforth; Mr. and Mrs. Art Desjardine, Whitby; Mr. and Mrs. Hap Emms, Galt; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Galloway, Ajax; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hayward, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Harrop, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Litt, Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McKim, Ingersoll, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McDougall, Oakville, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moffat, Alma; Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Porter, Annan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thistlewaite, Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Thompson, Weston. Arrangements for the program were made by a committee headed by Reta and Ad Woodley.

77% vote in Halton West

Returning Officer Gordon Joedicke said his figures showed 77 per cent of Halton West voters cast ballots in Thursday's provincial election.

Although he hasn't broken figures down into percentages and totals for the various municipalities in the riding, he felt the percentage of voters ran close in all parts of the riding.

In Acton 2,282 voters turned out to give George Kerr a winning margin of slightly over 50 per cent which was below the riding's average of 56 per cent of the vote which the Conservatives captured, but above the provincial average of 44 per cent.

Esquesing voters in that strip of land which runs across 25 Sideroad to the north of the county gave George Kerr 493 votes, Bob McNutt 340 and Walter Mulkewich 213, in six polls.

Nassagaweya voters left no doubt where they stood in the three cornered race, placing George Kerr well out in front with 823 votes, Bob McNutt came in second in their affections with 347 and Walter Mulkewich a close third with 314.

Burlington, of course, plumped vigorously for Mr. Clean, gave McNutt second and the NDP man third place.

Following are the figures by polls for Acton, Esquesing and Nassagaweya, as they were posted election night and since endorsed by the returning officer:
